Severe Earth Shock Felt in Central Campania Today

NAPLES, June 7.—A severe earth shock caused a number of deaths and much property damage in Central Campania early today. The disturbance appears to have centered in the province of Avellino.

Telegraph wires were torn down and communication with the affected district was broken. Meagre reports received this forenoon indicate that the greatest damage was done at Calitri in the province of Avellino.

Calitri is said to have been half destroyed and 20 people to have been killed there.

Other deaths occurred at Valata, nearby, and it is feared that fatalities will be reported from other villages which for a time are cut off from communication with this.

The shock occurred early this morning while the people were still in their beds. Many houses at Calitri tumbled, burying the occupants in the ruins.

People fled terror stricken from their homes and into the country. None waited to don street clothes and as a result many subsequently suffered from exposure.

Troops were dispatched from all quarters into the affected district as soon as the loss of life and property damage became known to the government and the officials of nearby cities.

The shocks were felt here but no damage was done in this immediate vicinity.

News from Salerno, at the head of the gulf of Salerno, 30 miles southeast of Naples, is to the effect that the shock was distinct there and caused considerable damage. Details are lacking.

The shock was felt for ten seconds in the province of Avellino. It also was felt strongly but for a shorter period at Cossuza, Paola, Catanzaro, Reggio, Potenza, Benevento, Capua and Melit. It is said, however, that the damage in these towns was not serious and there was no loss of life.

The shock was also felt in the departments of Basilicata, Calabria and Sicily. It centered in that province of Avellino in Campania, but extended throughout the provinces of Benevento, Campobasso, Caserta and Naples.

A panic was created at Torre Annunziata and Torre del Greco, where the population lived in constant fear of an eruption from Mount Vesuvius.

Reports from Basilicata say that the shock was felt severely at Potenza. Similar reports come from Paola and Catanzaro in the department of Calabria and from Palermo on the northern coast of Sicily.

Reports from Basilicata say that the shock was felt severely at Potenza. Similar reports come from Paola and Catanzaro in the department of Calabria and from Palermo on the northern coast of Sicily.

The minister of public works has left for the scene of the quake. He is accompanied by officials of his department.

The government has decided to ask parliament for an appropriation of $100,000 for immediate relief.

King Victor Emmanuel, accompanied by Queen Helena, left for Avellino on a special train this afternoon. Two automobiles for their use were placed on board the train. Her majesty insisted upon going with the king instead of sending someone to represent her. The queen declared that her experience at Messina convinced her of the need of someone with authority who understood how to deal with such an emergency, and to give first aid.

Allege Mayor Howard Violated Dignity of Office

SALEM, June 7.—For "violating the dignity of his office," Mayor Arthur B. Howard of Salem was censured last night in a resolution passed by the board of aldermen. Inspector Patrick J. Leahan of the Salem police, over whom the trouble arose, was also censured by the board.

Mayor Howard, in a communication to the aldermen last night, recommended that Inspector Leahan be discharged for "insubordination." At a hearing, May 27, Inspector Leahan publicly demanded that the mayor apologize for having, as he alleged, applied to him an uncompromising epithet at a previous hearing. The mayor's recommendation for the inspector's dismissal is believed to have grown out of this incident. Leahan was a witness against the mayor at one of the latter's hearings on charges of criminal libel. The mayor, who is now under indictment in these cases, will probably be tried early next week.

Mayor Howard was elected last year after he had been a resident of the city but a short time. Ever since he took office he has been in financial difficulties, his entire salary for seven months he has served having been either attached or assigned, so that he has really received so far not a cent in salary. Although sometimes referred to as the "Boy Mayor," he is 41 years old.

The mayor last night denied that he had used the epithet charged by Leahan. He added: "No gentleman ever uses such a word, and I am always a gentleman."

FUNERALS

LINCOLN.—The funeral of Mrs. Kate Lincoln took place this morning from her late home, 505 Gorham street, at 8.15 o'clock, and was very largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The cortege proceeded to St. Peter's church, where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. John Burns. The choir under the direction of Mr. James E. Donnelly sang the Gregorian mass. At the offertory "Pie Jesu" was rendered by Miss May Whittier, and after the elevation Mr. James E. Donnelly sang "O Meritum Passionis." As the remains were borne from the church the choir sang "De Profundis." Mrs. J. W. McKenney presided at the organ. There was a large sheaf of wheat from the daughter, Mrs. Michael Ward, of Lynn. Mrs. Burial was in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery, where Rev. Fr. Burns read the committal prayers at the grave. Funeral Director Thomas J. McDermott had charge.

PLANTE.—The funeral of George Plante took place yesterday morning from his home, 162 Fletcher street, with funeral services at St. Joseph's church. Rev. Fr. Racette, O. M. I., officiated. The choir sang Peral's harmonized mass, with Frank Gournaud as director and Joseph A. Bernard at the organ. The bearers were O. Gervais, C. L. Heroux, G. Dunn, H. Gagnon, E. Cote and J. J. Chiquet. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, and Rev. Fr. Amyot, O. M. I., officiated at the grave. Undertaker Amedee Archambault had charge.

George Plante died Saturday night after a very brief illness. He had been getting ready to go to Canada, when he became indisposed and died some 12 hours after first becoming ill. He leaves a wife and five children, Mrs. Philippe Cote, Miss Albina Plante and three sons.

MOORE.—The death of William A. Moore of the firm of W. A. Moore & Co., occurred on Thursday at his home in Groton after a sickness of more than a year and a half.

The funeral was on Sunday, the services being held in the Congregational church, of which he was a member. The Groton lodge, I. O. O. F., of which he was also a member, had charge of the arrangements.

There was an abundance of choice flowers, from family and friends. Set pieces from the I. O. O. F. in the three links, with emblem; in red, white and blue, with wreath from the town Republican club and pillow from the fire department, were noted among the many.

Mr. Moore was 61 years of age. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Minnie Davis Moore, one daughter, Miss Helen Belle Moore, and a sister, Miss Helen M. Moore.

DEATHS

PENDERGAST.—John Pendergast, aged 9 months, child of John H. and Annie T. Pendergast, died last night at the home of the parents, 4 Cross street avenue.

WATSON.—Mrs. Abbie Watson, aged 81 years, 8 months and 27 days, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. Winfield Knowlton, 54 Westford street. She leaves besides her daughter, four grandchildren, Winifred B. Knowlton of Lawrence, and Harry W. Knowlton of Lowell; Mrs. Paul R. Bachelder of Lowell and sister, W. H. Chapple, of Newton Highlands, and five great grandchildren.

BROWN.—Miss Jennie Brown died last evening, aged 25 years, at her home, 219 Adams street. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Brown, four brothers, James, Joseph, Walter and George Brown, and two sisters, Mrs. Mary Gillick and Miss Hattie Brown. The death is particularly sad, following, as it is, within two months of her father's death. She was a well known member of St. Patrick's parish.

IN POLICE COURT

Leo Ozana, aged 17 years, who was on probation for being a stubborn child, was surrendered by Agent Richardson this morning and brought into court. The boy is an exceptionally bright lad and speaks four languages, English, French, Polish and Greek, but he is inclined to be wild and his parents can do nothing with him. The brightness of the boy, however, touched Judge Hadley and after giving Ozana some good advice continued him on probation.

Placed on Probation

Joseph P. Lamothe, who was last week charged with threatening his wife, and who has been in jail for this morning and was placed in the custody of the probation officer.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the undersigned, take this means of expressing our sincere thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness and beautiful floral offerings on the death of our beloved daughter and sister, Miss Margaret Bradley. Their kindness will always be remembered with gratitude.

Mrs. Mary Bradley and family.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

NORWICH, Conn., June 7.—The democrats won a complete victory here yesterday when they elected the entire ticket, headed by Charles P. Thayer for mayor. The majority for the mayor was 154, while the normal majority was 141. The retiring administration was republican.

THE ALDERMEN Will Ballot for Principal Assessor at Tonight's Meeting

The board of aldermen will meet this evening and will probably proceed to the election of a principal assessor to succeed the late Abel Wheeler. Solomon Mayberry has been elected by the common council and it is up to the aldermen to agree with the lower board or to disagree. In the meantime the office of principal assessor is being filled by Frank M. Brogan who was appointed by Mayor Meehan pending the election of a successor to Mr. Wheeler.

The aldermen will have a busy time of it tonight. There are no less than twelve hearings scheduled and while none of them is very important about 300 notices to petitioners and others have been sent out from the city clerk's office. Should parties notified respond in person standing room would be at a premium.

Old Shacks Removed

James Dow, superintendent of buildings, turned his attention early in the year to the abolition of old buildings throughout the city, buildings unfit for habitation and not pleasing to the eye. Quite a number of old shacks in Moody street, about opposite Memorial hospital, have been removed and the appearance of the neighborhood much improved. Several other old buildings in different parts of the city have been torn down and property has been generally improved.

Those Milk Laws

The new milk rules and regulations as given out by the board of health are being pretty well lived up to. Some of the milkmen are still waiting for better milk.

ABOUT RAZOR BLADES

After July 1 the manufacturers of the Ever Ready Safety Razors discontinue exchanging blades, so get your old blades in before we close on the night of June 30. Remember, we are headquarters for everything good in the safety razor line, carrying the Gillette in a dozen different styles, Gem, Gem Junior, King David, Durham Duplex, and Auto-Hutop.

Marriage Intentions

June 6—Nicholas Angerosa, 24, laborer, 4 Wiggin street, and Fannie Tabuto, 17, at home, same address.

John M. Coughlin, 34, second hand, 201 Lawrence street, and Alice A. Pucell, 31, at home, 25 Sixth street.

Andrei Boumla, 28, operative, 9 Bent's court, and Lavonora Klupfiek, 26, operative, 67 Charles street.

William F. Farrell, 30, roll coverer, 15 Lawrence street, and Rose Carroll, 22, at home, 57 Chestnut street.

Eugene Gette, 26, operative, 8 Alken street, and Barnette Prouette, 24, hostler, 110 Moody street.

June 7—William E. Ashworth, 22, milk dealer, 67 So. Walker street, and Mabel D. Holmes, 22, at home, 37 Sutherland street.

John J. M. Pineault, 21, bookkeeper, 114 Perkins street, and Mary V. Matte, 18, hostler, 135 Alken street.

FUNERAL NOTICES

COLLINS.—The funeral of the late Dennis J. Collins will take place Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from his home, 118 Allen street, and at 9 o'clock high mass of requiem will be sung at St. Michael's church. Undertaker Thomas A. Saunders in charge.

SWENEY.—The funeral of Bernard Sweney will take place Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock from his home, 138 Pleasant street, and at 9 o'clock a mass of requiem will be sung at the immaculate Conception church. Please omit flowers. J. F. O'Donnell & Sons, Undertakers.

PERKINS.—The funeral of Thomas Perkins will take place Wednesday afternoon. Services at 2 o'clock at his home, 29 Farram ave. Friends invited. J. F. O'Donnell & Sons, Undertakers.

LIVINGSTON PARK

Appropriations Committee Would Buy It

FOR PARK AND PLAYGROUND PURPOSES

Committee Refused Special Appropriation For Bill Owed For Feeble Minded—New Pump Matter Goes Back to Water Board

The committee on appropriations met at city hall last night and recommended the purchase of the Livingston land in the Highlands for park purposes, the purchase price being $12,000.

The committee refused to recommend a special appropriation for the payment of the bill owed for some years past to the Massachusetts School for Feeble Minded Children. The amount of the bill is $4286.92.

The question of a new pump for the Centralville pumping station as requested by the water board was taken up. The committee had asked an opinion from the city solicitor relative to this matter and the opinion was read. On motion of Alderman Dexter it was voted to refer the opinion to the water board with the recommendation that the board get plans, specifications and bids on the new pump.

The committee will forward a communication to the city council in which it will be stated that when appropriations were fixed early in the year the committee on appropriations had in mind the bill for $4286.92 in favor of the Massachusetts School for the Feeble Minded, and that the amount recommended for the charity department, $75,000, was intended to include the bill in question.

The committee, with the exception of Councilman Flanagan, voted the following recommendation to the city council:

Your committee would respectfully report that in its opinion the appropriation given early in the year is ample to pay all proper expenses for this year, as well as the bill in favor of the Massachusetts School for the Feeble Minded.

The Park Land

The proposed purchase of the Livingston land in upper Middlesex street for park purposes was next in order. Chairman Gray reported that the purchase price, $12,000, is about the same as it was last year. All of the members, with the exception of Councilman Flanagan, favored the purchase, and on a vote Councilman Flanagan was the only dissenter. The latter allowed that it was too much to pay for the land, and argued that it might be bought at a lower price.

After considering the fact that it would require a two-thirds vote of the city government to pass a special loan order for the amount named, the committee recommended that it be taken from the general treasury fund, which needs only a majority vote. Councilman Flanagan voted against the proposition. Adjourned at 8:15.

ANNUAL MEETING

OF THE BOOK-A-MONTH CLUB HELD LAST NIGHT

The annual meeting of the Book-a-Month club was held last night at the home of Mrs. J. Clark Glidden, 1239 Middlesex street. Mrs. Wm. H. Kezer presided, and during the early part of the meeting considerable routine business was transacted.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. J. Clark Glidden; vice president, Mrs. Wm. H. Kezer; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. John J. Fitzhugh. The new president appointed the following committees: Program, Mrs. Wesley M. Wilder, Mrs. Rodrigue Mignault, Miss Ella Carlton; entertainment, Mrs. Charles Abner, Mrs. Wm. E. Kezer, Miss Sadie Gardiner; current events, Mrs. Merton N. Glidden; flowers, Mrs. Wm. A. Markes. A feature of the evening was the presentation to the retiring president, Mrs. Kezer, of a book of poems from the women present.

The evening was then spent pleasantly with an indoor picnic and games. After a vote of thanks to the hostess, the club adjourned until fall when the subject to be studied will be Mexico and lower California. The subject of lace and precious gems will also be on the list.

To the Women of Lowell and Surrounding Towns

We wish to announce that we have been working for some time past with our designers and manufacturers to bring out the very newest and prettiest designs in women's wear for the summer months and now feel confident that we will be able to MAKE MANY HAPPY HEARTS.

We have been trying for years to make dresses of distinction at $4.50, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00, but until this season could not get just the right lines and shapes combined with style, but now we know that you will agree with us that this has been accomplished. This also has been done in the better grade of dresses from $10.00 to $25.00.

The tailor-made suit, the tailor-made coat, the tailor-made skirt and the shirt waist have become established; the tailor-made dress has now been perfected, which completes the wardrobe.

We were among the first to introduce the woman's ready-made garment in New England, of which we are proud. WE CORDIALLY INVITE THE LADIES OF LOWELL AND SURROUNDING TOWNS TO COME AND INSPECT THIS SUPERB SHOWING OF DRESSES. COME TOMORROW.

We have many imitators, but, as we originate many Color Combinations with style, you will find that ours have that difference you want in snap and finish.

We have designed dresses for Juniors—not misses' dresses reduced to Junior sizes, but dresses that will fit the growing girls perfectly without alteration.

Yours Respectfully,

TOMATOES RUINED

By the Heavy Frost That Prevailed Early Sunday Morning

Farmers of Chelmsford, Westford, Littleton and Neighboring Towns Are Mourning the Loss of Their Vegetable Plants

The farmers of Chelmsford, Littleton, Tyngsboro, Carlisle and other nearby towns are mourning the loss of valuable vegetable beds as the result of a heavy white frost that covered the land Saturday night.

A heavy frost on June 4 seems decidedly improbable, but the chilled tomato plants tell the story, and all but the most hardy vegetables will have to be replanted again. In the Littleton lowlands the damage was quite severe. In Westford potatoes, beans and corn suffered while the orchards and the vegetables on Westford hill escaped.

In Hudson, N. H., the farmers covered their tomato vines with water but even then the frost got to them. The cucumber vines of Grantville were nipped by the frost and the crop destroyed. Chelmsford suffered heavily from the frost. Tomatoes, beans, corn and squashes suffered heavily.

Mitchell Leboeuf, who resides on the Boston road, lost all but 15 out of $60 tomato plants besides a quantity of squashes and beans. In order to get the early market he had started them in hot-houses in January. He estimates his loss at $300.

Supt. Hunsford of Chelmsford at town farm loses 100 tomato plants while his crop of beans was ruined. Mrs. Hunsford loses a fine bed of dahlias.

Elmer E. Hildreth reports the destruction of a quarter acre potato patch. A white frost was reported on ploughed fields in Chelmsford at 1 o'clock Sunday morning.

MARRATIO DEAD

He Was Stabbed During Street Fight

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 7.—A feud which started years ago between two Italians employed on the same job was renewed in a quarrel on Market street here last night, resulting in the fatal stabbing of Guppa Marratio, aged 40; Augustino Grovato, aged 35, being arrested for the deed and charged with murder.

The men met in a saloon and carried a quarrel started there into the street. Grovato, it is claimed, drew out an ordinary jackknife and stabbed Marratio in the abdomen, the latter dying within a few minutes.

Marratio leaves a wife, Grovato is single.

DOCTOR FASTING

HAS GONE WITHOUT FOOD FOR THREE WEEKS

NEW YORK, June 7.—Dr. Gustav A. Gayer finished yesterday the third week of the fast he has undertaken to prove that the mind rules the body. He weighs 185 pounds, 27 pounds less than when he began.

"If it were not for the fact that I wish to preserve my strength for my work," said Dr. Gayer yesterday, "I should continue my fast for 60 or 70 days. As it is, I shall probably begin eating gradually again at the end of another week."

The doctor's physicians say he is in perfect condition mentally and physically, but his face is lined and drawn and he complains of slight weakness in the afternoons. He has also curtailed his work on the advice of physicians who feared too severe strain might cause a sudden collapse.

ART EXHIBITION

Held at the Whistler House

If you would know something of the art work that is being done in the public schools in Lowell, drop in at the Whistler house where an exhibition is being held under the auspices of the Lowell Art Association. The exhibition opened yesterday and the attendance was large. Parents and children alike are interested in the work on exhibition there, and the work shows a revelation to a great many for those of us who left school years ago do not appreciate how the art work in the schools has been developed.

The work of the kindergartens and the work of the high school are side by side and while the high school work shows the process of development, the finer touch, etc., the little ones from the kindergartens may feel justly proud of their work exhibited there. The work of the kindergartens illustrates the various months. There are autumn leaves in color for October, Christmas flowers and greenery for December, and so on and so forth. The high school shows stenciled designs, clever drawings for wall paper, and autumn leaves in brilliant colors.

The work of the grammar schools is shown in the main room and there are numerous drawings. The character of the work is excellent. The training school has a sample of leather work and an illuminated poem on Thanksgiving.

The primary school exhibit is very interesting. The child's real fancy is found here and the exhibit abounds in animals cut from cardboard and other things too numerous to mention.

In order to thoroughly enjoy the exhibition you must see for yourself. The hours are ten to five, and the admission, ten cents for adults and five for children.

CHIEF CROKER

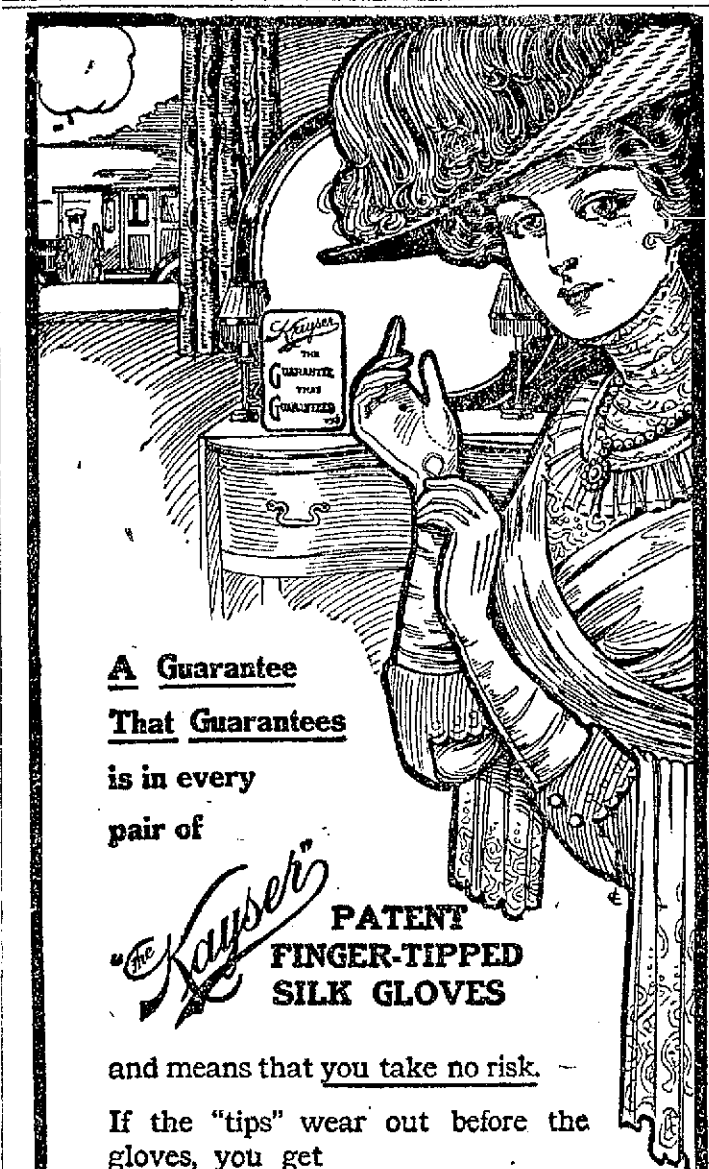

Scores New York Fire Department

NEW YORK, June 7.—The New York fire department, widely lauded as the most workmanlike and best organized in the world, is only 40 per cent efficient, in the opinion of its chief. Two firemen were smothered early yesterday morning in a downtown warehouse blaze, and Chief Croker's sorrow at the loss of life was blended with anger over the manner in which it came to pass.

"There was a panic in that fire," he said, "and I want it known. A majority of the men fighting that fire were young civil service firemen. When they got into the thick of the smoke their lungs could not stand the strain. They got frightened, dropped the hose and ran. It wasn't much of the hose and run, but I want all of them with lungs. The charred smoking, weak lunged, undersized, civil service firemen have been demoralizing the department for the last 26 years—ever since the civil service commission began to pass on applicants."

"How does it happen," Chief Croker was asked, "that the apparent efficiency of the department is so high?"

The oldtimers leave the best," replied the chief. "The 40 per cent of efficiency puts shame into the 60 per cent of inefficiency; but there are less oldtimers every year."

Here's a New Cigar of Great Merit

If you are a tobacco critic the advent of a new cigar should attract your attention.

We are placing on the market a new cigar called—

The "3-20-8"

You will find it has qualities superior to your favorite brand.

And these qualities, unequalled at the price, will please you far beyond your expectations.

The tobacco we use in the "3-20-8" is the finest imported Havana leaf—thoroughly seasoned and mellowed—the kind that has fragrance and flavor.

We make it in Boston where we have newly equipped a great factory.

In this factory we employ only skilled union workmen—high-priced men—who know their business.

Our every effort is concentrated in making—

Only One Brand—One Quality—in several attractive shapes.

10 cents each—or 3 for 25 cents

If you like a real good smoke, full of fragrance and flavor, you must try the "3-20-8."

Watch for the name "3-20-8" die-stamped in the Sumatra wrapper.

Reputable dealers now have them.

One Brand—One Quality. 10c Each—or 3 for 25c.

REV. FR. SAUNDERS

WAS PRESENTED A CHALICE BY THE CHILDREN

Rev. Fr. Edward F. Saunders, formerly of St. Anne's church, Lowell, who was presented with an automobile by his parishioners a few days ago, yesterday received a tribute from the Sunday school children.

The latter felt that they would like to make a gift of their own and raised $110. They purchased a gold chalice which they sent to the priest at Popper.

FRAUD IS CHARGED

Illinois Central Brings Suit Against Former Officials

CHICAGO, June 7.—Charging that it has been defrauded of about $2,000,000 on repair work in a period of four years the Illinois Central railroad company filed suit yesterday in the circuit court for an accounting against four of its former officers.

The railroad company's bill, which alleges conspiracy to defraud, names the following men: Orlando S. Keith, formerly superintendent of transportation; Joseph E. Baker, formerly assistant superintendent of machinery; William Renshaw, also formerly assistant superintendent of the machinery department; and John M. Taylor, formerly general storekeeper.

In connection with the charges the Illinois Central road declares in its bill that these concerns profited in leged overcharges on car repair work in the following amounts: The Blue Island Equipment company, $400,000; American Car & Equipment company, $100,000; Aosterman Manufacturing company, $750,000; Memphis Car company, $300,000, and the International Car company.

In addition to the suit filed against the four former officers the railroad also filed suits for an accounting against the West Pullman Car company and against the American Car Equipment company.

The filing of the suits follows an investigation by the railroad company and numerous rumors of an alleged graft "ring" in the Illinois Central railroad. High officers of the road have stoutly denied that any trouble of this character existed.

THE MILK WAR

Believed to be Practically Ended

BOSTON, June 7.—The "milk war" is practically at an end.

One of the largest milk contracting concerns in the city yesterday signed an agreement with representatives of the producers, and it is expected by the officers of the Milk Producing Farmers association that another large company will agree to the demands of the producers today.

The contracting firm that yielded yesterday was H. P. Hood & Sons. The Hood company agreed to pay the winter prices to the producers from July 1 to May 1. Because several days of the present month have already gone by, it was agreed the new scale of prices would not become operative until the first day of July, but instead the price paid by the contracting concern will be the same as last year.

Last night the Hood company gave out the following statement:

"At a conference today between H. P. Hood & Sons and Dr. Davis of Calman, N. H., Mr. Locke of Bar Mills, Me., Mr. Dean of Grafton, N. H., and Mr. McNally of Lancaster, N. H., representing the producers who furnish milk to the Hood company on contract, a mutually satisfactory agreement was made. Last winter's price is to be paid for the ten months commencing July 1. The price for this month will be the same as paid for June last year. Cans will be sent out as soon as possible, and all producers are requested to resume shipments as soon as they can conveniently do so."

Secretary Barker of the producers was jubilant over the prospects of a sudden ending of the controversy last night. He admitted that representatives of this association were in con-

ELOPING COUPLE

Were Wed Legally at Bayonne, N. J.

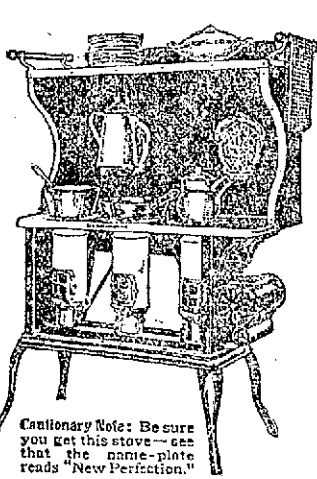

BOSTON, June 7.—The sensational Tarbox-Devine elopement has adjusted itself, for the former married man and his stenographer are now man and wife. On June 3 of last year the couple, who had been in the employ of a girl, who had been in his employ, and whether it was a coincidence, or the intention of the parties, Gertrude M. Devine and Bernard L. Tarbox, just one year to the day from their elopement, were legally married in Bayonne, N. J.

It is the second time that Miss Devine and Tarbox have been married, for on June 3, the day they left Boston, the pair had a ceremony performed by Rev. Hugh P. Hughes of the Globe congregational church, in Woonsocket, R. I. That marriage, however, was a bigamous one on the part of Tarbox. At first divorce could hardly be given to the disenchanted from the Rhode Island city, for it was less than seven months before that Tarbox had married Miss Blanche P. Matthews at Bath, Me., and he and his bride went to live in the Bradford court apartment at Newton Centre.

NO REASON FOR PIMPLES

New Healing Agent Causes Them to Disappear

The dispensers of poslam, the new skin discovery, ask that notice be given that no one is urged to purchase it without first obtaining the sample package, which will be sent free to anyone who writes to the Emergency Laboratories, 22 West Twenty-fifth street, New York. This is usually enough to clear the complexion and rid the face of pimples. Everyone who has tried poslam knows that the face box, on sale at Falls & Burkhead's, Carter & Sherburne's, and the Riker-Jaynes Drug Co.'s, as well as all other drug stores, contains sufficient for the worst cases of eczema, where the surface affected is not too itchy. The itching ceases on first application. It will also cure acne, letter, blotches, sealy scalp, hives, barbers' and every other form of itch, including itching feet. Being flesh-colored and containing no grease, the presence of poslam on exposed surfaces, such as the face and hands, is not perceptible. Water and soap cannot be used in connection with it, as these irritate and prolong skin troubles, sometimes even causing them.

MAN DISAPPEARED

Left Number of Jewels Behind Him

BOSTON, June 7.—Frederick J. Foster, 30 years old, salesman representing a jewelry manufacturing company of Detroit in the eastern territory, disappeared on May 12 from the Parker house, where he had been a guest for three days.

It was stated unofficially yesterday that the matter was brought to the attention of the police by the hotel management at the request of the mother of the missing salesman, Mrs. A. E. Foster of Summerville, N. J. She has not heard from her son for more than a month and fears that he has met with foul play.

May 12 Foster left the Parker house. No alarm was felt when he did not return in the evening, but when a week elapsed it was decided to inspect his room.

A clerk found Foster's sample cases containing jewelry valued, it is said, at least $10,000 in the room. The property was shipped to Detroit. According to later information the inventory revealed that there was no shortage and that the accounts of the missing man were correct.

Yesterday the police were told that Foster is 5 feet, 10 inches in height, weighs 165 pounds, is of dark complexion and has a dark mustache. The police lean to the theory of foul play. Foster, it is said, may have been waylaid by somebody who believed that he carried large sums of money and precious stones with him.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Frederic Desrosiers, president of Carillon council, Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique, and Miss Georgianna Harrison were married yesterday morning at St. Joseph's church, where a nuptial mass was celebrated at 7 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Baron, O. M. I. The bride wore white silk, with pearl trimmings, and a tulle veil, and carried white carnations. She was attended by a cousin, Mr. Frank Gagnon. The bridegroom's witness was his uncle, Narcisse Asselin.

During the mass the choir of Notre-Dame de Lourdes sodality, of which the bride was a member, sang appropriate hymns. Joseph A. Bernard played the organ.

After the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Joseph Desrosiers, 308 Alken street. At 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Desrosiers left on a trip to Springfield, Chicopee Falls, Holyoke and Salem. Upon their return Saturday night a reception will be given at the home of the bridegroom's mother, 308 Alken street. Mr. and Mrs. Desrosiers will live at 171 Hall street.

BULFINCH-PARKER

Mr. Henry M. Bulfinch and Miss Ethel E. Parker, both of this city, were married last evening by Rev. R. Harris of the First Street Free Baptist church, at his home. Mr. and Mrs. Bulfinch will make their home in Lowell.

BRIDGE CONTRACT

Was Awarded to Springfield Firm

NASHUA, N. H., June 7.—The contract for the building of the reinforced concrete bridge over the Merrimack river between Nashua and Hudson was awarded to the Fred T. Leary company of Springfield, Mass. last night. It was immediately signed by M. W. Denman, a representative of the company, and members of the bridge committee representing Nashua and Hudson.

The work of building the bridge will begin June 10, and is expected to cover 120 working days. The cost of the structure will be $74,480. The bids were as follows: The Ferro concrete company of Harrisburg, Pa., $81,000; the bridge to be completed Nov. 15; the Oswego company of Oswego, N. Y., $75,200, the bridge to be finished in five months, and Conners Bros. of Lowell, $102,100, the bridge to be finished in nine months. There were other stipulations in the Conners Bros. bid outside of the specification which it adopted would reduce their bid $11,500.

Plans for inspection and testing were made by the joint committee.

THE RAILROAD

Have Agreed to Withdraw Tariffs

WASHINGTON, June 7.—After a conference lasting four hours President Taft and the representatives of twenty-four enrolled western railroads reached an agreement late yesterday afternoon whereby the government is to withdraw its rate increase injunction suits against these roads, and the roads, pending the passage of the new railroad law, agree to withdraw the tariffs recently filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The conference really resulted in trade between the president and the attorney general, on the one hand, and the western railroads on the other, the assumption being that the new rate bill will become law and that under it the Interstate Commerce Commission will have power to determine the reasonableness of the increases the roads have endeavored to put into effect.

SERIOUS INJURY

RUSSELL SHAW VICTIM OF A PECULIAR ACCIDENT

BOSTON, June 7.—Russell Shaw of Jamaica Plain, employed as a driver by the S. S. Pierce company in Brookline, was the victim of a peculiar accident, while driving his wagon on Kennard road, Brookline, early yesterday morning. He was at the Massachusetts General hospital in a critical condition.

The covered top of Shaw's wagon caught in a branch of a large tree opposite the home of H. W. Ogden. The strain on the wagon snapped the key bolt on the front axle and the front wheels parted from the wagon. Shaw was hurled forward and fell under one of the wheels.

Three of his ribs were fractured and he also suffered other serious internal injuries. His head and hands were badly cut. The injured man was found unconscious in the road. Dr. H. Lincoln Chase was called and ordered Shaw taken to the hospital.

The horse kept going and was found later hitched to the shafts and front wheels.

The injured man is married and formerly lived in Brookline.

WANTS $5000

WOMAN SUES FOR ALLEGED BREACH OF PROMISE

WORCESTER, June 7.—There will be no wedding bells today for Miss Mary Desgens of Fitchburg, and as a result she brought suit to recover $5000 for alleged breach of promise from Arsene Giguere of Gardner. The action was brought in the superior court yesterday after an attachment had been made on the property of the defendant.

It is alleged by Miss Desgens they were to be married on June 7 and that plans had progressed so far that their names of marriage had been published once in her home church, but for some reason unknown to her Giguere stopped further plans and refused to marry her.

WAS FINED $5000

Woman Was Convicted of Smuggling

TRENTON, N. J., June 7.—A fine of $5000 was imposed yesterday by Judge Reistal, in the United States court, on Mrs. Matilda M. Chesbrough, wife of a wealthy Boston ship owner, who was recently convicted of trying to smuggle personal property into this country. Counsel for Mrs. Chesbrough announced that an appeal would be taken to the United States circuit court of appeals.

Mrs. Fremont R. Chesbrough, whose husband is a millionaire steamship owner, has lived in Newton for the past two years, coming from Emerson, Mich., where Mr. Chesbrough has large lumber interests. In 1907, two years ago he brought two of his freight and ore steamers down the St. Lawrence to Boston from the Great Lakes, after larger vessels had captured the trade. He owns the town of Emerson and the lands for 30 miles along the Thuanamun river, which is the scene of Harvard's lumbering in Longfellow's poem. In his lumber mill 150,000 feet of lumber is cut in a day.

Their daughter, Elsie Noe Chesbrough, was married last summer to William Austin of Detroit.

DIED OF LOCKJAW

First "Fourth of July" Victim

NEW YORK, June 6.—The victim of the first "Fourth of July" accident in Greater New York and of the form of celebration which Mayor Gaynor wants to do away with, is Frank Knapp, 18 years old, of Brooklyn.

About 10 days ago young Knapp came home in the afternoon and found the children of several neighbors with fireworks. He was told that they were "celebrating the Fourth." To let the youngsters hear more noise Frank went into the house, got a pistol and loaded it with blank cartridges. He fired until he thought all the chambers were empty. He pulled the trigger to show a boy how it worked.

Instead of a click there was an explosion, and Knapp was burned on the right thigh. The burn stung, but he paid little attention to it. Several days afterward, however, it began to pain him and he applied a home remedy. Yesterday the wound became so painful that his parents said he must get hospital treatment.

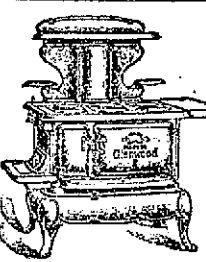

He started to say something and found he could not move his jaws. They were locked. Dr. Fabst took him to the Brooklyn hospital, where it was found he had tetanus. It was said he would die.

AUTO STRUCK WAGON

Messrs. Whittet and Knapp Had Narrow Escapes

The recklessness of two drivers of automobile trucks belonging to the Lowell Gas Light Co. in School street, shortly after five o'clock yesterday afternoon, nearly resulted in the fatal injury of James Whittet, the contractor, and Charles L. Knapp, of the Middlesex Safe Deposit and Trust company.

The automobiles were racing through the streets at an extremely high rate of speed for a public thoroughfare and one of the drivers losing control of his truck, crashed into the wagon which was occupied by Messrs. Whittet and Knapp. Fortunately neither of the men was seriously hurt, but they were badly shaken up and suffered bruises.

Inasmuch as the automobile struck the wagon from the rear the occupants were not aware of the danger which they were in until the truck crashed into the wagon and raised the latter off the ground.

The crash came as the wagon reached a point near the canal bridge near the railroad crossing in School street. Railroad men in the vicinity rushed to the scene and in a moment a crowd of 200 or more had gathered. The two trucks came down the School street hill, side by side, both going fast. Just why the accident happened has not been explained, but the automobiles kept their relative positions until one of them piled itself up under the wagon. It was so deeply buried that the assistance of several men was needed to lift the wagon off the auto and set it on the ground.

Messrs. Whittet and Knapp were thrown into the street and when picked up it was found that Mr. Whittet was suffering from painful injuries to one of his ankles. Later a physician examined him and decided that the cords and tendons had been badly strained.

WOMAN IS ALIVE BURNED TO DEATH

Though She Had Been Declared Dead

NEW YORK, June 7.—If Mary McGonigle read the newspapers none of the complications below would now puzzle her relatives.

Mary McGonigle was struck by a trolley car last April and died shortly afterwards in a hospital; on notification from the coroner, her relatives came to view the body and she was identified by her son Edward, a private in the Fifth United States Infantry, her sister, her brother and a cousin; a burial permit was issued in the name of Mary McGonigle, an insurance company paid $117 on the life of Mary McGonigle, the traction company paid $850 for the funeral of Mary McGonigle; the body of Mary McGonigle now lies in Calvary cemetery, and last night Mary McGonigle in the flesh walked into her sister's house.

To say there was surprise at her visit would underestimate the emotions of the relatives. The sister screamed, and a small niece fainted. There came explanations. Mary McGonigle was certainly buried, but it was another Mary. The living woman is a wash woman in private service and her address fluctuates with her employment. The dead woman who bore such an extraordinary resemblance to her was no relation, but knew her and gave her address to the hospital.

THE HIPPODROME

WASHINGTON PARK TO BE THE SCENE OF THE AMUSEMENT

Carl L. Perin of New York City, owner and manager of many amusement enterprises, announces that Washington park, right in the heart of Lowell, will be opened on Monday, June 13, as an open air hippodrome showing all the latest circus and vaudeville acts. In addition to this, there will be band concerts, and running through the entire performance will be a group of clowns to amuse the young people of all ages.

Washington Park is ideally located being within walking distance from any part of the city. This big advantage is not only a saving of fare, but also avoids the rush and crush of getting to the grounds and also the annoying waits and delays after the performance is over.

The grounds will be brilliantly lighted with a myriad of incandescent and are lights making Washington Park a pleasing sight to the eye and as light as a sunny afternoon.

There has been a force of carpenters, electricians and painters on the grounds now for two weeks getting the park in tip top condition for the opening and when the doors swing wide on Monday afternoon, June 13, the management promises a revelation in outdoor amusement.

The numerous trained animals, including acts and all sorts of sensational vaudeville turns will be presented for the public's approval. In addition to these will be the band concerts and the latest vaudeville pictures will be shown during the evening performance. There will be an elevated stage and a big circus ring where the various performers will work.

There will be two performances daily and the seating capacity has been enlarged to accommodate the large crowds which the management expects, as the admission has been placed at the low figure of ten cents.

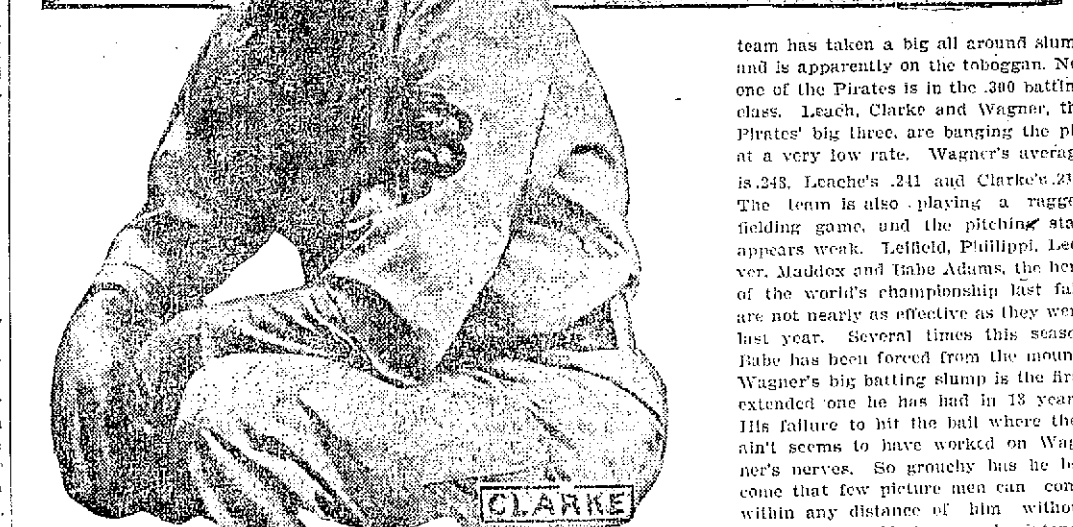

The park will be run on the best plan possible and a special endeavor will be made to enter to ladies and children, and as Mr. Perin stated on motto is "A Place to Bring Your Family and Enjoy Yourself."

WHAT AILS THE BATTLING EYES OF THESE TWO GREAT PITTSBURG BALL TOSSERS?

PITTSBURG, June 7.—What ails the Pittsburgh-world champions? One month ago many experts considered the Buccaneers to be the strongest team in the National league and one which had an excellent chance to capture the gonfalon and perhaps another world's title. Recently, however, the

DIAMOND NOTES

Nothing doing at Spaulding park until Friday.

Worcester is looking around for Oratory and Campbell. The latter has returned to his home in Southern California thoroughly disgusted with the New England climate.

There'll be an awful lot of double-headers coming soon.

Vance has been left at home on the southern trip.

The Bugs in Lowell are so overjoyed in the knowledge that they have a good first baseman at last that the school children are to sing 100 stanzas in honor of Fred Tenney. The music is by Rob Partridge with appropriate words from the versatile pen of Jimmy Hearn of the Lowell Sun-Lynn News.

Will meet you at the Relay House. Bring the animal, but hitch him outside.

A local fan has sent in an All-New England league club as follows: Pitchers, Abbott of Lynn, Finlayson of Lawrence, Griffin of New Bedford and Kenyon of Worcester; catchers, Dunn of Lynn and McLane of Worcester; House of Worcester, Dr. Logan of Lynn, Dr. Burg of Lynn, Dr. Cargo of Lynn, Dr. Rising of New Bedford, Dr. Cram of Worcester, Dr. Divine of Fall River, Dr.

We'll give you three guesses as to the town in which that fan lives. Lynn? Sure!

So Mr. Flaherty is trying to play first base for Lowell. They have called him Young Hal Chase up in Lowell, and it's a cinch Flaherty is old enough to be Hal's pap—Brooklyn Times.

"Dunham" Conley, the deaf and dumb pitcher who was with New Bedford for a time last season, blew into Brockton yesterday, got into a suit of his own, and showed up on the Brockton bench, looking for a chance to pitch. Manager Flanagan's men, he has not been elected but Manager Flanagan said this morning that he would probably be around again today, and in case of necessity might be used. He won't be retained on the team, however.—Brockton Enterprise.

CASEY ON HAVERHILL

Daniel W. Casey, we haven't the pleasure of the gentleman's acquaintance, but the name looks good from the road, writes the following in the Haverhill Sunday Record:

Yesterday's game with Lowell was a good demonstration that with a good pitcher in the box, Haverhill can win games, and now the kind of a ball player who has been needed more than any other is on his way to this city. His name is Thomas Scanton, he is a left-handed pitcher, he has an excellent record, and his last place of employment was in Philadelphia where he was with the National league team.

Realizing that a heart ailment of ability can win the majority of the games from Lynn and Lowell, Manager Fleming has been on the hunt for a good man for some time past and while he has had many men offered him, but they all aside until he got just the man he wanted.

"Red" Doan, manager of the Philadelphia, having his trouble, his team having dropped from the lead to seventh place in the league standing and there is talk that the players are fighting among themselves, in the mix-up

CHAS. K. HAMILTON TO TRY FOR BIPLANE RECORD

President Fogel gave Scanton his unconditional release, and the pack, packing his grip, departed to Syracuse.

The news reached the ears of Manager Fleming as quick as the Western Union could convey the message and the legal man wired him to come here. The terms were accepted, and today, Scanton is waiting in a Pullman car bound for Haverhill. He will be used against Lynn here on Tuesday.

Scanton is the twister who practically won the pennant for Allentown in the out-of-league and has excellent control. He is anxious to make good in Haverhill so that he may soon again get back to the big show and he is ready to pitch his head off about he may win. While with Philadelphia he won from Brooklyn and led he not been a good man, would have been earned long ago.

A heavy hitting outfielder with an arm that has terrorized all runners in the main tent, is another man for whom Fleming has his hooks out and he will probably hitch up with somebody soon.

Scanton has a bone bruise and Toomey has a split finger so last night Bert Kelley was signed up and will go to Lynn with the team tomorrow. He has a host of local favorites who will be glad to see him in a Haverhill uniform tomorrow.

Scanton was released last night. He was found to be too wild to last and did not seem to have the stamina to stick out a game. He was here on trial from Hartford in the Connecticut league and will go back to that club.

Tom Fleming is that kind of a man who does not want to announce anything until he is sure of it, and that is why he does not give out his deals until they are entirely completed. He realizes how things are going and is doing his best to improve them. Yesterday when he came to bat in the third inning after getting a hit in the first, he was roundly applauded and this applause came from the constant fans. They appreciate what he is doing and what his position and are going to stand by him.

Last Sunday I told you that most of the knocking came from men who have not seen games and I have proof of this. Yesterday I met a man who was telling me all about Friday's game and he was loud in throwing down the team. When I plucked him down he had not seen a game this year! That is where most of the brass knocking emanates from.

On the basis of authority it is asserted that President Arundel of the Lawrence team offered $20 to his battery and $5 each to the other members of the team if they won yesterday's game. His anxiety to win sprung, perhaps, from the presence of Scout Keefe, who was there to look over Cambridge, and a collection of other friends.—New Bedford Times.

"Little Hot Drops" is the name the fans at Lawrence have given Umpire Byrne.—New Bedford Times.

If the sobriquet were bibulous they'd be right back to the Sun office for the man who first dubbed him "Little Hot Drops." But then, what's the use.

Fred Tenney, John Smith, Conroy, Wolfgang, Boules, Magee and a few others are all high priced men on the Lowell club. It will be the little Boston Nationals in the Spindle City soon.—New Bedford Times.

And yet, admitting it all, we're not in the first division.

REP. JOHN DALZELL

Has a Contest on His Hands

PITTSBURG, June 7.—Representative John Dalzell is not to return to congress without a fight. Dr. R. J. Black, who opposed Dalzell, declares the apparent 300 majority for Dalzell has been secured by fraud, and he will contest the election. Speaker Cannon visited Dalzell's district and notified the voters that they would make a mistake if they did not return him to congress.

MAHOMET HURT

Big Turk Bounced Off the Stage

The wrestling match at Associate hall last evening might be properly described as "punch" for whatever "punch" is, so was the match. There was a fair sized attendance, the Greek colony turning out in large numbers to see Demetrial, the Greek champion. They were all greatly disappointed, however, for Demetrial had nothing to do in the wrestling line, for his opponent, Harje Mahomet, will make more money by exhibiting himself as a plain fat man than by other means. Harje was supposed to weigh 310 pounds, but he looked more like 410, and he wrestled as if he weighed about a ton. The stage was enlarged for the occasion, but even then there wasn't room enough to keep the fat man on the mat and after bouncing around a few times with Demetrial he slipped off the stage onto the floor, and upon getting up complained of an injured knee, and then he crawled into the dressing room. Then John Killionis, the Greek middleweight, came on and was thrown twice within an hour by Demetrial.

In the preliminaries, George Babulatis defeated Peter Morin in 11 minutes and 40 seconds; George Alabogianis and "Young Syria" went to draw as did Joe Atkins and Henry Landry.

WIFE IS DEAD

POLICE ASKED TO LOOK FOR HER HUSBAND

City Marshal John Fleet of Fall River sent a telegram to the police station in this city yesterday to the effect that a Mrs. Patrick Harrington was dead in that city and it was thought that her husband was employed at the gas works in this city.

In communication with the gas works the police learned that a man by the name of Harrington had been working on a construction job which is now being done, but that he worked there but a few days recently and then quit the job.

LOCAL POLICE

LOOKING FOR RELATIVES OF MAN WHO WAS KILLED

Coroner Charles E. Blood of Dunbar, N. Y., has written the local police asking for information regarding relatives of a man who on May 25th jumped in front of a freight train at that place and was instantly killed.

The man had in his possession a pay envelope with a number on it from the American Locomotive Co. and inquiry brought out the information that a man who gave the name of Henry Hall was known by that number when working at that place.

The coroner writes the police that he has information to the effect that the man's name was either Baker or Keegan and that he has a brother in this city. About the only mark of identification that the coroner has is that the man's right wrist was broken and looked as though it was improperly set.

SEARCHING FOR BROTHER

Mary E. Quirk of 16 River street, Winooski, Vt., is very anxious to locate the whereabouts of her brother, James Quirk, who it is said is now or was working in this city, according to a communication which was received at the police station yesterday.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

NIGHT EDITION MRS. LIVINGSTON MANY KILLED PRESIDENT TAFT

Worried But Still Expressed Confidence in Wm. E. Livingston Sent a Special Message on Railroad Bill to Congress Today

WASHINGTON, June 7.—President Taft today sent a special message to congress in which he recommended that the clause in the new railroad bill which gives the interstate commerce commission power to investigate and suspend increased rates filed by the railroads be modified so as to take effect immediately upon the signing of the act.

As it stands in the bill the provision would not take effect for sixty days. The president bases his request upon the agreement he reached with the railroads on yesterday whereby he agreed to withdraw all increased rates until the new law is signed.

Following is the president's message: "A recent effort for a large number of railroad companies to increase rates for interstate transportation of persons and property caused me to direct the attorney-general to bring a suit and secure from the United States court in Missouri an injunction restraining the operation of such increased rates during the pendency of the proceeding. This action led to a conference with the representatives of the railroad companies so enjoined and the agreement by each of them to withdraw the proposed increases of rates effective on or after June 1 and not to file any further attempted increases until after the enactment into law of the pending bill to amend the interstate commerce act or the adjournment of the congress; with the further understanding that upon the enactment of such law, each would submit to the determination of the interstate commerce commission the question of the reasonableness of all increases that each might thereafter propose."

"It is now hoped that all of the other railroad companies will take like action. In order, however, that each may have the benefit of a speedy determination of the question whether or not its proposed increases in rates are justified, I therefore recommend that this latter provision be modified by providing that at least section 9 of the senate amendment to the bill, which is the section authorizing the commission to suspend the going into effect of increases in rates until after due investigation, shall take effect immediately upon the passage of the act."

(Signed) "William H. Taft." "The White House, June 7, 1910." Following the reading of the senate amendments Rep. Denroot made a motion that the house concur in the amendments to section 8, making its provisions operative upon approval of the bill by the president. Two hours were allotted for debate on the motion.

Severe Earth Shock Felt in Central Campania Today

NAPLES, June 7.—A severe earth shock caused a number of deaths and much property damage in Central Campania early today. The disturbance appears to have centered in the province of Avellino.

Telegraph wires were torn down and communication with the affected district was broken. Meagre reports received this forenoon indicate that the greatest damage was done at Calitri in the province of Avellino.

Calitri is said to have been half destroyed and 20 people to have been killed there.

Other deaths occurred at Valata, nearby, and it is feared that fatalities will be reported from other villages which for a time are cut off from communication with this.

The shock occurred early this morning while the people were still in their beds. Many houses at Calitri tumbled, burying the occupants in the ruins.

People fled terror stricken from their homes and into the country. None waited to don street clothes and as a result many subsequently suffered from exposure.

Troops were dispatched from all quarters into the affected district as soon as the loss of life and property damage became known to the government and the officials of nearby cities. The shocks were felt here but no damage was done in this immediate vicinity.

News from Salerno, at the head of the gulf of Salerno, 30 miles southeast of Naples, is to the effect that the shock was distinct there and caused considerable damage. Details are lacking.

The shock was felt for ten seconds in the province of Avellino. It also was felt strongly but for a shorter period at Cosenza, Paola, Catanzaro, Reggio, Potenza, Benevento, Capua and Aversa. It is said, however, that the damage in these towns was not serious and there was no loss of life.

The shock was also felt in the departments of Basilicata, Calabria and Sicily. It centered in that province of Avellino in Campania, but extended throughout the provinces of Benevento, Campobasso, Caserta and Naples.

A panic was created at Torre Annunziata and Torre del Greco, where the population lived in constant fear of an eruption from Mount Vesuvius.

Reports from Basilicata say that the shock was felt severely at Potenza. Similar reports come from Paola and Catanzaro in the department of Calabria and from Palermo on the northern coast of Sicily.

The memorial was read only in part and was referred without comment to the committee on privileges and elections.

RELATIVES AND NEIGHBORS TELL OF MRS. LIVINGSTON'S PLIGHT WHEN SHE SIGNED RELEASE ON NOTE OF $10,000 IN CASE AGAINST WM. E. LIVINGSTON IN SUPERIOR COURT

The second day's hearing of the case of Adeline Comstock, executrix, vs. William E. Livingston was taken up for the most part with testimony of women who were intimate with the late Mrs. H. Elizabeth Livingston and who had heard from her of her financial relations with the defendant.

The suit was brought by Mrs. Comstock as executrix of the will of Mrs. Livingston, to recover on a promissory note which was a part of the estate of Hannah Elizabeth, widow of Daniel Livingston, and constituting a part of the property left her by her husband, Daniel Livingston, whose second wife she was.

The defense in this case puts in a release signed by H. Elizabeth Livingston, and by Maud A. Comstock as witness, given in consideration of one dollar.

The signature to the note and the release are admitted to be genuine. The promissory note is for $10,000, and is payable to the order of the testatrix, H. Elizabeth Livingston. It is signed by Wm. E. Livingston.

The release is dated Aug. 30, 1905, and Mrs. H. Elizabeth Livingston died in 1906.

The defense claims that Mrs. Livingston stood in relations of trust and confidence with the defendant, Wm. E. Livingston, and that the situation was such as to subject her to easy influence from him; that at the time the release was obtained Mrs. Livingston was in a weak and enfeebled condition of body and mind, and was not in a condition to appreciate what she was doing.

That Mrs. Livingston's entire source of income was from the payment of interest on this note, and that when the interest stopped—in October, 1904—to a certain extent she was dependent upon the bounty of the defendant, Wm. E. Livingston, and was therefore in a dependent condition.

Also, that the defendant, Mr. Livingston, having met with reverses in business, represented to her that he had obtained releases from all of his creditors except herself and one other; that in order to make the other releases valid and binding, it was necessary to have her release; and that that statement was not true, because each release was an individual release, and was valid and binding whether anybody else signed or not.

Wm. E. Livingston was the principal witness yesterday and he related in detail his business connections with Mrs. Livingston relative to the note and the subsequent release.

Mr. Livingston said that interest stopped on the note because he had no money. He tried to get releases from his creditors in the spring and summer of 1905. He went to Mrs. Livingston and told her he had lost all of his property and could not pay his creditors anything and could not pay her anything on her note. He told her that the only thing he could do now was either to get his creditors to sign releases or go into bankruptcy. She asked him if he would not promise that if he had anything in future to help her with he would help her; but she declined to make any promise at all and said the creditors must sign, if at all, of their own free will.

She said: "You have lost my money and ought to be willing to pay me something if you have it." I said: "I cannot promise to pay. I have no money." I told her that if I could not get all the creditors to sign releases they would not amount to anything to me and I should have to go into bankruptcy.

He testified that on a second visit to Mrs. Livingston she asked him if there was anything coming to her hereafter if he would not give it to her sister; if she was not herself alive; and he replied that he could make no promise. Then she went into another room and brought out this release, which was all signed by herself and by Maud Comstock as witness, and was dated three or four days before that interview.

Adeline R. Comstock, the plaintiff, was the second witness and a sister of Mrs. Livingston. In the course of her testimony she testified that when the interest stopped on the Livingston note Mrs. Livingston said she could not live without it. When Mr. Livingston took possession of the King house Mrs. Livingston wanted to take it as payment of her note. Later she wanted to buy a house and asked him what she should do if she lost her money. He replied that she would not lose it, that there was plenty of property.

The witness also testified that after the stopping of interest and before the release was signed Mrs. Livingston told her that Mr. Livingston had made promises to her of payment. He also furnished coal for her and assisted in other ways towards her support.

The witness testified that during that same period her sister was growing weaker, physically and mentally, and when the release was signed she was a wreck. She was 72 years old. She would throw herself on the floor and cry and wring her hands and ask what she would do if Mr. Livingston did not pay her. On one occasion the witness went to Mr. Livingston and asked him to go to the house and talk to her; but he did not go. She talked constantly about her money.

Miss A. Alice Cox, stenographer in Mr. Bent's office, testified to Mrs. Livingston's statement of her case in the mud, and that he wanted her to sign the release because if she did not the other releases would be of no good; and that the only way she could get her money was to sign that release. Also that Mr. Livingston told her that he did not care about the debts, but he had contracted in his business, but it was his debts of honor he was going to pay; and he was going to pay her first, because she was worse off than the rest. She said a great many times, that she had great confidence in Mr. Livingston, and had relied on what he told her in cash.

Charles G. Bancroft, a Boston attorney and the nephew by marriage, referred to, testified that Mrs. Livingston talked with him about her husband's legacy to her being taken in the form of a note. He advised her to get at least a part of it in cash, but she said if her husband could trust Wm. E., she could. After the financial troubles of the coal company, he advised her to proceed in a drastic manner; but she did not like to do that because of the relations between her husband and Wm. E.

Mr. Bancroft also testified that he observed Mrs. Livingston's physical and mental failure. He testified practically as the preceding witnesses had done, as to Mrs. Livingston's statements of what Mr. Livingston said to her, in inducing her to sign the release.

Also, that Mrs. Livingston said that Wm. E. told her that if she should die, he would pay the money to Abbie, (the plaintiff in this case).

Mrs. Bancroft, wife of the former witness and niece of Mrs. H. Elizabeth Livingston, testified similarly.

Miss Maud Comstock, niece of Mrs. Livingston, was the first witness this morning.

Miss Comstock said that she recalled the signing of the release. Mrs. Livingston's signature appeared only once. Witness said she wrote the letter to Mr. Livingston asking him to come to see her. She wrote a second letter for Mrs. Livingston. They were signed in Mrs. Livingston's name and were posted by witness. A letter was produced which witness identified as one she wrote. In the first letter Mrs. Livingston requested Mr. Livingston to come and tell her about his failure. The letter identified by the witness was then presented as evidence.

Lawyer Bent then read the letter in which the writer asks Mr. Livingston to bring her a copy of the paper which she had signed previously in relation to the note. In the letter she said that she wanted to see what she had signed as she did not know just what she was signing at the time.

About the time of the signing of the release Mrs. Livingston, witness said, became feeble and nervous and was always talking about her money. She frequently would say, "What shall I do if Mr. Livingston doesn't pay me my money?" Mrs. Livingston had frequent fainting spells about this time.

On cross examination, witness said that she and her aunts had discussed the note and the release. Mrs. Livingston did not discuss the matter of the release with any one else. After she had signed the release Mrs. Livingston brought it to the witness and showed her, witness. Witness then signed the note.

Miss Belle Walsh, a neighbor, was the next witness and she testified that she was called to Mrs. Livingston's house on one occasion and found Mrs. Livingston, partially dressed, lying on the floor screaming and running her hands through her hair. When witness had quieted down Mrs. Livingston did not discuss the matter of the interest money and that if she lost that she hadn't a dollar in the world. Witness called her attention to the fact that she had the house, Mrs. Livingston told her that the house and furniture were not her's and would go to the children on her death. On another occasion in June, 1905, some little time after the first occasion witness heard Mrs. Livingston crying and talking loud, and going to the house and crying and crying about her money.

Witness asked her why she invested her money in the Lowell Coal company and she replied that she didn't. Mrs. Livingston invested it and she had confidence in him. But she said that a dark cloud seemed to hang over her some time afterward Mrs. Livingston went into witness' house to telephone and then she told witness that she had signed the release. Witness asked her why she didn't have a lawyer present when she signed and Mrs. Livingston replied that she had confidence in Mr. Livingston. She said she promised that she could get her money. He said that all had signed off but herself and one other. Witness asked Mrs. Livingston why she didn't get counsel then and she replied that she did not want to offend Mr. Livingston.

Witness said further that Mrs. Livingston told her that Mr. Livingston said that she would have to sign the release to make the others good and that that was the only way a settlement could be made. Mrs. Livingston said that Mr. Livingston was so kind, so nice to face him again until she signed the release. Mrs. Livingston secured counsel and Mrs. Livingston told her that she didn't understand William E. Livingston and her husband had told her before his death that if she ever wanted anything consult Mr. Livingston.

On cross-examination witness noticed that Mrs. Livingston's memory began to fail in May, 1905, and continued to fail until the time of her death. When witness talked with Mrs. Livingston at 25 Anne street.

in November, 1906, she thought Mrs. Livingston's memory was poor. Witness said she first talked about the case about a year ago with Mr. Bent. Miss Comstock asked her if she would go to Mr. Bent's office. Mr. Bancroft was recalled at this point and was questioned by Mr. Wier.

Miss Everett, a school teacher testified that she knew Mrs. Livingston for two years before her death, during a part of which time she lived in the same house with her. In October, 1904, witness returned from her vacation and found Mrs. Livingston apparently under great mental stress. She told witness that she had had trouble about her money. From that time her mind grew weaker. She was in fear of losing her money and would talk of nothing else. In Sept. 1905, witness called on Mrs. Livingston and found another change. She had grown weaker. Mrs. Livingston told her that William E. Livingston had her money, but she didn't say how much. After crying over her money she would say: "I'm foolish to cry over this as I have perfect confidence in Mr. Livingston." Witness suggested to her that she engage a lawyer and she replied: "No, I have perfect confidence in Mr. Livingston. He said mine is a debt of honor and I'll pay that first."

Mrs. Rachael M. Davis, a neighbor of Mrs. Livingston, testified to a change in Mrs. Livingston's condition. She became nervous, restless and unsettled. Mrs. Livingston told witness that William E. Livingston had been to her to have her sign a release for her money. She said that he told her that the creditors would be satisfied if one other had agreed to sign a release for him. He told her she said that if he could he would help her. She said Mr. Livingston said the only way she could get her money was by signing the paper.

When the evidence in the case was all in, the court took the case from the jury and ordered a verdict for the defendant.

On one occasion the witness went to Mr. Livingston and asked him to go to the house and talk to her; but he did not go. She talked constantly about her money.

Miss A. Alice Cox, stenographer in Mr. Bent's office, testified to Mrs. Livingston's statement of her case in the mud, and that he wanted her to sign the release because if she did not the other releases would be of no good; and that the only way she could get her money was to sign that release. Also that Mr. Livingston told her that he did not care about the debts, but he had contracted in his business, but it was his debts of honor he was going to pay; and he was going to pay her first, because she was worse off than the rest. She said a great many times, that she had great confidence in Mr. Livingston, and had relied on what he told her in cash.

Charles G. Bancroft, a Boston attorney and the nephew by marriage, referred to, testified that Mrs. Livingston talked with him about her husband's legacy to her being taken in the form of a note. He advised her to get at least a part of it in cash, but she said if her husband could trust Wm. E., she could. After the financial troubles of the coal company, he advised her to proceed in a drastic manner; but she did not like to do that because of the relations between her husband and Wm. E.

Mr. Bancroft also testified that he observed Mrs. Livingston's physical and mental failure. He testified practically as the preceding witnesses had done, as to Mrs. Livingston's statements of what Mr. Livingston said to her, in inducing her to sign the release.

Also, that Mrs. Livingston said that Wm. E. told her that if she should die, he would pay the money to Abbie, (the plaintiff in this case).

Mrs. Bancroft, wife of the former witness and niece of Mrs. H. Elizabeth Livingston, testified similarly.

Miss Maud Comstock, niece of Mrs. Livingston, was the first witness this morning.

Miss Comstock said that she recalled the signing of the release. Mrs. Livingston's signature appeared only once. Witness said she wrote the letter to Mr. Livingston asking him to come to see her. She wrote a second letter for Mrs. Livingston. They were signed in Mrs. Livingston's name and were posted by witness. A letter was produced which witness identified as one she wrote. In the first letter Mrs. Livingston requested Mr. Livingston to come and tell her about his failure. The letter identified by the witness was then presented as evidence.

Lawyer Bent then read the letter in which the writer asks Mr. Livingston to bring her a copy of the paper which she had signed previously in relation to the note. In the letter she said that she wanted to see what she had signed as she did not know just what she was signing at the time.

About the time of the signing of the release Mrs. Livingston, witness said, became feeble and nervous and was always talking about her money. She frequently would say, "What shall I do if Mr. Livingston doesn't pay me my money?" Mrs. Livingston had frequent fainting spells about this time.

On cross examination, witness said that she and her aunts had discussed the note and the release. Mrs. Livingston did not discuss the matter of the release with any one else. After she had signed the release Mrs. Livingston brought it to the witness and showed her, witness. Witness then signed the note.

Miss Belle Walsh, a neighbor, was the next witness and she testified that she was called to Mrs. Livingston's house on one occasion and found Mrs. Livingston, partially dressed, lying on the floor screaming and running her hands through her hair. When witness had quieted down Mrs. Livingston did not discuss the matter of the interest money and that if she lost that she hadn't a dollar in the world. Witness called her attention to the fact that she had the house, Mrs. Livingston told her that the house and furniture were not her's and would go to the children on her death. On another occasion in June, 1905, some little time after the first occasion witness heard Mrs. Livingston crying and talking loud, and going to the house and crying and crying about her money.

Witness asked her why she invested her money in the Lowell Coal company and she replied that she didn't. Mrs. Livingston invested it and she had confidence in him. But she said that a dark cloud seemed to hang over her some time afterward Mrs. Livingston went into witness' house to telephone and then she told witness that she had signed the release. Witness asked her why she didn't have a lawyer present when she signed and Mrs. Livingston replied that she had confidence in Mr. Livingston. She said she promised that she could get her money. He said that all had signed off but herself and one other. Witness asked Mrs. Livingston why she didn't get counsel then and she replied that she did not want to offend Mr. Livingston.

Witness said further that Mrs. Livingston told her that Mr. Livingston said that she would have to sign the release to make the others good and that that was the only way a settlement could be made. Mrs. Livingston said that Mr. Livingston was so kind, so nice to face him again until she signed the release. Mrs. Livingston secured counsel and Mrs. Livingston told her that she didn't understand William E. Livingston and her husband had told her before his death that if she ever wanted anything consult Mr. Livingston.

On cross-examination witness noticed that Mrs. Livingston's memory began to fail in May, 1905, and continued to fail until the time of her death. When witness talked with Mrs. Livingston at 25 Anne street.

in November, 1906, she thought Mrs. Livingston's memory was poor. Witness said she first talked about the case about a year ago with Mr. Bent. Miss Comstock asked her if she would go to Mr. Bent's office. Mr. Bancroft was recalled at this point and was questioned by Mr. Wier.

Miss Everett, a school teacher testified that she knew Mrs. Livingston for two years before her death, during a part of which time she lived in the same house with her. In October, 1904, witness returned from her vacation and found Mrs. Livingston apparently under great mental stress. She told witness that she had had trouble about her money. From that time her mind grew weaker. She was in fear of losing her money and would talk of nothing else. In Sept. 1905, witness called on Mrs. Livingston and found another change. She had grown weaker. Mrs. Livingston told her that William E. Livingston had her money, but she didn't say how much. After crying over her money she would say: "I'm foolish to cry over this as I have perfect confidence in Mr. Livingston." Witness suggested to her that she engage a lawyer and she replied: "No, I have perfect confidence in Mr. Livingston. He said mine is a debt of honor and I'll pay that first."

Mrs. Rachael M. Davis, a neighbor of Mrs. Livingston, testified to a change in Mrs. Livingston's condition. She became nervous, restless and unsettled. Mrs. Livingston told witness that William E. Livingston had been to her to have her sign a release for her money. She said that he told her that the creditors would be satisfied if one other had agreed to sign a release for him. He told her she said that if he could he would help her. She said Mr. Livingston said the only way she could get her money was by signing the paper.

When the evidence in the case was all in, the court took the case from the jury and ordered a verdict for the defendant.

EX-PRES. ROOSEVELT

Was Given the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Law

OXFORD, Eng., June 7.—Former President Roosevelt was the guest of Oxford today. He delivered the Romanes lecture at the university of Oxford and the university conferred upon him the honorary degree of doctor of civil law.

The lecture and the conferment constituted the big feature of the day, but it did not complete the program which was about as crowded as any that the distinguished American has undertaken in his European travels. Oxford was glad to see the former president and made the fact known. First, there was a reception given by the mayor of the corporation at the town hall. The auditorium was filled to its limits and when the guest appeared the audience joined in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

From the town hall Mr. Roosevelt made hurried visits to the leading colleges and to other places of historic interest. He was entertained at luncheon by the American club, leaving soon afterwards for the Sheldonian theatre for his lecture and the ceremony that added a D. C. L. to the other honorary titles that had been bestowed upon him.

The Romanes lectureship at Oxford was named for George John Romanes who was born at Kingston, Canada, on May 20, 1848, and died at Oxford in 1894. He gained celebrity as a naturalist and a philosopher, professor of zoology at the Royal Institute. Lord Curzon, chancellor of the university, presided at the exercises today.

Mr. Roosevelt's subject was "Biological analogies in history."

Mr. Roosevelt's voice failed him after a time and he was obliged to leave the later part of his lecture.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

DRESDEN, Saxony, June 7.—Lightning struck an infantry regiment that was marching into the German camp here today. A whole company was hurled to the ground. Three soldiers were killed outright and fifteen others were seriously injured.

REPUBLICAN FIGHT IN IOWA

DES MOINES, Ia., June 7.—While both democrats and republicans will nominate state tickets and congressional candidates at the primaries in Iowa today interest is centered almost solely in the factional strife between the so-called "standpaters" or "stalwarts" and the progressives of the republican party. At the head of the state ticket Governor Carroll is opposed by Warren Garst. Three candidates seek the democratic nomination—Stephen H. Bashor of Waterloo, Edwin G. Coon of Ottumwa, and Claude R. Porter of Centerville.

FOLLOWING DR. COOK'S ROUTE

SEWARD, Alaska, June 7.—Word was received here yesterday from the Parker-Brown Mount McKinley expedition saying that the party reached Chulitna river, a tributary of the Sinitna, May 30. The New York Herald-Portland Oregonian expedition reached Chulitna May 21. Both parties are following the route Dr. Cook claims to have taken. The snow in the hills is deep and the expeditions are being retarded by the lateness of the season.

ELEVATED ROAD AGREES

BOSTON, June 7.—The Boston Elevated railroad today bowed to the suggestion of the Boston finance commission and consented to a postponement for one year of the bill giving the company the right to acquire connecting lines. In the meantime the Boston transit commission and the railroad commissioners will consider the measure, especially with regard to the effect of the bill on leases of the two tunnels and the elevated road now operated by the company.

The bill had taken several readings in the senate with some opposition and today President Baucroft notified the committee on street railroads that although the bill had been before the legislature three years the company would assent to the suggestion of the finance commission and once more withdraw the bill.

RAILROAD MAN

SAYS THAT CONDITIONS LOOK BRIGHT NOW.

CHICAGO, June 7.—The agreement reached between President Taft and the railroad presidents at Washington last night regarding rates on western roads will clear up conditions, according to statements by presidents of several big roads.

"The outlook now is decidedly optimistic," declared Darius Miller, president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road. "It puts the rate question entirely up to the interstate commerce commission and does away with the legal investigation. Within a few weeks the commission should fix the new rate law and the entire matter. It seems to me that the president's action is the best that possibly could have been taken to safeguard the interests of both the railroads and the shippers. I am certain that the railroad men will feel satisfied with the action."

POSTAL SAVINGS BANK

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The new rules committee of the house by a strict party vote of 6 to 3 today reported a special bill to govern the postal savings bank bill to the house. The bill provides for the cutting of all amendments for eight hours of debate and for consideration of the bill by the entire house.

MANY KILLED

Continued

CALITRI SUFFERED SERIOUSLY
ROME, June 7.—According to reports received by the government, Calitri, in the province of Avellino, suffered seriously from a succession of earthquakes that occurred early today. It is said that about 200 people were killed, but the number of those injured but surviving is not determined.

The shocks were also felt in Valetta, where several houses fell and a number of people were injured. So far as known no one was killed there.

At San Rossio, another village of 2200 inhabitants, several houses fell and a number of people were injured, but so far as learned no deaths occurred.

As soon as news of the disaster was received here Premier Luzzatti ordered a concentration of the troops in the zone where the shocks were felt. The premier took immediate action for the work of rescue. He also sent the general inspector of health and a corps of medical men with ambulances to the scene.

The prefect of Avellino has sent an urgent message to the government asking for $2000 for immediate use.

Premier Luzzatti at once forwarded $10,000.

The minister of public works has left for the scene of the quake. He is accompanied by officials of his department.

The government has decided to ask parliament for an appropriation of $100,000 for immediate relief.

King Victor Emmanuel, accompanied by Queen Elena, left for Avellino on a special train this afternoon. Two automobiles for their use were placed on board the train. Her majesty insisted upon going with the king instead of sending someone to represent her. The queen declared that her experience at Messina convinced her of the need of someone with authority who understood how to deal with such an emergency, and to give first aid.

SPREAD OVER SOUTHERN PART OF ITALY

NAPLES, June 7.—An earthquake of unusual intensity was experienced throughout southern Italy including the island of Sicily early this morning. The extent of the damage had not been determined this afternoon but it is believed that some thirty-seven people were killed and that property losses in certain districts will be heavy.

The shock appears to have spent its force chiefly in the province of Avellino in central Campania east of Naples. The village of Calitri suffered the most. One report has it that half of the town was destroyed.

Fatalities are reported at San Sossio, Chianche, Castel Baronia and San Sossio.

The disturbance disrupted telegraph communication generally in the provinces most affected and further details are awaited with apprehension.

The population of the various towns which felt the quake were thrown into a panic and the authorities had much difficulty in restoring order.

King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Elena, upon receiving word of the surprising event, left in a special train for the scene, and soldiers and medical corps were dispatched to render first aid. It was announced early in the forenoon that the government had called upon parliament for an appropriation of $100,000 for use among the afflicted.

The latest reports received from San Sossio, a village of the province of Avellino in the department of Basilicata.

POPE GAVE FUNDS
FOR RELIEF OF THE EARTH-QUAKE SUFFERERS

ROME, June 7.—The pope was notified by the bishop of Avellino of the suffering of that province and at once forwarded funds for relief and a message stating that his prayers would be with the sufferers.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE
AVELLINO, Italy, June 7.—The province of Avellino bore the brunt of a severe earthquake that was felt throughout southern Italy shortly before dawn today. Fatalities occurred and much damage was done to property but up to now it was impossible to determine the extent of the devastation. In this city little harm was done and the only death reported was that of an old man who died of fright. The population, however, was terror-stricken.

Reports from villages throughout the province are much more grave. Twenty people are reported killed at Calitri, which is said to have been badly damaged. The situation there is disastrous.

Ten persons are said to have met death at San Sossio, where the earthquake was felt with the greatest violence. From the flood of anxious messages received from the afflicted provinces, it is known that the situation is very serious.

At Chianche a house fell burying and killing an aged man.

One person was killed and several were injured at Castel Baronia. Calitri was badly damaged.

Squads of workmen together with detachments of soldiers were dispatched from this place to assist the suffering villagers.

It was in the darkest hour of the night when the quake was felt here. The sleeping towns were roused by shaking walls, the rattling of furniture and the falling of plaster from the ceilings.

Panic seized the 20,000 inhabitants who live in daily fear of a seismic disaster.

Half wakened men, women and children in terror. Recently there was a suspicion about a prediction that the approach of Italy's comet portended the end of the world. The authorities kept their hands but they could not stay the mad rush for the squares and open districts outside the city.

The worst confusion prevailed and the frightened ones could not be reassured with. In the squares hundreds threw themselves upon their faces and implored the mercy of the Almighty. Some people went to the shrine of St. Andrew, the protector of the town. Others climbed to the sanctuary on Monte Vergine. The authorities finally succeeded in re-establishing a semblance of calm and relief squads were organized.

It was then found that no one had been killed, though one aged man had died during the excitement. Many houses were damaged as were the bell-towers of the churches. The inhabitants refused to re-enter their homes, fearing that another shock would occur.

Throughout the day the police busy bringing together the scattered members of families and reassuring the frightened ones. Word that the

FOUR PERSONS INJURED

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 7.—The curiosity of a boy helper in a high street plumbing shop to see what would happen when he applied a lighted match to a plug hole in a copper gasoline tank resulted in four persons being injured and every window in the shop being broken by the tank's explosion today. No one was fatally hurt.

THE RAILROAD BILL

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The railroad bill was taken up by the house soon after that body convened today. Chairman Mann of the committee on interstate commerce moved to non-concur in the senate amendments and to ask for a conference, the motion requiring unanimous consent. Representative Leuro of Wisconsin, one of the republican insurgents, objected.

WANTS NEW RAILROAD

BOSTON, June 7.—Vice President Fitzhugh of the Grand Trunk railroad told the railroad commissioners today that the purpose of building the proposed railroad from Palmer to Providence was to link the manufacturing interests of New England with the west, the northwest and the Orient.

The railroad commissioners were asked to approve the petition for the railroad from Palmer to the Rhode Island line. Besides Vice President Fitzhugh there appeared in favor of the road, President George W. Wells of the American Optical Co., E. S. Stevens, C. L. Wade and M. F. Moore, representing various small towns along the line of the road in southern Massachusetts.

BOSTON HOLDING CO. BILL

BOSTON, June 7.—The bill permitting the Boston Holding Co. to issue preferred stock was given a third reading in the senate today without debate. The bill has one more reading in the senate before it reaches the house where it is expected to meet opposition as Rep. Washburn of Worcester, chairman of the committee on railroads which reported it, dissents from the report.

CONLEY-MORAN BOUT

LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Although Frank Conley, claimant of the bantam-weight championship, is looked upon as going out of his class in taking on Owen Moran, the difference in pounds between the two will not be very great when the two meet at Naud Junction tonight. They will weigh in at 121 pounds at 5 p. m. The fight will be for ten rounds to a newspaper decision.

LAWRENCE CLUB

HAS SOLD CATCHER AINSWORTH TO WASHINGTON

LAWRENCE, June 7.—A deal was consummated today whereby Catcher Edward Ainsworth of the Lawrence club of the New England league becomes the property of the Washington Americans. The purchase price was $10,000. Ainsworth will not report to Washington until the close of the New England league season. As part of the deal, Pitcher Hoylik of Washington will report to Lawrence tomorrow.

INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW

LONDON, June 7.—The second day of the international horse show drew a good attendance. The first American winner in the day's judging was Miss Lulu Long of Kansas who won in class 1 for novice single light harness horses.

GENERAL BUTLER DEAD

LONDON, June 7.—General Sir William Francis Butler died today. He was born in 1838 and had a distinguished career, serving in Egypt and South Africa and on special missions to Canada. Sir William maintained his home at Banke castle, Banke, Tipperary, the place of his birth.

PRES. FELLOWS RESIGNS

BANGOR, Me., June 7.—President George Emory Fellows today presented his resignation to the trustees of the University of Maine. At their request he will reside at the commencement exercises this week and will perform the usual duties of his office until the resignation has been acted upon.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY

NORWICH, Conn., June 7.—The democrats won a complete victory here yesterday when they elected the entire board, headed by Charles F. Thayer for mayor. The majority for the majority was 154, while the normal majority was 141. The retiring administration was republican.

JACK JOHNSON

Says He Does Not Need a Manager

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—Though Jack Johnson's managerial situation is in a chaotic state the negro champion seems to be trying diligently to reassure his followers that all is well. If Billy Nolan was really hired as Jack's manager to succeed George Little as announced Sunday night then Nolan's tenure of office has established perhaps a record for brevity. Johnson stated emphatically last night that Nolan would not be his pilot. Here is Johnson's latest word on the matter.

"I am through with George Little and I don't need anyone else. At that I am friendly with Billy Nolan; but I don't see where he could help me at this stage of the game. My training is going on nicely and all my connections in regard to the fight and the moving pictures have been signed. Billy Nolan will be with me in a few days but he will only have to do with my training."

But it is easy to see that Jack has been working and he said yesterday that since his trouble with Little he has lost more weight than he could have taken off by doubling his work. Johnson says that a few days ago he weighed 215 pounds. Yesterday he tipped the beam at 210.

"I did not intend to be that low until much nearer the fight and I will have to scheme to take on a few more pounds."

WANT TO SEE CORBETT
BEN LOMOND, Cal., June 7.—Numerous visitors came to camp here yesterday, drawn by the announcement that James J. Corbett probably would put on the mitts for his first training tilt with Jim Jeffries.

Corbett removed his luggage from Santa Cruz to Ben Lomond last evening and he is expected to put in about a week here from now on until the breaking of camp. With Jeffries and his party fishing on Monterey bay yesterday Corbett had the local stage all to himself and everybody left in camp gathered at the handball court to see the former champion work out.

AT WHITE HOUSE

Railroad Men Assembled to Confer With the President

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Railroad men of prominence again were in evidence at the White House today where the final details of the arrangements between the government and the trunk lines regarding the freight rate problem were being negotiated. S. M. Eaton, president of the Chicago Great Western railroad, and W. A. Delano, president of the Wabash, who participated in the conference yesterday at which the agreement to withdraw the increased rates effective June 1 until after the new railroad bill becomes a law, was reached, spent half an hour with President Taft prior to the cabinet meeting this morning.

W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central railroad and James McCrea, president of the Pennsylvania, will have a conference with Pres. Taft and Attorney General Wickham this afternoon, which it is understood will ratify on behalf of the eastern and central trunk lines the agreement reached yesterday with the Western Trunk line association. Presidents Felton and Delano left Washington early this afternoon for Chicago where they will report tomorrow to the Western Trunk line committee.

President Taft said they thought there would be little difficulty after that in carrying out the details of the withdrawal of the new rates.

Under the railroad bill now before Congress the interstate commerce commission is given such extraordinary powers with respect to the indefinite suspension of increased rates that it looks as though the government will look into the matter indirectly. Relative to the report that the attorney general filed simultaneous notices of increased freight rates, the New Haven, Boston & Maine, and New York Central, on the ground that these roads acted in concert in advancing freight rates, Mr. Tuttle said:

"There is nothing new or significant in the fact that three roads have filed simultaneous notices of increased freight rates. This has been their practice for years."

"The New York and Boston rates to Chicago are the same on all lines and the three New England roads were only following the precedent of many other lines in recently filing similar schedules with the interstate commerce commission."

GREATEST PARADE
EVER GIVEN BY A CIRCUS IN THIS CITY

On Friday, June 10 the Barnum and Bailey Greatest Show on Earth will present in this city something entirely different from what people are in the habit of seeing on circus days. They have devised something new in the way of pageantry. It was built last winter in the workshops of the show in England. It is three times as long as any seen in the past. It represents an expenditure of ten times as much money.

For the last two years the foreign agents of the show have been gathering novelties for this parade. They overlooked nothing that money could buy, unless it was too big to ship by boat. They invaded savage islands. Their expeditions extended into jungles where white men had never trod before. They stripped art galleries for their treasures. They stopped at nothing. They spared no expense. The result of their labors cannot be expressed in words. It is a sight for the eyes.

Naturally enough this parade bears not the slightest resemblance to those of the past. It excels anything before attempted in beauty. It is world-wide in its variety. In reality it is right up to the last tick of the clock. Every strange type of the human race is found in it. Every animal recently discovered by science is displayed, in an open cage. It is a world's fair of wheels with a thousand wonders in every mile of it. It is a parade of savagery, the howdahs, rickshaws, palanquins and chariots of Oriental despots, carriages of state from rich empires, fanciful floats of bronze and burnished gold, engines of war, grotesque images of the past, the Italian staturio, mythological spectacles, horses, fairies, fairyland caravans, brass bands, barbarian orchestras, tom-tom players, weird pipes, silver chimes, cathedral organs, silver pipes, chanters, dervishes, castrated ballets, kinniss scenes, fete-day tableaux and madrigal-pageantry.

TO INVESTIGATE MAN'S DEATH
ST. JOHN, N. B., June 7.—Because of mysterious circumstances attending the death last night at the general hospital here of Mrs. Emma Hooper of Watertown, Mass., Coroner D. E. Barryman is conducting an investigation. Mrs. Hooper had been in the hospital since June 2. Previous to that time she had been visiting her mother in Prince Edward islands and was on the train when nearing St. John on the evening of June 1. The woman she registered under an assumed name. The next morning she was found in her room apparently in a stupor. She was removed to the hospital.

A post mortem examination of the woman's body was made today but the result was not disclosed.

Mrs. Hooper's husband arrived here last night.

ALLEGED BATTERY CASE
CHICAGO, June 7.—Rep. Lee O'Neill Browne, democratic leader, charged with bringing fellow legislators in the election of United States Senator Lovett, republican, was today refused freedom on a writ of habeas corpus. Judge Kirkham Scanlan denied a plea that only a federal tribunal has power to try such a case.

While Mr. Hancey was arguing on his plea for an appeal of Judge Scanlan's decision, Judge McGuire issued a capias for Browne.

GOING TO CHICAGO
WASHINGTON, June 7.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVane expects to leave Washington tomorrow for a short visit to Chicago on private business.

MILK CONTRACTORS
WILL ACCEDE TO DEMANDS OF PRODUCERS

BOSTON, June 7.—The milk war which has been waged against Boston milk contractors by New England producers for the past several weeks has been settled satisfactorily, according to statements given out today by representatives of the Producers association who have had charge of the situation recently. Following the signing of the agreement by one of the largest contractors in the city yesterday several other big contracting concerns were visited today by the representatives. As a result it is expected that these firms will fall into line and accede to the demands of the producers that they receive winter prices from July 1 until May 1. Secretary A. A. Hunter of the Producers Assn. today stated that the strike is practically over and that the farmers had won a victory although the final agreement was in the nature of a compromise.

ANTI-OPTION BILL
WASHINGTON, June 7.—A resolution offered by Rep. Underwood, Ala., providing that the house should take up the Scott anti-option bill on June 11, was rejected today by the rules committee of the house. The vote was 111 to 100. The committee was strictly on party lines, the republicans voting against the resolution.

FUNERALS
JANACIEWSKA—The funeral of Mary Janaciewska took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sarafa Janaciewska, and was very largely attended by relatives and friends. The funeral cortege proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where the burial took place in the family lot. The funeral arrangements and burial were under the direction of Undertaker John A. Finnegan.

The committee was strictly on party lines, the republicans voting against the resolution.

FUNERALS
JANACIEWSKA—The funeral of Mary Janaciewska took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sarafa Janaciewska, and was very largely attended by relatives and friends. The funeral cortege proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where the burial took place in the family lot. The funeral arrangements and burial were under the direction of Undertaker John A. Finnegan.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY
PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 7.—Angelo Gravato, the Italian who was arrested last night charged with fatally stabbing a fellow countryman, Giuseppe Marratito, was bound over to the grand jury when he appeared before Judge Sines in the police court today.

CARD OF THANKS
We, the undersigned, take this means of expressing our sincere thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbors for the beautiful floral offerings on the death of our beloved daughter and sister, Miss Margaret Bradley. Their kindness will always be remembered with gratitude.

Mrs. Mary Bradley and family.

GOING TO CHICAGO
WASHINGTON, June 7.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVane expects to leave Washington tomorrow for a short visit to Chicago on private business.

MILK CONTRACTORS
WILL ACCEDE TO DEMANDS OF PRODUCERS

BOSTON, June 7.—The milk war which has been waged against Boston milk contractors by New England producers for the past several weeks has been settled satisfactorily, according to statements given out today by representatives of the Producers association who have had charge of the situation recently. Following the signing of the agreement by one of the largest contractors in the city yesterday several other big contracting concerns were visited today by the representatives. As a result it is expected that these firms will fall into line and accede to the demands of the producers that they receive winter prices from July 1 until May 1. Secretary A. A. Hunter of the Producers Assn. today stated that the strike is practically over and that the farmers had won a victory although the final agreement was in the nature of a compromise.

6 O'CLOCK SALEM ALDERMEN

Allege Mayor Howard Violated Dignity of Office

SALEM, June 7.—For "violating the dignity of his office," Mayor Arthur B. Howard of Salem was censured last night in a resolution, passed by the board of aldermen. Inspector Patrick J. Leahan of the Salem police, over whom the trouble arose, was also censured by the board.

Mayor Howard, in a communication to the aldermen last night, recommended that Inspector Leahan be discharged for "insubordination." At a hearing, May 27, Inspector Leahan publicly demanded that the mayor apologize for having, as he alleged, applied to him an uncomplimentary epithet at a previous hearing. The mayor's recommendation for the inspector's dismissal is believed to have grown out of this incident. Leahan was a witness against the mayor at one of the latter's hearings on charges of criminal libel. The mayor, who is now under indictment in these cases, will probably be tried early next week.

Mayor Howard was elected last year after he had been a resident of the city but a short time. Ever since he took office he has been in financial difficulties, his entire salary for seven months he has served having been either attached or assigned, so that he has really received so far not a cent in salary. Although sometimes referred to as the "Boy Mayor," he is 41 years old.

The mayor last night denied that he had used the epithet charged by Leahan. He added: "No gentleman ever uses such a word, and I am always a gentleman."

TO ENTERTAIN GENERAL GRAND HIGH PRIEST OF R. A. M.

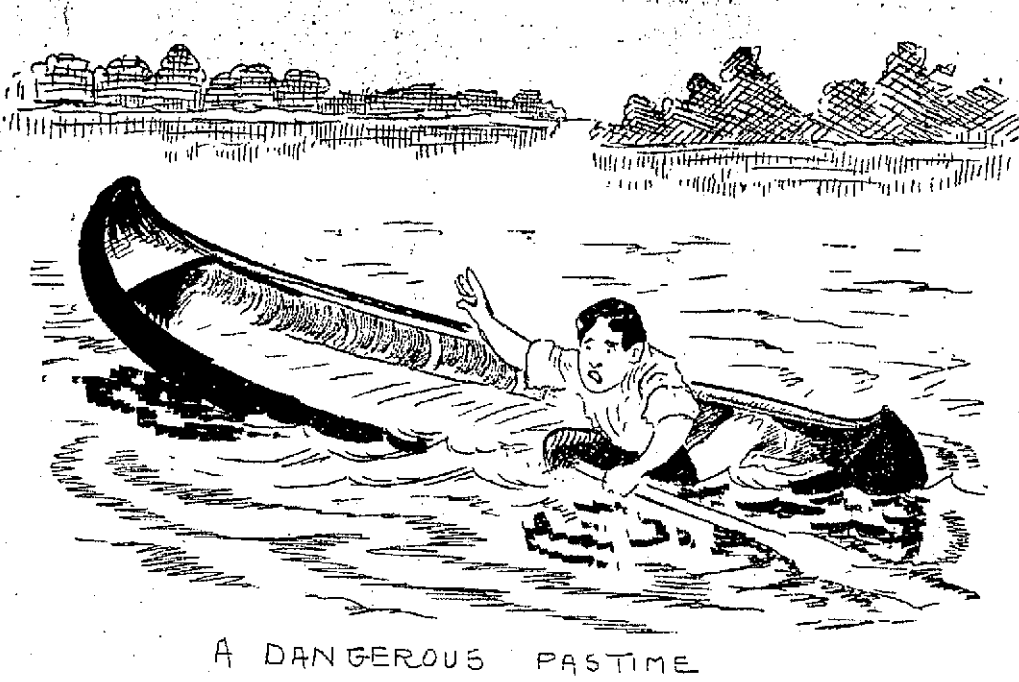

BOSTON, June 7.—A luncheon will be tendered this afternoon in Masonic Temple to Nathan Kingsley, general grand high priest of the general grand R. A. chapter of Masons in the United States, by the present officers and permanent members of grand chapter at the state and several prominent members of other bodies of the fraternity.

At the close of the quarterly convocation of the grand chapter, this evening, a reception will be tendered the general grand high priest.

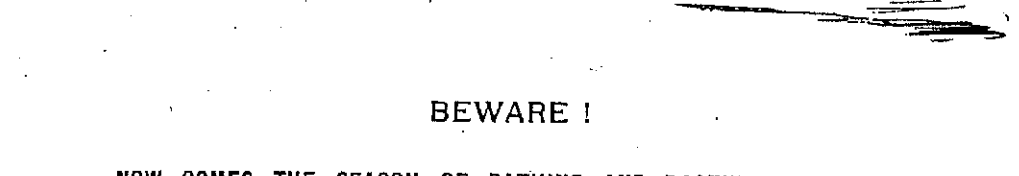

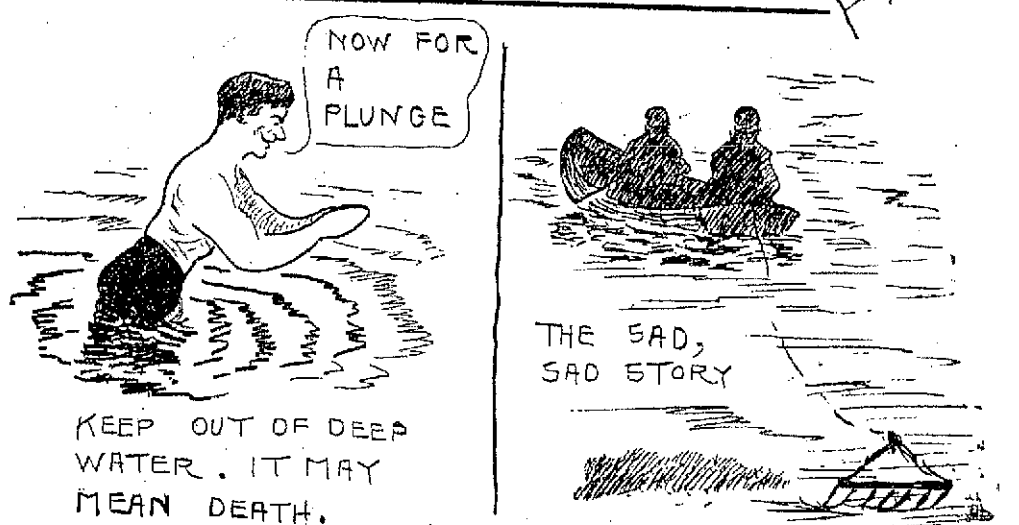

This will be the first visit east by the general grand high priest since his election last November, and he makes the trip specially to be with the grand chapter here. He will be entertained three days.

On Tuesday and Wednesday there will be automobile trips in and near Boston. Thursday he will be the guest in Lowell of Most Excellent Arthur G. Pollard, who was general grand high priest for the three years term ending 1906. Several others from Massachusetts have been elevated to that position.

The state is represented among the offices in the general grand body by J. Albert Blake, who is general grand master of the third valley.

THE ALDERMEN

Will Ballot for Principal Assessor at Tonight's Meeting

They Will Also Give a Number of Hearings—City Clerk Notifies 300 Petitioners of Hearings—Unsightly Buildings Being Removed in Lowell

The board of aldermen will meet this evening and will probably proceed to the election of a principal assessor to succeed the late Abel Wheeler. Solomon Mayhew has been elected by the common council and is up to the aldermen to agree with the lower board or to disagree. In the meantime the office of principal assessor is being filled by Frank M. Brogan who was appointed by Mayor Meehan pending the election of an assessor to Mr. Wheeler.

The aldermen will have a busy time of it tonight. There are no less than twelve hearings scheduled and while none of them is very important about 300 notices to petitioners and others have been sent out from the city clerk's office. Should parties notified respond in person standing room would be at a premium.

Old Shacks Removed
James Dow, superintendent of buildings, turned his attention early in the year to the abolition of old buildings throughout the city, buildings unfit for habitation and not pleasing to the eye. Quite a number of old shacks in Moody street, about opposite Memorial building, have been removed and the appearance of the neighborhood much improved. Several other old buildings in different parts of the city have been torn down and property has been generally improved.

Those Milk Laws
The new milk rules and regulations as given out by the board of health are being pretty well lived up to. Some of the milkmen are still waiting for bottles which they ordered several months ago, but the board members say that the disposition of the milkmen and storekeepers to comply with the laws and regulations is very encouraging.

Marriage Intentions
June 6—Nicholas Angerosa, 24, laborer, 4 Wigham street, and Fannie Tabbato, 17, at home, same address.

John M. Coughlin, 34, second hand, 201 Lawrence street, and Alice A. Pucell, 31, at home, 25 Sixth street.

Andre Boumilla, 28, operative, 9 Bent's court, and Lawsona Kindvrek, 26, operative, 67 Charles street.

FUNERALS

LINEHAN—The funeral of Mrs. Kate Linehan took place this morning from her late home, 535 Gorham street, at 8:15 o'clock, and was very largely attended by sorrowing relatives and friends. The cortege proceeded to St. Peter's church, where at 9 o'clock a high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. John Burns. The choir under the direction of Mr. James E. Donnelly sang the Gregorian mass. At the offertory "Pie Jesu" was rendered by Miss May Whiteley, and after the elevation Mr. James E. Donnelly rendered "O Mortum Passions." As the remains were borne from the church the choir sang "De Profundis." Mrs. J. W. McKenney presided at the organ. There was a large shroud of wheat from the daughter, Mrs. Michael Ward, of Lynn, Mass. Burial was in the family lot in the Catholic cemetery, where Rev. Fr. Burns read the committal prayers at the grave. Funeral Director Thomas J. McDermott had charge.

PLANTE—The funeral of George Plante took place yesterday morning from his home, 182 Fletcher street, with funeral services at St. Joseph's church. Rev. Fr. Racette, O. M. I., officiated. The choir sang Perrault's harmonized mass, with Frank Gourdeau as director and Joseph A. Bernard at the organ. The bearers were O. Gervais, C. L'Heroux, G. Duro, H. Gagnon, E. Cote and J. J. Cinq-Mars. Burial was in St. Joseph's cemetery, and Rev. Fr. Amyot, O. M. I., officiated at the grave. Undertaker Amedee Archambault had charge.

George Plante died Saturday night after a very brief illness. He had been getting ready to go to Canada, when he became ill and died. He leaves a wife and five children. Mrs. Philippe Cote, Miss Albina Plante and William Plante of this city, Octavie Plante of New York and John Plante of Boston.

GOLDTHWAITE—The funeral of Charles H. Goldthwaite was held yesterday afternoon from the funeral parlors of George W. Eastman, 24 Jackson street and was largely attended. Rev. Mr. Woodworth, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated and the Centralville lodge, I. O. F., held its service. The flowers were many and beautiful, prominent among which were the following: Large potted, inscribed "Sleepmate," from friends and shopmates of the Lowell Machine shop; pillow, inscribed "F. L. T.," Centralville lodge, I. O. F.; bouquet, Mabel S. Thiverge. There was a delegation present from the Wamsott lodge, K. P., also the Lowell Machine shop. The body was sent to Kennecott, Me., for burial.

IN POLICE COURT

Boy Linguist is Shown Clemency by Court

Leo Ozana, aged 17 years, who was on probation for being a stubborn child, was surrendered by Agent Itchardson this morning and brought into court. The boy is an exceptionally bright lad and speaks four languages, English, French, Polish and Greek, but he is inclined to be wild and his parents can do nothing with him. The brightness of the boy, however, touched Judge Hadley and after giving Ozana some good advice confined him on probation.

Placed on Probation
Joseph P. Lamotte, who was last week charged with threatening his wife, and who has been in jail for the past few days, appeared in court this morning and was placed in the custody of the probation officer.

Flanagan Sentenced
John F. Flanagan, who claims to live in Everett, was charged with drunkenness and assault and battery, but he entered pleas of not guilty to both complaints.

Alfred Thifault, who it is alleged was assaulted, was the first witness, and he said that while crossing the street near the corner of Central and Charles streets early yesterday afternoon Flanagan came up to him and without either saying a word Flanagan struck him in the chest. Two other witnesses also corroborated Thifault's testimony.

Relative to the complaint of drunkenness Patrolman James Kennedy said that Flanagan was arrested by Supt. Welch but that he resisted and found the man was very drunk.

He was found guilty on both complaints and sentenced to two months in the house of correction at Cambridge for assault and ten days additional for drunkenness.

"Will you give me a chance to get back to my home in Everett?" asked Flanagan, after sentence had been imposed.

"Yes, but I will send you by the way of Cambridge," was the court's prompt answer.

A woman named Myles appeared in police court this morning on complaint of Mary E. Thomas who claimed that she assaulted him last Sunday. During the course of the testimony the defendant admitted that she assaulted the man, but said that she felt that she was justified in doing so. The court did not think so, however, and she was fined $12. She told why she was there and said she was not sorry. She lived in the same building with him, but would move away. She said the man called her vile names.

Nazaire Rlopelle, charged with being drunk, was sentenced to ten days in jail, Margaret Tully, and Bernard R. Horne, charged with assault and four first offenders were fined $2.

Why Not Get Rid of Catarrh?
Here are some symptoms of catarrh: If you have any of them get rid of them while there is yet time. Is your throat raw? Do you sneeze often? Is your breath foul? Are your eyes watery? Do you take cold easily? Is your nose stopped up? Do you have to spit often? Do you have a sore throat? Do you blow your nose a great deal? Are you losing your sense of smell? Does your mouth taste bad mornings? Do you have to clear your throat on rising? Do you have a discharge from the nose? Does mucous drop in back of throat? Have you ringing noises in the ears? Hyamel (pronounced it High-a-mel) is guaranteed to cure catarrh, sore throat, coughs, colds, sore throat and bronchitis or money back. Just breathe it in. Complete outfit, including nasal rubber inhaler, $1.00. Extra bottles 50 cents. Druggists everywhere sell Hyamel. Carter & Shearbone guarantee it.

GIFT OF $25,000
MIDDLEBURY, Vt., June 7.—A gift of $25,000 to Middlebury college was announced by President Thomas today. The gift is for the general endowment and has promised to meet the conditional offer made by the general educational board on May 21. The college must secure $150,000 by December 31, 1911. Of this sum $12,000 has been raised. The gymnasium which, with the $25,000 announced today will count on the total of $150,000.

SAILED FOR ENGLAND
BOSTON, June 7.—The British Sunday school teachers who came to this country to attend the international convention at Washington and who have been visiting a number of cities on sightseeing trips, sailed today on the Ivernia for home. The visitors spent a week here and saw nearly all of the points of interest under the guidance of local Sunday school teachers.

THE HARVARD CREW
CAMBRIDGE, June 7.—A decided shakeup in the varsity crew has been made by Coach Wray as a result of Roger Cutler's inability to hit up the stroke at the Cornell race last Saturday. With Sargent in the stern to set the time and several shifts from stern to bow, it is expected that the members of the crew will have become well acquainted with their new positions by the time they reach New London on Sunday afternoon. The sending of the crew to New London on Sunday is an innovation as the men have usually gone down either Saturday or Monday with the race two weeks from the following Thursday.

MORE DELEGATES ARRIVE
BOSTON, June 7.—Additional delegates to the International Ladies' Garment Workers convention reached here today from Philadelphia, New York and Cincinnati, bringing the total attendance to nearly 150. Routine business and the reports on conventions occupied the forenoon session after which the delegates called upon Gov. Draper at the state house.

AUTO STRUCK WAGON

Messrs. Whittet and Knapp Had Narrow Escapes

The recklessness of two drivers of automobile trucks belonging to the Lowell Gas Light Co. in School street shortly after five o'clock yesterday afternoon, nearly resulted in the fatal injury of James Whittet, the contractor, and Charles L. Knapp, of the Middlesex Safe Deposit and Trust company.

The automobiles were racing through the streets at an extremely high rate of speed for a public thoroughfare and one of the drivers losing control of his truck, crashed into the wagon which was occupied by Messrs. Whittet and Knapp. Fortunately neither of the men was seriously hurt, but they were badly shaken up and suffered bruises.

Inasmuch as the automobile struck the wagon from the rear the occupants were not aware of the danger which they were in until the truck crashed into the wagon and raised the latter off the ground.

The crash came as the wagon reached a point near the canal bridge near the railroad crossing in School street. Railroad men in the vicinity rushed to the scene and in a moment a crowd of 200 or more had gathered. The two trucks came down the School street hill, side by side, both going fast. Just why the accident happened has not been explained, but the automobiles kept their relative positions until one of them piled itself up under the wagon. It was so deeply buried that the assistance of several men was needed to lift the wagon off the auto and set it on the ground.

Messrs. Whittet and Knapp were thrown into the street and when picked up it was found that Mr. Whittet was suffering from painful injuries to one of his ankles. Later a physician examined him and decided that the cords and tendons had been badly strained.

WOMAN IS ALIVE BURNED TO DEATH

Though She Had Been Declared Dead Newton Man Perished in a Fire

NEW YORK, June 7.—If Mary McGonigle read the newspapers none of the complications below would now puzzle her relatives.

Mary McGonigle was struck by a trolley car last April and died shortly afterwards in a hospital; on notification from the coroner, her relatives came to view the body and she was identified by her son Edward, a private in the Fifth United States Infantry, her sister, her brother and a cousin; a burial permit was issued in the name of Mary McGonigle, an insurance company paid $117 on the life of Mary McGonigle, the traction company paid $360 for the funeral of Mary McGonigle; the body of Mary McGonigle now lies in Calvary cemetery, and last night Mary McGonigle in the flesh walked into her sister's home.

To say there was surprise at her visit would understate the emotions of the relatives. The sister screamed, and a small niece fainted. Then came explanations. Mary McGonigle was certainly buried, but it was another Mary. The living woman is a wash woman in private service and her address fluctuates with her employment. The dead woman who bore such an extraordinary resemblance to her was no relation, but knew her and gave her address to the hospital.

THE HIPPODROME

WASHINGTON PARK TO BE THE SCENE OF THE AMUSEMENT

Carl L. Perin of New York City, owner and manager of many amusement enterprises, announces that Washington park, right in the heart of Lowell, will be opened on Monday, June 13, as an open air hippodrome showing all the latest circus and vaudeville acts. In addition to this there will be hand concerts, and running through the entire performance will be a group of clowns to amuse the young people of all ages.

Washington Park is ideally located being within walking distance from any part of the city. This big advantage is not only a saving of fare, but also avoids the rush and crush of getting to the grounds and also the annoying waits and delays after the performance is over.

The grounds will be brilliantly lighted with a myriad of incandescent and arc lights making Washington Park a pleasing sight to the eye and as light as a sunny afternoon.

There has been a force of carpenters, electricians and painters on the grounds now for two weeks getting the park in tip top condition for the opening and when the doors swing wide on Monday afternoon, June 13, the management promises a revelation in outdoor amusement.

The numerous trained animals, riding acts and all sorts of sensational vaudeville turns will be presented for the public approval. In addition to these there will be the hand concerts and the latest motion pictures will be shown during the evening performance. There will be an elevated stage and a big circus ring where the various performers will work.

There will be two performances daily and the seating capacity has been enlarged to accommodate big crowds which the management expects, as the admission has been placed at the low figure of ten cents.

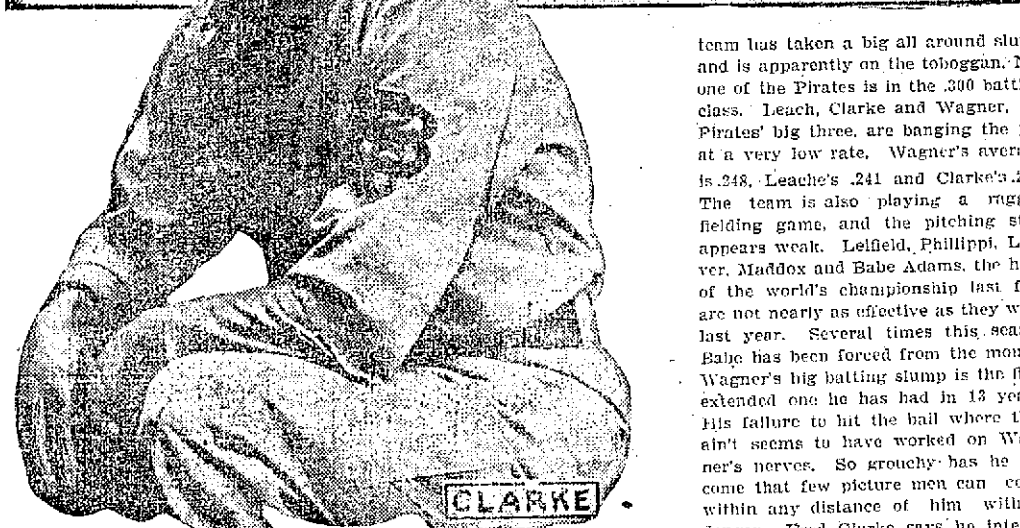

The park will be run on the best plan possible and a special endeavor will be made to cater to ladies and children, and as Mr. Perin states for motto is "A Place to Bring Your Family and Enjoy Yourself."

WHAT AILS THE BATTING EYES OF THESE TWO GREAT PITTSBURG BALL TOSSERS?

PITTSBURG, June 7.—What ails the Pittsburgh world champions? One month ago many experts considered the Buccaneers to be the strongest team in the National league and one which had an excellent chance to capture the gonfalon and perhaps another world's title. Recently, however, the

DIAMOND NOTES

Nothing doing at Spalding park until Friday.

Worcester is looking around for Ordway and Campbell. The latter has returned to his home in Southern California thoroughly disgusted with the New England climate.

There'll be an awful lot of double-headers coming soon.

Vance has been left at home on the southern trip.

The Bugs in Lowell are so overjoyed in the knowledge that they have a good first baseman at last, that the school children are to sing 100 stanzas in honor of Fred Tenney. The music is by Bob Parades with appropriate words from the versatile pen of Jimmy Hearn of the Lowell Sun.—Lynn News.

Will meet you at the Relay House. Bring the animal, but hitch him outside.

A local fan has sent in an All-New England league club as follows: Pitchers Abbott of Lynn, Finlayson of Lawrence, Griffin of New Bedford and Keown of Worcester; catchers, Dunn of Lynn and McCune of Worcester; Haas of Worcester, the Logan of Lynn, 2b; Burg of Lynn, 3b; Cargo of Lynn, ss; Biting of New Bedford, if; Crum of Worcester, cf; Devine of Fall River, rf.

We'll give you three guesses as to the town in which that fan lives. Lynn? Sure!

So Mr. Fluharty is trying to play first base for Lowell. They have called him Young Hal Chase up in Lowell, and it's a cinch Fluh is old enough to be Hal's papa.—Brookline Times.

"Dummy" Conley, the deaf and dumb pitcher who with New Bedford for a time last season, blew into Brockton yesterday, got into a suit of his own, and showed up on the Brockton bench, looking for a chance with Manager Flanagan's men. He has not been signed but Manager Flanagan said this morning that he would probably be around again today, and in case of necessity might be used. He won't be retained on the team, however.—Brockton Enterprise.

CASEY ON HAVERHILL

Daniel W. Casey, we haven't the pleasure of the gentleman's acquaintance but the name looks good from the road, writes the following in the Haverhill Sunday Record:

Yesterday's game with Lowell was a good demonstration that with a good pitcher in the box, Haverhill can win games, and now the kind of a ball player who has been needed more than any other is on his way to this city. His name is Thomas Scanlon, he is a left-handed pitcher, he has an excellent record, and his last place of employment was in Philadelphia where he was with the National league team. Realizing that a heart throbber of ability can win the majority of the games from Lynn and Lowell, Manager Fleming has been on the hunt for a good man for some time past and while he has had many men offered him, but them all aside until he got just the man he wanted.

"Old" Doan, manager of the Phillies, is having his troubles, his team having dropped from the lead to seventh place in the league standing and there is talk that the players are fighting among themselves. In the interim

CHAS. K. HAMILTON TO TRY FOR BIPLANE RECORD

President Fogel gave Scanlon his unconditional release, and the lad, packing his grip, departed to Syracuse.

The news reached the ears of Manager Fleming, as quick as the Western Union could convey the message and the local man wired him to come here. The terms were accepted, and today, Scanlon is whirling in a Pullman car bound for Haverhill. He will be used against Lynn here on Tuesday.

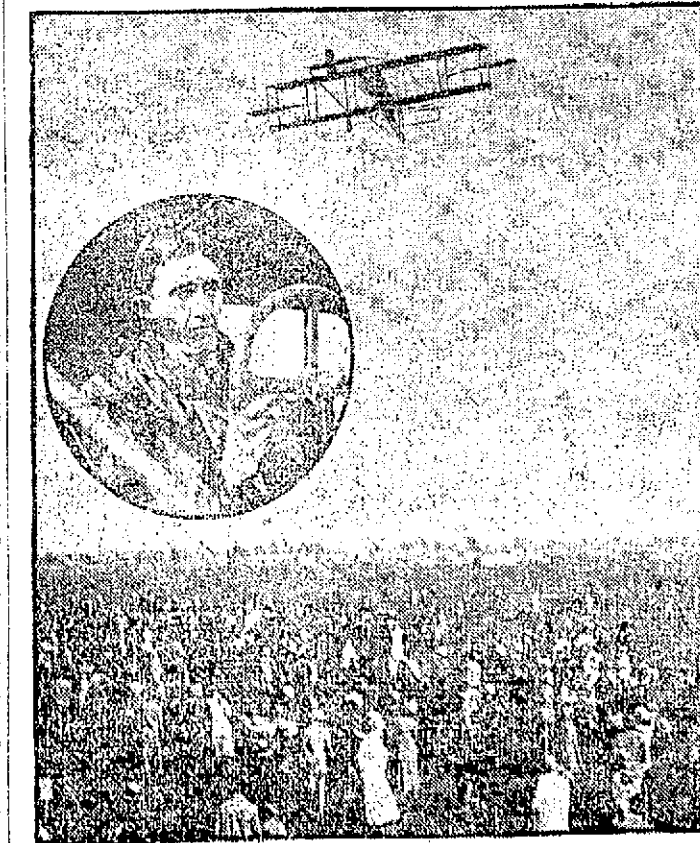

Scanlon is the twirler who practically won the pennant for Allentown in the outlay league and has excellent control. He is anxious to make good in Haverhill so that he may soon again get back to the big show and he is ready to pitch his head off that he may win. While with Philadelphia he won from Brooklyn and had he not been a good man, would have been canned long ago.

A heavy hitting outfielder with an arm that has terrorized all runners to the main tent, is another man for whom Fleming has his books out and he will probably hitch up with somebody soon.

Sebastian has a bone bruise and Toomey has a split finger so last night Bert Kelley was signed up and will go to Lynn with the team tomorrow. He has a host of local favorites who will be glad to see him in a Haverhill uniform tomorrow.

Schuman was released last night. He was found to be too wild to last and did not seem to have the stamina to stick out a game. He was here on trial from Hartford in the Connecticut league and will go back to that club.

Tom Fleming is that kind of a man who does not want to announce any thing until he is sure of it, and that is why he does not give out his deals until they are entirely completed. He realizes now things are going and is doing his best to improve them. Yesterday when he came to bat in the third inning after getting a hit in the first, he was roundly applauded and this applause came from the constant fans. They appreciate what he is doing and what his position and are going to stand by him.

Last Sunday I told you that most of the knocking came from men who have not seen games and I have proof of this. Yesterday I met a man who was telling me all about Friday's game and he was loud in throwing down the team. When I pinned him down he had not seen a game this year! That is where most of the brass knocking emanates from.

On the best of authority it is asserted that President Arundel of the Lawrence team offered $20 to his battery and $5 each to the other members of the team if they won yesterday's game. His anxiety to win spring, perhaps, from the presence of Scott Ketcher, who was there to look over Catcher Ainsmith, and a coterie of other friends.—New Bedford Times.

Don't concern yourself about Arundel. We knew him in politics before he went into base ball. He doesn't worry but, like the city of Lowell according to O'Sullivan, he "does things."

"Little Hot Drops" is the name the fans at Lawrence have given Umpire Byrne.—New Bedford Times.

If the sobriquet were libelous they'd be right back to The Sun office for the man who first dubbed him "Little Hot Drops." But then, what's the use.

Fred Tenney, John Smith, Conner, Wolfgang, Boules, Magee and a few others are all high priced men on the Lowell club. It will be the Little Boston Nationals in the Spindle City soon.—New Bedford Times.

And yet, admitting it all, we're not in the first division.

Here's how the Brockton team stands:

MAHOUMET HURT

Big Turk Bounced Off the Stage

The wrestling match at Associate hall last evening might be properly described as "bunk" for whatever "bunk" is, so was the match. There was a fair sized attendance, the Greek colony turning out in large numbers to see Demetrial, the Greek champion. They were all greatly disappointed, however, for Demetrial had nothing to do in the wrestling line, for his opponent, Harje Mahomet, will make more money by exhibiting himself as a plai fat man than by other means. Harje was supposed to weigh 310 pounds, but he looked more like 410, and he wrestled as if he weighed about a ton. The stage was set for the occasion, but even then there wasn't room enough to keep the fat man on the mat and after bouncing around a few times with Demetrial he slipped off the stage onto the floor, and upon getting up complained of an injured knee, and beat it for the dressing room. Then John Kilonis, the Greek middleweight, came on and was thrown twice within an hour by Demetrial.

In the preliminaries, George Babulatis defeated Peter Morin in 11 minutes and 40 seconds; George Alaboglanis and "Young Syria" went to a draw, as did Joe Atkins and Henry Landry.

WIFE IS DEAD

POLICE ASKED TO LOOK FOR HER HUSBAND

City Marshal John Fleet of Fall River sent a telegram to the police station in this city yesterday to the effect that a Mrs. Patrick Harrington was dead in that city and it was thought that her husband was employed at the gas works in this city.

In communication with the gas works the police learned that a man by the name of Harrington had been working on a construction job which is now being done, but that he worked there but a few days recently and then quit the job.

LOCAL POLICE

LOOKING FOR RELATIVES OF MAN WHO WAS KILLED

Coroner Charles E. Blood of Dun-kirk, N. Y., has written the local police asking for information regarding relatives of a man who on May 25th jumped in front of a freight train at that place and was instantly killed.

The man had in his possession a pay envelope with a number on it from the American Locomotive Co. and inquiry brought out the information that a man who gave the name of Henry Hall was known by that number when working at that place.

The coroner writes the police that he has information to the effect that the man's name was either Baker or Keegan and that he has a brother in this city. About the only mark of identification that the coroner has is that the man's right wrist was broken and looked as though it was improperly set.

SEARCHING FOR BROTHER

Mary E. Quirk of 16 River street, Winoski, Vt., is very anxious to learn the whereabouts of her brother, James Quirk, who it is said is now or was working in this city, according to a communication which was received at the police station yesterday.

MERRIMACK RIVER

Money Spent by Federal Government to Develop Its Traffic

Most of That Amount Expended on River Below Haverhill and at Mouth of River—Work on Newburyport Harbor

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—The so-called "river and harbor" bill, just out of conference, carries upwards of $52,000,000. When the bill becomes a law, as it will in a short time, it will be seen that the Merrimack river will have benefited to some extent.

The bill provides: "Improving Merrimack river, Massachusetts; for maintenance, $10,000."

"Improving harbor at Newburyport, Massachusetts; continuing improvement in accordance with the existing project of such modification thereof, by dredging or otherwise, as, in the discretion of the secretary of war, may be advisable with a view to securing the existing project depth of 17 feet, $50,000."

On April 11, 1910, a report on the bill was presented to the senate, a document of 782 pages.

Referring to the Merrimack river, the report says:

Merrimack River, Massachusetts

"In its original condition the Merrimack river had a practicable channel seven feet deep at mean low water from its mouth, nine miles to South Amesbury, but besides being narrow and crooked, the channel was obstructed by ledges, boulders and shoals."

"The original project appears to have been:—

"(1) For improving the bar at the mouth of the river, by erection of piers or other works, adopted by act of May 23, 1828; subsequently improved under separate project for 'improving harbor at Newburyport, Mass.'"

"(2) For the improvement of the river above the mouth, by the removal of the remains of a dam at the upper falls and of a rock at the lower falls, of Gangway rock in Newburyport harbor, and wreck near the mouth of the river."

"Upon the original and modified projects, prior to operations under the existing project, there was expended: Upon the project of 1828, $27,467.72, and upon the project of 1870, as largely extended by the acts of June 23, 1874, and June 3, 1895, $187,000; total, $254,467.72."

"The existing project, adopted by the act of March 3, 1899, is to obtain a channel 7 feet deep at mean low water, 150 feet wide, from Newburyport 141.2 miles to Haverhill, at an estimated cost of $171,442.70."

"The amount expended on the existing project to June 30, 1909, is $117,989.48, of which $2,564.71 was applied to maintenance of improvement, and 10 cents derived from sales. With this expenditure the channel has been completed to the full projected depth and width."

"The commerce of the river is chiefly in coal distributed to the cities and towns along its banks, and amounted in 1907 to 98,442 tons, and in 1908 to 115,840 tons. The improvement of the channel is reported to enable the delivery of coal by water at rates 15 to 50 cents per ton less than by rail."

"The head of navigation is at the hat factory, one-half mile above the railroad bridge at Haverhill, to which point the steamer is navigable in fact 17½ miles above its mouth in Newburyport harbor."

"June 30, 1909, the maximum draft that can be carried at mean low water over the shoalest part of the improved channel is 7 feet, except just below Rocks Bridge, where it is reduced by small boulders to about 5 feet."

"The removal of these boulders is in progress."

"The mean range of tides is, at the mouth of the river, 7.7 feet, and at Haverhill Bridge 4.6 feet, at low-water stage of the river."

"The project for 1870-1874 is published in the Annual Report of the Chief of Engineers for 1899, page 421, as extended in 1874, in report for 1876, page 163; as extended in 1886, in report for 1896, page 616; and the existing project adopted in 1899, in report for 1897, page 865."

"The report of a survey, with estimate of cost to deepen the channel to 9 feet at mean low water, was published in Annual Report for 1904, pages 873-878."

"An examination for a channel 12 feet deep to Haverhill (unfavorably reported), and a survey and estimate for removing obstructions at the mouth of the river (favorably reported), made in 1906, are published in House Document No. 839, Fifty-ninth congress second session."

"Reports of examination and survey, with map, for a channel 14 feet deep from the mouth of the river to Haverhill, by providing locks and dams, are printed in House Document No. 2, sixty-first congress, first session."

"The project having been completed, it is proposed to apply the appropriation recommended to the maintenance of the improved channel." The figures: July 1, 1909, balance unexpended, $3,142.58

Amount allocated from appropriation by river and harbor act approved March 3, 1909, 10,000.00

June 30, 1909, amount expended during fiscal year, for maintenance of improvement, 1,121.96

July 1, 1909, balance unexpended, 12,010.62

July 1, 1909, outstanding liabilities, 750.75

July 1, 1909, balance available, 11,259.87

July 1, 1909, amount covered by uncompleted contracts, 2,675.92

Amount that can be profitably expended in fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, for maintenance of improvement, exclusive of the balance unexpended July 1, 1909, $10,000.00

Newburyport Harbor

As to the harbor at the mouth of the Merrimack, at Newburyport, the report says:

"Prior to specific appropriations for Newburyport harbor funds applicable to Merrimack river, of which it is the estuary, were devoted to removing a sand-bar and constructing a break-water at the river's mouth, 1828 to 1836, and to removing obstructing ledges, piers and wrecks, 1879 to 1880. In its original condition the outlet of the Merrimack river, which between Plum Island and Salisbury Point was 1000 feet wide and 30 feet deep at mean low water, was obstructed by a sand-bar, nearly a mile outside, through which, in 1880, a narrow channel about 7 feet deep at mean low water was maintained by the current of the river."

"The original project adopted by the act of June 14, 1880, which is the existing project, is to create at the outer bar a permanent channel, 1900 feet wide and at least 17 feet deep at mean low water, by constructing two converging jetties projecting one from the north shore 2510 feet, the other from the south shore 1500 feet, their outer ends 1000 feet apart, which, with the protection of the beach in their vicinity, was estimated in 1881 to cost $365,000. The direction of jetties and shore protection was modified in 1883, and in 1882 the partial closing of Plum Island basin with a timber dike about 800 feet long and 1-2 feet above mean low water was added to the project, increasing the cost (as estimated in 1884) to $375,000. In 1884 a modification of the project provided for extending both jetties 610 ft. parallel to the axis of the channel, and in 1886 for increasing their extension to 1000 feet, increasing the cost of the work, as estimated in 1897, to $599,347.49."

"To June 30, 1909, the amount expended on this project was $396,632.79, of which $9,379.66 was for maintenance. In addition, $500 was expended in 1901 for removal of North rock under authority of act of March 2, 1899. The expenditure for maintenance in the fiscal year 1909 ($1,557.87) was applied to retopping the outer end of the north jetty. By way of refundment, $795.31 was recovered from a failing contractor."

"With the expenditure for improvement, the north jetty has been completed for a total length of 2868 feet and the south jetty completed except for a distance of 30 feet at its outer end; the Plum Island basin has been closed with a timber dike 817 feet long, 5 1-2 feet high above mean low water, except near the middle, where a weir 150 feet long and 2 feet above mean low water was left temporarily; and two sand catches, respectively 600 and 527 feet in length, have been built in rear of the south jetty. Both jetties are 15 feet wide on top, which is in a plane 12 feet above mean low water, and have slopes of 1 on 2 on the seaward face and 1 on 1 on the shoreward face. This project is about 80 per cent completed."

"June 30, 1909, the maximum draft that can be carried over the bar at mean low water is 12 feet. The mean range of tides is 7.7 feet."

"The commerce of the harbor, chiefly coal, amounted in 1907 to 269,398 tons, and in 1908 to 252,239 tons. Of the latter amount 118,840 tons were re-shipped to points on the Merrimack and Powwow rivers."

"It is reported that the improvement made has reduced freight rates 25 cents per ton, and that if the projected depth of 17 feet at mean low water be obtained over the outer bar it would still further reduce the freight rates 15 to 25 cents per ton."

"The amount estimated as a profitable expenditure in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, will be applied to the further extension of the north jetty."

"The original project as reported by a board of engineers, with map of the harbor, is published in Annual Report of the Chief of Engineers for 1881, page 502; the modifications in jetties and shore protection, in reports for 1883, page 437; and 1884, page 494; the further extension of the jetties, with map and additional estimate, in report for 1887, page 825, and a survey of the bar and entrance, in report for 1905, page 602."

"A survey and map of the bar and entrance, with estimate for removing obstructions in the mouth of the river, are published in House Document No. 339, Fifty-ninth congress, second session. The figures:

July 1, 1909, balance unexpended, 14,781.21

Amount recovered from failing contractor, 795.31

June 30, 1909, amount expended during fiscal year: For works of improvement, $11,876.13

For maintenance of improvement, 1,557.87

July 1, 1909, balance unexpended, 14,781.21

Amount (estimated) required for completion of existing project, 209,369.28

Amount that can be profitably expended in fiscal year ending June 30, 1911, for exclusive of improvement, exclusive of the balance unexpended July 1, 1909, 75,000.00

So it will be seen that a few dollars have been expended on the Merrimack river, below Haverhill, and to the sea."

THE TINKHAM BILL

Was Passed by the State Senate

BOSTON, June 7.—The Tinkham bill, providing that no milk shall be sold in Boston, except with a permit from the board of health, was reconsidered and passed in the Massachusetts senate late yesterday by a vote of 22 to 13.

The milk producers' liability bill was finally passed to a third reading with an amendment offered by Senator Greenwood which removed the provision which gave the producers ten days after the 20 days allowed him to bring the milk up to standard before he could be prosecuted for failure to do so.

GOV. FORT TO MINISTERS

ASHBURY PARK, N. J., June 7.—Gov. J. Franklin Fort of New Jersey in a speech yesterday before the general synod of the Reformed church in America urged upon the ministers to use every effort to bring their country back to "our primitive" both of church and state. The trouble with America, he said, is that there is too much seeking for power, wealth and influence today. He emphasized the emptiness of such ambitions.

The education of foreigners who come to this country to appreciate what its liberty really means was another duty the governor said devolves upon ministers.

MEMORIAL TO LINCOLN

WASHINGTON, June 7.—With the purpose of creating a memorial in the national capital worthy the name of Abraham Lincoln, a temporary organization of the Lincoln Memorial association was effected at a meeting of representative citizens here last night. Hannis Taylor, former United States minister to Spain, was elected chairman with authority to appoint a committee of fifty to determine the scope and plan of the association.

The tentative plans of the organization contemplate raising a fund of $5,000,000 by nation wide collection to be converted into a memorial to the war president which will be in keeping in magnificence and cost with the public buildings and monuments of the national capital.

POLICE OFFICER

Was the Victim of a Thief

NEW YORK, June 7.—A policeman's uniform with a shirt on the breast of the coat spread out on a chair, carried no fear to a bold thief who visited the home of Gadila Krams, a patrolman of the New York department early yesterday. He extracted $40 in bills from the trousers, and a gold watch and chain from the vest and even took Krams' service revolver from his hip pocket. Then he ransacked the whole apartment at his leisure.

Finally, just to show his contempt for authority, he removed the shield from the coat and left it on the table with a five cent piece beside it. For Krams' use to get to the station house to report the robbery.

SERIOUS TROUBLE

Has Broken Out in Yucatan

VERA CRUZ, Mex., June 7.—A serious uprising has occurred in the state of Yucatan, in which much blood has been shed, according to reports received here. The insurgents are said to be preparing for a battle with the government forces, which is sure to come soon.

Despatches from Merida, the capital of Yucatan, are to the effect that forty persons were killed by the Maya Indians on Saturday and that 3000 of these Indian insurgents sacked the town of Valladolid, killing all the principal government employees, the chief of police and others. They seized rifles and pistols and instituted a reign of terror. Many of the inhabitants of Valladolid are fleeing to Merida.

Troops are being rushed to the disturbed area.

Railroad and telegraph communication between Merida and the scene of the trouble is now cut off. Twenty miles of the Yucatan railroad have been destroyed by the Indians. It is reported that many telegraph operators have been killed or made prisoners. The Jefe Politico and the judge of the criminal court are among the dead.

Maximiliano Ramirez Bonilla, the former rebel leader, and Colonel Victor Montenegro are said to be at the head of the uprising.

The towns of Tinum, Uxmal and Tuxtla, all between Merida and Valladolid, have been attacked but the reports say that the families of all the residents, except officials, have been unmolested.

A strict censorship has now been established.

JACOB RIIS

IS INTERESTED IN THE PLAYGROUND MOVEMENT

Jacob Riis, friend of ex-President Roosevelt and sociologist of national reputation, will be one of the speakers at the annual congress of the playground association of America in Rochester, N. Y., June 7 to 11.

Mr. Riis is one of the most enthusiastic of the playground workers. In discussing playgrounds, he said in his characteristic way:

"It is as much the Christian's duty as the citizen's to fight poverty by better homes, better schools, playgrounds for the children, where manhood and womanhood can grow unchallenged by the gutter."

"As for the man who can sit in the chair and turn a deaf ear to the cry of the children playing in workshop and tenement when they ought to be out at play, he is neither one nor the other."

He is not a Christian for his soul knows no mercy and he is traitor to his country; for more precious than the wealth of its forests and mountains and fields is the citizenship which child labor depraves. The boy and the girl—they are its wealth; they are the republic itself in the day that is to come."

CARE OF HORSES

Advice as to Treatment of Diseases

These two forms of colic, spasmodic and flatulent are acknowledged the most fatal and dangerous of horse ailments. They come on so unexpectedly, so variously, and so suddenly, no one knows when to look for them, it may be just after starting out for the day's work or just after the day's work is done or at midnight, it is simply liable to meet you at any time or place, if you have a horse; then, too, the case may be slight, recovering in half an hour, while the next case the horse is dead in the same time. How important then for the owner or care-taker to familiarize himself with his horse, the symptoms, the conditions and be prepared at any and all times as far as possible to cope with this dread disease. Everyone having the care of horses should make a study of the symptoms of colic in the horse. When after a drive or a day's work, or from any unknown reason your horse acts suddenly strange, shows any of the symptoms heretofore mentioned, perhaps having been exposed to a change of feed, over-worked or driven too hard, the horse looks at his side, appears a desire to lie down, take his ears in your hand, if they are warm and pulse is natural look out for colic; hence one should provide himself with some simple and reliable preparation of which there are several on the market, put up in very convenient form, and recommended very highly, he should then remember a good veterinary is the assistance to have when possible to obtain and when the horse is showing any signs of an attack of colic—stop and take time to thoroughly investigate, remember minutes count in this disease. It is not apparent that the horse in a comfortable stable, provide plenty of bedding in a box stall if possible, send for your veterinary and give a few doses of some reliable colic preparation, warm scaldy water enemas, blanket warm and then await results. Do not ride or run him up and down the road; do not fill him with turpentine, gin or whiskey; he has already more in his system than he can take care of.

STRUCK BY CAR

Injured Man Married in Hospital

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., June 7.—Struck by a trolley car and seriously injured, a man who was married in the hospital, a Brooklyn druggist, was married in the Bridgeport hospital to Miss Alice M. Wright of the same place. The two have been stopping at the home of friends here and yesterday morning went to a minister's house to be married, but were refused because Miss Wright was divorced and did not have her divorce papers with her. They then went by trolley to the home of Rev. William Atkinson and in getting off the car which had not stopped, Sandlin passed in the rear, running in front of a second car which knocked him down, inflicting probable fatal injuries to his head. Rev. Atkinson saw the accident from the window of his home and visited Sandlin at the hospital soon after the accident. Last night Miss Wright secured the papers in her divorce suit and went to the hospital with Rev. Mr. Atkinson where the marriage took place.

SHINGLE MILL

WORKED 33 DAYS ON THE CEDAR LOG

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—Although it sounds like pure fiction, an Oregon shingle mill has just finished a run of 33 days working on a single cedar log. The big stick was 11 feet 10 inches in diameter at the base and 60 feet long. As the saws used by the loggers in cutting the logs into "bolts" for the shingle saws are only eight feet long, dynamite was used in splitting the log so it could be sawed into pieces of the necessary size to go to the circular saws.

Not over half a cord of timber was wasted in the work and when it was finished, 141,000 shingles had been made from the single stick. The tree grew in the forests of Tillamook county, where there is probably the finest standing timber to be found on the continent. So dense are these forests of fir, spruce and cedar and so luxuriant their growth that in many places it is almost impossible for a man to force his way through the underbrush that fills the narrow spaces between the trees.

STATE WIDE PROHIBITION

PORTLAND, Ore., June 7.—Oregon will vote on statewide prohibition in November and the campaign of the wets and dries is now rounding into form. A peculiar condition exists here because of the fact that Oregon is the first state of the Union in hop production. The farmers are porturbed about the future of their hop

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

For the working men with large families the high prices present problems most difficult of solution. Wages have not kept pace with the rapid advance in prices and employment has been none too steady. It is not strange, therefore, to find a great many people on the point of destitution although dragging along as best they can by relying wholly upon their own efforts.

VACATIONAL AUTO TRIPS

With the multiplication of automobiles a great many people who formerly closed up their homes and went to the beach or the mountains for a vacation will now be satisfied with occasional trips from their homes to points ten to fifty miles distant, making their longest stay from Saturday afternoon till Monday morning. The long line of automobiles seen at every respectable summer resort for the week end is proof of this. The summer hotel this year will appear to be the centre of a great auto show. We presume there will be little change in this respect until the auto is supplanted by the aeroplane.

TRANSMUTATION OF METALS

So many and such wonderful inventions and discoveries have been announced of late, that not even the skilled scientist can venture to question the announcement of anything new or strange, such for example as the proposition of Dr. F. W. Lange of Scranton, Pa., by which he says he can expand eight ounces of silver into sixteen ounces of a metal that cannot be distinguished from silver. Of course anybody who could do such a thing could easily make an independent fortune. Let us hope his scheme will not prove to be a complete fake as was that of a certain Mr. Jernegan some time ago when he convinced some people that he could extract gold from sea water. Nature has secrets which will continue to be unfolded to a wondering world, and it would not be more strange to transform or transmute a metal than to do many other things which the alchemists have been doing for a long time.

WE CONGRATULATE LAWRENCE

Whatever may be said of the city of Lawrence from a political standpoint we are forced to admit that it is far ahead of Lowell in its efforts to check the white plague. Lawrence has a splendid hospital for consumptives almost ready for occupancy. It will be formally opened about the first of July. It is a magnificent structure specially adapted to allow all the best of life. It has a southern aspect, is of the latest style of sanitary construction and in every respect adapted to the work. We congratulate the city of Lawrence. Here in Lowell we have had a lot of talk about a contagious hospital, but nothing more than talk. We have also had much talk about a public hall, but the project has not yet passed beyond the hot air stage. Our city at present has no contagious hospital, no hospital for consumptives, no public hall, but we are living in hope.

OPPORTUNITIES IN FARMING

In spite of all the inquiries and investigations into the high cost of living the cost seems to continue to go upward. The people are wondering where, when or how this upward tendency will come to an end. It is good for the men who control great factories for turning out food products for the market or even clothing, for not only food but clothing also is higher priced perhaps than ever before. The people must take the matter into their own hands in a practical way. They can settle this question and settle it right by getting back to the land as the great source of wealth.

It is a fact that more men this year than ever before have endeavored to secure pieces of land in this part of the state for cultivation.

The matter is practical, easy and simple if undertaken with the right spirit. The farmers have an opportunity to make money such as they never had before in spite of the fact that what they have to buy costs higher than ever before. If they put more ground under cultivation, raise more potatoes, more grain, more vegetables for the market, more poultry, more cattle, more swine, there is no reason why they should not make good profits. The farmers know how to do all these things but the factory hand attempting to enter farming is handicapped by lack of knowledge. The man who was a successful farmer in England, France, Germany or Russia may not be successful here, because the differences in soil and climate render entirely different methods necessary to secure success. The men who have been in the business are the leaders. They can succeed and make good profits on their products if they show skill and enterprise.

With beef selling at such enormous prices, there is no reason why the New England farmers should not raise a large number of cattle for slaughter. The same may be said of hogs, and the hog products seem to cost even more in proportion to their comparative value than does beef.

Massachusetts is the state of small farms and the community will be benefited by increasing the number. There should not be a vacant farm in the state. The insistent demand for more producers of food has brought women into the arena with the prospect that they will become successful farmers. Farming as it is conducted today does not require the persistent toil of years ago. The improved machinery has rendered that unnecessary. As farming is conducted today a woman well versed in the art may make it a success as well as a man, provided she has the necessary capital to enable her to wait for results. The women will greatly aid in the back-to-the-land movement if they engage in it with resolution. Women are better adapted to run poultry farms and conduct dairies where cleanliness is a consideration than are men.

It is an amen of success in a movement that means much for the people to see the women taking a keen interest in the movement to combat the high cost of living and make the people more self-reliant and more self-supporting.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Mrs. Margaret Stinson has just completed her 45th year of service at the Institute of Technology, Boston. She was appointed in 1865 by President Rogers to take charge of the chemical apparatus used by students. She is still in active service and is said to remember the names and personalities of more men who have attended classes in the Institute of Technology than any other person connected with the institution.

Prof. Henry R. Lang of Yale has been made a corresponding member of the Royal Spanish academy, of Gollola, a member of the Royal Geographical society of Lisbon, and has received from the Spanish government a silver medal commemorating the siege of Zaragoza. He is preparing a critical edition, with English version and literary comment, of the so-called Prohemio of Marquis de Santillana (1449), the first history of the artistic poetry of Italy, France and Spain down to his time. Prof. Lang will soon publish also a study of the Lyric poetry of Spain in the middle ages.

Emperor William is experiencing some inconvenience because of an eruption on the right hand caused by the bite of an insect. The court physicians state that there is no danger of serious consequences from the irritation which they expect will disappear within a few days. They have, however, opened and treated the affected part against the possible development of blood poisoning. For the time being his majesty has delegated the signature of state documents to Crown Prince Frederick William, and all urgent decrees will appear with the double signatures of the crown prince and the imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, preceded by the notation: "By order of the emperor." This is the first occasion during the reign of the emperor upon which the documents of state have received other than his majesty's autograph.

Canadian universities have sent many graduate students to the United States and also supplied many brilliant professors, but a unique instance of academic interchange has just occurred in the case of Mr. W. P. Thompson, graduating this year from the University of Toronto. This young man has been awarded for proficiency in science, the London exhibition scholarship of $1500—a considerable honor in British territories, and intended to make possible two years' study in any university in England or abroad. The winner wished instead to continue work in his chosen field of botany, under Professor E. C. Jeffrey of Harvard, and inquires how to make it possible to leave if he could carry out his plan and still hold the scholarship. Possibly because Professor Jeffrey is so well and favorably known in England, permission was granted; and in this way the famous scholarship founded in connection with the great London exposition of 1853 comes for the first time to the United States and fittingly to America's oldest university.

DETROIT, Mich., June 7.—A private telegram received from Ann Arbor yesterday says that G. P. It is known that the university regents have been split for months over the question of a president.

SERIOUS CHARGE

IS MADE AGAINST SARDINE FACTORY EMPLOYEES

EASTPORT, Me., June 7.—U. S. Marshal Fred Stevens of Portland and William M. O'Leary of Washington have served summonses on a number of sardine factory employees as well as Canadian boatmen and their owners to appear as witnesses. A number of their owners from Perry were also included and there promises to be quite a delegation of sardine men at Bangor Wednesday when it is said the hearing will be held.

The cause is the alleged agreement between their owners of the eastern Maine coast as well as at Deer Island and Charlottetown, N. B., with a canning company of this city, and a Lubec company, for at present the selling price of a hoghead of herring for use in the sardine industry is $12, while in August this price will drop to $6 for the balance of the canning season running to Dec. 1. It will come under the Sherman anti-trust act, it is said. The independent canners claim that the agreement is a restraint of trade in the sardine business and a conspiracy against them.

The claim is made that some kind of an agreement has been reached between the canning companies and the principal their owners on both sides of the boundary, and by the agreement no herring can be secured by the independent canners, unless the fish should come in and the two big companies cannot handle all that are caught. This is called a conspiracy by some of the canners, and while the fish are usually scarce there are not many hogheads coming to the independent packers, it is claimed, and these canners are trying to have the alleged agreement broken so that everyone can get a share of the fish at the price asked, $12 a hoghead. The alleged price was set by the canners early in the spring, and was satisfactory to all the packers, for there was little chance to protest in the early spring when only a limited number of schools of fish got down this way.

It is stated that the fishermen later called on the two big companies and offered to give them the preference on all the herring caught up to August at $12 per hoghead provided these companies would not neglect them when the price dropped to $6 a hoghead.

OLIVER D. WILDER

Ex-Aldermen Died Suddenly Last Evening

Ex-Alderman Oliver Darwin Wilder died suddenly last evening at 7 o'clock at his late home, 6 Cornhill street. He was ill only about 12 hours, and when last seen by his physicians he seemed better. Ten minutes before he died he conversed with his wife, and while she was absent getting some nourishment for him he breathed his last. He had appeared to be in his usual health, had attended to various social gatherings of the Grand Army, and his lodge and had marched in the parade on Memorial day. He attended church services every morning and evening the day previous, but complained of being chilly on Sunday evening after coming home from church.

Mr. Wilder was born in New Ipswich, N. H., Aug. 25, 1830. He was one of 10 children. In early life he moved to Ashburnham, Mass., and was married there to Miss Caroline E. Maynard. This union, which terminated last evening, had lasted 57 years. They had three children, two sons, Maynard Oliver and Wesley Morrill, of Lowell, and one daughter, Mrs. Charles Slater of Philadelphia. Mrs. Wilder, who continues in the business, with their mother, four grandchildren and one brother, Charles Wilder of Fitchburg, are left to sorrow for his departure.

Mr. Wilder came to Lowell 35 years ago and soon after entered the grain business in Western avenue. He was Wesley A. continues in the business, which he carried on for 25 years. Mr. Wilder was twice elected to the city council and once an alderman. He was a member of the G. A. R., Red Men, the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. He had been for many years a member of the Highland M. E. church. He was at the time of his death the president of the board of trustees and had been for ten years treasurer of the church. He was prominent in his attendance upon all of the services of the church.

He was a member of the common council in 1897 and 1898, and of the board of aldermen in 1899.

Burial will be in the family lot at Ashburnham.

THE GOVERNMENT

MAY RECOVER LAND VALUED AT $20,000,000

DENVER, Colo., June 7.—Through a decision handed down yesterday in the Yampa anthracite coal lands cases by Judge Lewis it is thought that the government may recover land worth $20,000,000. The judge held that although the lands, which the government is now seeking to recover through equity suits, were once involved in criminal cases, in which the defendants were discharged, the results of these trials do not enter into the present proceedings.

It is said that the government will file additional suits against a large number of Colorado corporations for the recovery of large tracts of coal lands.

BITTEN BY DOG

CHILD'S CRIES ATTRACTED ATTENTION OF PEOPLE

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 7.—Edward H. Aborn, the 6-year-old son of Hon. Michael B. Aborn, state senator of the 15th district, was severely bitten by a vicious dog on the doorsteps of his parents' home at 213 Silver street yesterday.

He was playing on the steps, it is claimed, when the dog came along and attacked him because the child waved a hand in greeting.

The savage animal tore the clothing of the child and lacerated the flesh. The child's cries attracted the attention of persons near by, who went to the boy's rescue and drove the dog away.

EXPULSION OF JEWS

KIEV, Russia, June 7.—Authentic figures have been obtained on the expulsion of Jews from Kiev. These show that 1421 individuals have been expelled up to June 5 and including that date. Of these 517 came under the ruling allowing them a short time in which to prepare for their departure without restriction, while 904 received passports good only over the route to their specified destination. Two hundred and eighty-eight persons who were originally ordered expelled, succeeded in proving their right to residence.

FRAUD IS CHARGED

Illinois Central Brings Suit Against Former Officials

CHICAGO, June 7.—Charging that it has been defrauded of about $2,000,000 on repair work in a period of four years the Illinois Central railroad company filed suit yesterday in the circuit court for an accounting against four of its former officers.

The railroad company's bill, which alleges conspiracy to defraud, names the following men, Orlando S. Keith, formerly superintendent of transportation; Joseph E. Baker, formerly assistant superintendent of machinery; William Renshaw, also formerly assistant superintendent of the machinery department; and John M. Taylor, formerly general storekeeper.

In connection with the charges the Illinois Central road declares in its bill that these concerns profited in al-

THE MILK WAR

Believed to be Practically Ended

BOSTON, June 7.—The "milk war" is practically at an end.

One of the largest milk contracting concerns in the city yesterday signed an agreement with representatives of the producers, and it is expected that the officers of the Milk Producing Farmers' association that another large company will agree to the demands of the producers today.

The contracting firm that yielded yesterday was H. P. Hood & Sons. The hood company agreed to pay the winter prices to the producers from July 1 to May 1. Because several days of the present month have already gone by, it was agreed the new scale of prices would not become operative until the first day of July, but instead the price paid by the contracting concern will be the same as last year.

Last night the hood company gave out the following statement:

"At a conference today between H. P. Hood & Sons and Dr. Davis of Canaan, N. H., Mr. Locke of Bar Mills, Me., Mr. Dean of Grafton, N. H., and Mr. McNally of Lancaster, N. H., representing the producers who furnish milk to the hood company on contract, a mutually satisfactory agreement was made. Last winter's price is to be paid for the ten months commencing July 1. The price for this month will be the same as paid for June last year. Cans will be sent out as soon as possible, and all producers are requested to resume shipments as soon as they can conveniently do so."

Secretary Hunter of the producers was jubilant over the prospects of a sudden ending of the controversy last night. He admitted that representatives of this association were in con-

NO REASON FOR PIMPLES

New Healing Agent Causes Them to Disappear

The dispensers of poslam, the new skin discovery, ask that notice be given that no one is urged to purchase it without first obtaining the sample package, which will be sent free to anyone who writes to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York. This is usually enough to clear the complexion and to rid the face of pimples. Everyone who has tried poslam knows that the 50c box, on sale at Falls & Burdick's, Carter & Sherburne's, and the Riker-Jaynes Drug Co., as well as all other drug stores, contains sufficient for the worst cases of eczema, where the surface affected is not too large. The itching ceases on first application. It will also cure acne, tetter, blotches, other forms of skin, including itching feet. Being flesh-colored and containing no grease, the presence of poslam on exposed surfaces, such as the face and hands, is not perceptible. Water and soap cannot be used in connection with it, as these irritate and prolong the troubles, sometimes even causing them.

MAN DISAPPEARED

Left Number of Jewels Behind Him

BOSTON, June 7.—Frederick J. Foster, 30 years old, a salesman representing a jewelry manufacturing company of Detroit in the eastern territory, disappeared on May 12 from the Parker house, where he had been a guest for three days.

It was stated unofficially yesterday that the matter was brought to the attention of the police by the management at the request of the mother of the missing salesman, Mrs. A. E. Foster of Summerville, N. J. She has not heard from her son for has met with foul play.

May 12 Foster left the Parker house. No alarm was felt when he did not return in the evening, but when a week elapsed it was decided to inspect his room. A clerk found Foster's sample cases containing jewelry valued, it is said, at at least $100,000 in the room. The property was shipped to Detroit. According to later information the theory revealed that there was no shortage and that the accounts of the missing man were correct.

Yesterday the police were told that Foster is 5 feet, 10 inches in height, weighs 165 pounds, is of dark complexion and has a dark mustache. The police lean to the theory of foul play. Foster, it is said, may have been waylaid by somebody who believed that he carried large sums of money and precious stones with him.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Frederic Desrosiers, president of Carillon council, Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amérique, and Miss Georgina Harrison were married yesterday morning at St. Joseph's church, where a nuptial mass was celebrated at 7 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Baron, O. M. I. The bride wore white silk, with pearl trimmings, and a tulle veil, and carried white carnations. She was attended by a cousin, Mr. Frank Gagnon. The bridegroom's witness was his uncle, Narcisse Asselin.

During the mass the choir of Notre-Dame de Lourdes sodality, of which the bride was a member, sang appropriate hymns. Joseph A. Bernier played the organ.

After the mass a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Joseph Desrosiers, 308 Aiken street. At 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Desrosiers left on a trip to Springfield, Chicago Falls, Holyoke and Salem, upon their return Saturday night a reception will be given at the home of the bridegroom's mother, 308 Aiken street. Mr. and Mrs. Desrosiers will live at 171 Hall street.

BULFINCH-PARKER

Mr. Henry M. Bulfinch and Miss Ethel E. Parker, both of this city, were married last evening by Rev. R. Morris of the Paige Street Free Baptist church, at his home. Mr. and Mrs. Bulfinch will make their home in Lowell.

Was Awarded to Springfield Firm

NASHUA, N. H., June 7.—The contract for the building of the reinforced concrete bridge over the Merrimack river between Nashua and Hudson was awarded to the Fred T. Lee company of Springfield, Mass., last night. It was immediately signed by M. W. Denman, a representative of the company, and members of the bridge-committee representing Nashua and Hudson.

The work of building the bridge will begin June 10, and is expected to cover 120 working days. The cost of the structure will be $74,450. The bids were as follows: The Ferro concrete company of Harrisburg, Pa., $81,000; the bridge to be completed Nov. 15; the Oswego company of Oswego, N. Y., $75,200; the bridge to be finished in five months, and Connors Bros. of Lowell, $102,160. The bridge to be finished in six months. These were other stipulations in the Connors Bros. bid outside of the specification which if adopted would reduce their bid $11,500.

Plans for inspection and testing were made by the joint committee.

THE RAILROAD

Have Agreed to Withdraw Tariffs

WASHINGTON, June 7.—After a conference lasting four hours President Taft and the representatives of twenty-four enjoined western railroads reached an agreement late yesterday afternoon whereby the government is to withdraw its rate increase injunction suits against these roads, and the roads, pending the passage of the new railroad law, agree to withdraw the tariffs recently filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The conference really resulted in trade between the president and the attorney general, on the one hand, and the western railroads on the other, the assumption being that the new rate bill will become law and that under it the Interstate Commerce commission will have power to determine the reasonableness of the increases the roads have endeavored to put into effect.

SERIOUS INJURY

RUSSELL SHAW VICTIM OF A PECULIAR ACCIDENT

BOSTON, June 7.—Russell Shaw, of Jamaica Plain, employed as a driver by the S. S. Pierce company in Brookline, was the victim of a peculiar accident, while driving his wagon on Kennard road, Brookline, early yesterday morning. He is at the Massachusetts General hospital in a critical condition.

The covered top of Shaw's wagon caught in a branch of a large tree opposite the home of H. W. Ogden. The strain on the wagon snapped the key bolt on the front axle and the front wheels parted from the wagon. Shaw was dragged forward and fell under one of the wheels.

Three of his ribs were fractured and he also suffered other serious internal injuries. His head and hands were badly cut. The injured man was found unconscious in the road. Dr. H. Lincoln Chase was called and ordered Shaw taken to the hospital.

The horse kept going and was found later blithely to the shafts and front wheels.

The injured man is married and formerly lived in Brookline.

WOMAN SUES FOR ALLEGED BREACH OF PROMISE

WORCESTER, June 7.—There will be no wedding bells today for Miss Mary Desgens of Fitchburg, and as a result she has brought suit to recover $500 for alleged breach of promise from Arsene Giguere of Gardner. The action was brought in the superior court yesterday after an attachment had been made on the property of the defendant.

It is alleged by Miss Desgens they were to be married on June 7 and that plans had progressed so far that their banns of marriage had been published once in her home church, but for some reason unknown to her Giguere stopped further plans and refused to marry her.

WAS FINED $5000

Woman Was Convicted of Smuggling

TRENTON, N. J., June 7.—A fine of $5000 was imposed yesterday by Judge Reitelst in the United States court, on Mrs. Marilla M. Chesbrough, wife of a wealthy Boston ship owner, who was recently convicted of trying to smuggle personal property into this country. Counsel for Mrs. Chesbrough announced that an appeal would be taken to the United States circuit court of appeals.

Mrs. Fremont R. Chesbrough, whose husband is a millionaire steamship owner, has lived in Newton for the last two years, coming from England, Mich., where Mr. Chesbrough has large lumber and real estate interests. Two years ago he brought two of his freight and ore steamers down the St. Lawrence to Boston from the Great Lakes, after larger vessels had captured the trade. He owns the town of Emerson and the lands for 30 miles along the Saguenay river, which is the scene of Hiawatha's hunting in Longfellow's poem. In his lumber mill 150,000 feet of lumber is cut in a day.

Their daughter, Elsie Noe Chesbrough, was married last summer to William Austin of Detroit.

First "Fourth of July" Victim

NEW YORK, June 6.—The victim of the first "Fourth of July" accident in Greater New York and of the form of celebration which Mayor Gagner wants to do away with, is Frank Knapp, 18 years old, of Brooklyn.

About 10 days ago young Knapp came home in the afternoon and found the children of several neighbors with firecrackers. He was told that they were "celebrating the Fourth." To let the youngsters hear more noise Frank went into the house, got a pistol and loaded it with blank cartridges. He fired until he thought all the chambers were empty. He pulled the trigger to show a boy how it worked.

Instead of a click there was an explosion, and Knapp was burned on the right thigh. The burn stung, but he paid little attention to it. Several days afterward, however, it began to pain him and he applied a home remedy. Yesterday the wound became so painful that his parents said he must get hospital treatment.

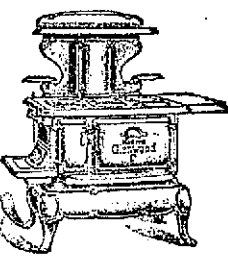

He started to say something and found he could not move his legs. They were locked. The father took him to the Brooklyn hospital, where it was found he had tetanus. It was said he would die.

LIVINGSTON PARK

Appropriations Committee Would Buy It

FOR PARK AND PLAYGROUND PURPOSES

Committee Refused Special Appropriation For Bill Owed For Feeble Mind—New Pump Matter Goes Back to Water Board

The committee on appropriations met at city hall last night and voted to recommend the purchase of the Livingston land in the Highlands for park purposes, the purchase price being $12,000.

The committee refused to recommend a special appropriation for the payment of the bill owed for feeble minded—New Pump Matter Goes Back to Water Board.

The question of a new pump for the Centerville pumping station as requested by the water board was taken up. The committee had asked an opinion from the city solicitor relative to this matter and the opinion was read. On motion of Alderman Dexter it was voted to refer the opinion to the water board with the recommendation that the board get plans, specifications and bids on the new pump.

The committee will forward a communication to the city council in which it will be stated that when appropriations were fixed early in the year the committee on appropriations had in mind the bill for $12,000 in favor of the Massachusetts School for the Feeble Minded, and that the amount recommended for the charity department, $75,000, was intended to include the bill in question.

The committee, with the exception of Councilman Flanagan, voted the following recommendation to the city council:

Your committee would respectfully report that in its opinion the appropriation given early in the year is ample to pay all proper expenses for this year, as well as the bill in favor of the Massachusetts School for the Feeble Minded.

The Park Land

The proposed purchase of the Livingston land in upper Middlesex street for park purposes was next in order. Chairman Gray reported that the purchase price, $12,000, is about the same as it was last year. All of the members, with the exception of Councilman Flanagan, favored the purchase, and on a vote Councilman Flanagan was the only dissenter. The latter allowed that it was too much to pay for the land, and argued that it might be bought at a lower price.

After considering the fact that it would require a two-thirds vote of the city government to pass a special loan order for the amount named, the committee recommended that it be taken from the general treasury fund, which needs only a majority vote. Councilman Flanagan voted against the proposition. Adjourned at 8:45.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE BOOK-A-MONTH CLUB HELD LAST NIGHT

The annual meeting of the Book-a-Month club was held last night at the home of Mrs. J. Clark Glidden, 1239 Middlesex street. Mrs. Wm. H. Kezer presided, and during the early part of the meeting considerable routine business was transacted.

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. J. Clark Glidden; vice president, Mrs. Wm. H. Kezer; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. John J. Hibbs. The new president appointed the following committees: Program, Mrs. Wesley M. Wilder, Mrs. Rodrigue Mignault, Miss Ella Carlton; entertainment, Mrs. Charles Abney, Mrs. Wm. E. Kezer, Miss Sadie Jardine; current events, Mrs. Merton N. Glidden; flowers, Mrs. Wm. A. Markee. A feature of the evening was the presentation to the retiring president, Mrs. Kezer, of a book of poems from the women present.

The evening was then spent pleasantly with an indoor picnic and games. After a vote of thanks to the hostess, the club adjourned until fall when the subject to be studied will be Mexico and lower California. The subject of lace and precious gems will also be on the list.

BOSTON, June 7.—After waiting more than a year the 800 creditors of Sederquist, Barry & Co., bankrupt stock-brokers of this city, were informed today that there was scarcely more than a few dollars to meet the claims amounting to over $600,000. A special

TAKEN FROM JURY

Case of Adeline Comstock vs. William E. Livingston

Relatives and Neighbors Tell of Mrs. Livingston's Plight When She Signed Release on Note of $10,000 in Case Against Wm. E. Livingston in Superior Court

The second day's hearing of the case of Adeline Comstock, executrix, vs. William E. Livingston was taken up for the most part with testimony of women who were intimate with the late Mrs. H. Elizabeth Livingston and who had heard from her of her financial relations with the defendant.

The suit was brought by Mrs. Comstock as executrix of the will of Mrs. Livingston, to recover on a promissory note which was a part of the estate of Hannah Elizabeth, widow of Daniel Livingston, and constituting a part of the property left her by her husband, Daniel Livingston, whose second wife she was.

The defense in this case puts in a release signed by Mrs. Elizabeth Livingston, and by Maud A. Comstock as witness, given in consideration of one dollar.

The signature to the note and the release are admitted to be genuine.

The promissory note is for $10,000, and is payable to the order of the testatrix, H. Elizabeth Livingston. It is signed by Wm. E. Livingston.

The release is dated Aug. 30, 1905, and Mrs. H. Elizabeth Livingston died in 1906.

The defense claims that Mrs. Livingston stood in relations of trust and confidence with the defendant, Wm. E. Livingston; that the situation was such as to subject her to easy influence from him; that at the time the release was obtained Mrs. Livingston was in a weak and enfeebled condition of body and mind, and was not in a condition to appreciate what she was doing. That Mrs. Livingston's entire source of income was from the payment of interest on this note, and that when the interest stopped—in October, 1903—to a certain extent she was dependent upon the bounty of the defendant, Wm. E. Livingston, and was therefore in a dependent condition.

Also, that the defendant, Mr. Livingston, having met with reverses in business, represented to her that he had obtained releases from all of his creditors except herself and one other; that in order to make the other releases valid and binding, it was necessary to have her release; and that that statement was not true, because each release was an individual release; and was valid and binding whether anybody else signed or not.

Wm. E. Livingston was the principal witness yesterday and he testified in detail his business connections with Mrs. Livingston relative to the note and the subsequent release.

Mr. Livingston said that interest stopped on the note because he had no money. The coal company ceased busi-

Severe Earth Shock Felt in Central Campania Today

NAPLES, June 7.—A severe earth shock caused a number of deaths and much property damage in Central Campania early today. The disturbance appears to have centered in the province of Avellino.

Telegraph wires were torn down and communication with the affected district was broken. Meagre reports received this forenoon indicate that the greatest damage was called at Calitri in the province of Avellino.

Calitri is said to have been half destroyed and 20 people to have been killed there.

Other deaths occurred at Vainita, nearby, and it is feared that fatalities will be reported from other villages which for a time were cut off from communication with this.

The shock occurred early this morning while the people were still in their beds. Many houses at Calitri tumbled, burying the occupants in the ruins.

People fled terror stricken from their homes and into the country. None waited to don street clothes and as a result many subsequently suffered from exposure.

Troops were dispatched from all quarters into the affected district as soon as the loss of life and property damage became known to the government and the officials of nearby cities.

The shocks were felt here but no damage was done in this immediate vicinity.

News from Salerno, at the head of the gulf of Salerno, 30 miles southeast of Naples, is to the effect that the shock was distinct there and caused considerable damage. Details are lacking.

The shock was felt for ten seconds in the province of Avellino. It also was felt strongly but for a shorter period at Cozensa, Paola, Calanzaro, Reggio, Potenza, Benevento, Capua and Melit. It is said, however, that the damage in these towns was not serious and there was no loss of life.

The shock was also felt in the departments of Basilicata, Calabria and Sicily. It centered in that province of Avellino in Campania, but extended throughout the provinces of Benevento, Campobasso, Caserta and Naples.

A panic was created at Torre Annunziata and Torre del Greco, where the population lived in constant fear of an eruption from Mount Vesuvius.

Reports from Basilicata say that the shock was felt severely at Potenza. Similar reports come from Paola and Catanzaro in the department of Calabria and from Palermo of the northern coast of Sicily.

PRESIDENT TAFT

Sent a Special Message on Railroad Bill to Congress Today

WASHINGTON, June 7.—President Taft today sent a special message to congress in which he recommended that the clause in the new railroad bill which gives the interstate commerce commission power to investigate and suspend increased rates filed by the railroads be modified so as to take effect immediately upon the signing of the act.

As it stands in the bill the provision would not take effect for sixty days.

The president bases his request upon the agreement he reached with the railroads on yesterday whereby he agreed to withdraw all increased rates until the new law is signed.

Following is the president's message:

A recent effort for a large number of railroad companies to increase rates for inter-state transportation of persons and property caused me to direct the attorney-general to bring a suit and secure from the United States court in Missouri an injunction restraining the operation of such increased rates during the pendency of the proceeding. This action led to a conference with the representatives of the railroad companies so enjoined and the agreement by each of them to withdraw the proposed increases of rates effective on or after June 1 and not to file any further attempted increases until after the enactment into law of the pending bill to amend the law of the interstate commerce act or the adjournment of the congress; with the further understanding that upon the enactment of such law each would submit to the determination of the interstate commerce commission the question of the reasonableness of all increases that each might thereafter propose.

"It is now hoped that all of the other railroad companies will take like action. In order, however, that each may have the benefit of a speedy determination of the question whether or not its proposed increases in rates are justified, I therefore recommend that this latter provision be modified by providing that at least section 9 of the senate amendment to the bill, which is the section authorizing the commission to suspend the going into effect of increases in rates until after due investigation, shall take effect immediately upon the passage of the act."

(Signed) "William H. Taft."

The White House, June 7, 1910.

Following the reading of the senate amendments Rep. Denroff made a motion that the house concur in the amendments with an amendment to section 9, making its provisions operative upon approval of the bill by the president. Two hours were allotted for debate on the motion.

able provision should be made by congress to vest the interstate commerce commission with jurisdiction over such questions as soon as possible.

"In the senate amendment to section 15 of the act to regulate commerce contained in H. R. 17,535 the interstate commerce committee is empowered immediately upon the filing of a proposed increase in rates of its own motion, or upon complaint, to enter upon an investigation and determination of the justice and reasonableness of such increases, and, in case it deems it expedient to suspend the operation thereof for a period specified in the section to enable it to complete such investigation. That bill, however, provides that the act shall take effect and be in force only from and after the expiration of sixty days after its passage.

"This provision, if allowed to remain in the bill, would enable carriers, between the time of enactment of the bill and the time of its taking effect, to file increases in rates which would become effective at the expiration of thirty days and remain in effect and be collected from the public during the pendency of proceedings to review them, whereas if the bill be made to take effect immediately such investigation will have to be made before the public is called upon to pay the increased rate." constantly about her money.

Mrs. M. Alice Cox, stenographer in Mr. Bent's office, testified to Mrs. Livingston's statement of her case in Mr. Bent's office. Mrs. Livingston told her, she said, that Mr. Livingston said he did not wish to drag the name in the mud, and that he wanted her to sign the release because if she did not the other releases would go into him no good and that she only could get her money was to sign the release. Also that Mr. Livingston told her that he did not care about the debts he had contracted in his business, but it was his debts of honor he

LOCAL EAGLES

Conducted Initiation in Lawrence Last Night

City hall, Lawrence, was the scene of a big gathering of Eagles Monday night when the Lowell degree staff together with the aerle officers, conducted a class initiation of 132 candidates of Lawrence aerle 216. More than a hundred members of the Lowell aerle accompanied their officers and degree team and a large number of the Lawrence members were on hand, making the event one of the largest ever held in Lawrence circles of the Fraternity Order of Eagles.

It was the regular meeting night and for the first few moments the aerle was busy disposing of current affairs. Then the Lowell officers, Worthy President John H. Farrell, Worthy Past-President William Higgins and Worthy Vice President Joseph McGirr, together with the degree team under the leadership of Conductor John Ivers, took charge of the affair. The candidates were initiated through the first stages of initiation. The ritualistic and degree work was performed in a most capable manner by the Lowell brothers, making the initiation very impressive. The Lowell aerle 223 was accompanied by their own orchestra, under the leadership of John J. Hanlon, who made it lively by their stirring selections.

The degree work being finished the members were all seated and a refreshing lunch was served by Bro. William Ivers, assisted by an able corps of waitresses. The social hour which followed was featured by a splendid array of talent. Some of the entertainers were:

Songs, B. J. Keaveny; song, James J. Carney; duet, William Ivers and Joseph Blott; song, James J. Carney, Jr.; song, Walter Danforth; recitation, Dr. John T. Cahill. Several other members contributed songs and recitations at the request of President John Hannan, who acted in the capacity of toastmaster. After enjoying a most pleasant evening the meeting broke up, the Lowell delegation returning to this city in two special cars.

KILLED HIMSELF

Artist Broken in Health Committed Suicide

NEW YORK, June 7.—It became known today that Walter Fitch, well known as an artist, who died last night in a hospital in Greenport, L. I., had committed suicide. Fitch lived in Coxsack, Conn. His mother is a wealthy resident of Pasadena, Cal., and he has been visiting her for the last eight months, returning east only a short time ago. He had been in poor health for some time and went to Greenport for the summer. Yesterday he bought a revolver and shot himself, after leaving notes for his wife and mother, asking their forgiveness.

A LIVELY DISCUSSION

At the Session of Artisans Canadien-Francais Today

There was a lively discussion over the proposed increase in monthly tax which is paid for the support of the general court at this morning's session of the convention of the Artisans Canadien-Francais at C. M. A. C. hall and finally the proposed increase was rejected by a large majority.

At the opening of the morning session delegates who yesterday attended the annual convention of the Artisans of Maine and New Hampshire held in Nashua, N. H., presented themselves and gave a condensed report of the happenings at the session in the upriver city. Among those who were in attendance at the convention in Nashua yesterday and came here today were Henri Roy, general treasurer, Dr. J. A. Rouleau, both of Montreal; J. H. Blouin, of Maine, who is the director general of the United States, Alfred Portier, an organizer and several other delegates.

The greater portion of this morning's session was taken up in the discussion of the proposed increase in the monthly per capita tax for the support of the general court. At the present time each member is assessed ten cents a month to pay the expenses of the main body and mazzuch as the officials have found it necessary to stretch it was proposed that the assessment be increased to 15 cents. Several spoke in favor of the new departure but the majority of the speakers were opposed to it and when it came to a vote recommendation was Rouleau, both of Montreal; J. H. Blouin, of Maine, who is the director

PARR CAN RECOVER

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Attorney General Wicklesham has rendered a decision in which he holds that Richard Parr is entitled to recover from the government the amount of his claim for information given against the so-called sugar trust.

CHARGES AGAINST SEN. LORIMER

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Formal charges against Senator William Lorimer of Illinois were laid before the senate this afternoon by his colleague, Senator Callom. The proceeding was the presentation of a memorial by Clifford Barnes of Chicago, president of the Illinois Legislative Voters' league, embodying the charges of bribery of members of the Illinois legislature.

The memorial was read only in part and was referred without comment to the committee on privileges and elections.

EXPRESS RATES

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 7.—The proposed investigation of the rates and methods of the express companies of the country was endorsed by the Providence board of trade at its meeting today. The board pledged its support in the raising of funds to defray the expenses of bringing the matter before the inter-state commerce commission.

MATRIMONIAL

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at 25 Anne street last evening when Mr. Frank Archibald Robbins, the popular watchmaker at Harry Baynes' was united in marriage to Miss Mary Teresa Shanny. The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin and old lace. The gown of the bridemaid, Miss Lillian Shanny, was of old rose silk. Mr. John R. Leary was the best man. Many guests were present to wish the happy couple godspeed, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. Glendon of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Ryan of Ayr, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Staples of Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Robbins of Waltham and Miss May McGowan of Newton. Many beautiful and costly presents were received. The house ushers were Mr. John Shanny and Mr. Geo. Carpenter. Prof. Hibbard furnished the music. The bridal couple will spend their honeymoon at New York and Atlantic City and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 25 Anne street.

FUNERAL OF "O. HENRY"

CHICAGO, June 7.—Funeral services for William Sidney Porter, who under the name of "O. Henry" became known as one of the foremost short story writers in America, took place today in the Church of the Transfiguration (the Little Church Around the Corner), church several of his stories. The services were the funeral rites of the Episcopal church by the rector, the Rev. Dr. G. C. Houghton.

EX-PRES. ROOSEVELT

Was Given the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Law

OXFORD, Eng., June 7.—Former President Roosevelt was the guest of Oxford today. He delivered the Roman lecture at the university of Oxford and the university conferred upon him the honorary degree of doctor of civil law.

The lecture and the conferment constituted the big feature of the day, but it did not complete the program which was about as crowded as any that the distinguished American has undertaken in his European travels. Oxford was glad to see the former president and made the fact known. First there was a reception given by the mayor of the corporation at the town hall. The auditorium was filled to its limits and when the guest appeared the audience joined in singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

From the town hall Mr. Roosevelt made hurried visits to the leading colleges and to other places of historic interest. He was entertained at luncheon by the American club, leaving soon afterwards for the Sheldonian theatre for his lecture and the ceremonies that added a D. C. L. to the other honorary titles that had been bestowed upon him.

The Romanesque lecture at Oxford was named for George John Romanes who was born at Kingston, Canada, on May 20, 1848, and died at Oxford in 1894. He gained celebrity as a naturalist and Fullerian professor of zoology at the Royal Institute, Lord Curzon, chancellor of the university, presided at the exercises today.

Mr. Roosevelt's subject was "Biological analogies in history."

Mr. Roosevelt's voice failed him after a time and he was obliged to leave unread the later part of his lecture.

STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

DRESDEN, Saxony, June 7.—Lightning struck an infantry regiment that was marching into the German camp here today. A whole company was hurled to the ground. Three soldiers were killed outright and fifteen others were seriously injured.

REPUBLICAN FIGHT IN IOWA

DES MOINES, Ia., June 7.—While both democrats and republicans will nominate state tickets and congressional candidates at the primaries in Iowa today interest is centered almost solely in the factional strife between the so-called "standpaters" or "stalwarts" and the progressives of the republican party. At the head of the state ticket Governor Carroll is opposed by Warren Garst. Three candidates seek the democratic nomination—Stephen H. Basler of Waterloo, Edwin G. Coon of Ottumwa, and Claude R. Porter of Centerville.

FOLLOWING DR. COOK'S ROUTE

SEWARD, Alaska, June 7.—Word was received here yesterday from the Parker-Brown Mount McKinley expedition saying that the party reached Chulitna river, a tributary of the Sittina, May 30. The New York Herald-Portland Oregonian expedition reached Chulitna May 21. Both parties are following the route Dr. Cook claims to have taken. The snow in the hills is deep and the expeditions are being retarded by the lateness of the season.

ELEVATED ROAD AGREES

BOSTON, June 7.—The Boston Elevated railroad today bowed to the suggestion of the Boston finance commission and consented to a postponement for one year of the bill giving the company the right to acquire connecting lines. In the meantime the Boston transit commission and the railroad commissioners will consider the measure, especially with regard to the effect of the bill on losses of the two tunnels and the elevated road now operated by the company.

The bill had taken several readings in the senate with some opposition and today President Baneroff notified the committee on street railroads that although the bill had been before the legislature three years the company would assent to the suggestion of the finance commission and once more withdraw the bill.

RAILROAD MAN

SAYS THAT CONDITIONS LOOK BRIGHT NOW

CHICAGO, June 7.—The agreement reached between President Taft and the railroad presidents at Washington last night regarding rates on western roads will clear up conditions, according to statements by presidents of several big roads.

"The outlook now is decidedly optimistic," declared Darius Miller, president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy road. "It puts the rate question entirely up to the interstate commerce commission and does away with the legal investigation. Within a few weeks the commission should fix the new rate law and the entire matter. It seems to me that the president's action is the best that possibly could have been taken to safeguard the interests of both the railroads and the shippers. I am certain that the railroads will feel satisfied with the action."

Continued

CALITRI SUFFERED SERIOUSLY. ROME, June 7.—According to reports received by the government, Calitri, in the province of Avellino, suffered seriously from a succession of earthquakes that occurred early today. It is said that about 30 people were killed, but the number of those injured but surviving is not determined.

The shocks were also felt in Valera, where several houses fell and a number of people were injured. So far as known no one was killed there.

At San Sossio, another village of 2000 inhabitants, several houses fell and a number of people were injured, but so far as learned no deaths occurred.

As soon as news of the disaster was received here Premier Luzzatti ordered a concentration of the troops in the zone where the shocks were felt. The premier took personal direction of the work of rescue. He also sent the general inspector of health and a corps of medical men with ambulances to the scene.

The prefect of Avellino has sent an urgent message to the government asking for $2000 for immediate use.

Premier Luzzatti at once forwarded $10,000.

The minister of public works has left for the scene of the quake. He is accompanied by officials of his department.

The government has decided to ask parliament for an appropriation of $100,000 for immediate relief.

King Victor Emmanuel, accompanied by Queen Helena, left for Avellino on a special train this afternoon. They are expected to arrive for their use on board the train. Her majesty insisted upon going with the king instead of sending someone to represent her. The queen declared that her experience at Messina convinced her of the need of someone with authority who understood how to deal with such an emergency, and to give first aid.

SPREAD OVER SOUTHERN PART OF ITALY

NAPLES, June 7.—An earthquake of unusual intensity was experienced throughout southern Italy including the island of Sicily at 3:07 o'clock this morning. The extent of the damage had not been determined this afternoon, but it is believed that some thirty-seven people were killed and that property losses in certain districts will be heavy.

The shock appears to have spent its force chiefly in the province of Avellino in central Campania, east of Naples. The village of Calitri suffered the most. One report has it that half of the town was destroyed.

Fatalities are reported at San Sossio, Chianche, Castel Baronia and San Sele.

The disturbance disrupted telegraph communication generally in the provinces most affected and further details are awaited with apprehension.

The population of the various towns which felt the shock were thrown into a panic and the authorities had much difficulty in restoring order.

King Victor Emmanuel and Queen Helena, upon receiving word of the suffering, left hastily on a special train for the scene, and soldiers and medical corps were dispatched to render aid. It was announced early in the forenoon that the government had called upon parliament for an appropriation of $100,000 for use among the afflicted. The latest reports received up to early evening told of five deaths at San Sele, a village of the province of Avellino in the compartment of Fasciata.

POPE GAVE FUNDS FOR RELIEF OF THE EARTH-QUAKE SUFFERERS

ROME, June 7.—The pope was notified by a bishop of Avellino of the suffering of that province and at once forwarded funds for relief and a message stating that his prayers would be with the sufferers.

GREAT DAMAGE DONE

AVELLINO, Italy, June 7.—The province of Avellino bore the brunt of a severe earthquake that was felt throughout southern Italy shortly before dawn today. Fatalities occurred and much damage was done to property but up to noon it was impossible to determine the extent of the devastation. In this city little harm was done and the only death reported was that of an old man who died of fright. The population, however, was terror-stricken.

Reports from villages throughout the province are much more grave. Twenty people are reported killed at Calitri, which is said to have been badly damaged. The situation there is distressing.

Ten persons are said to have met death at San Sossio, where the sulphur waters, with which the district is rich, were released from the bounds by the disturbance and flooded the vicinity. From the district across the river to Chianche a house fell burying and killing an aged man.

One person was killed and several were injured at Castelbaronia. Calitri was badly damaged.

Squads of workmen together with detachments of soldiers were dispatched to this place to assist the suffering villagers.

It was in the darkest hour of the morning when the shock was felt here. The sleeping town was aroused by shaking walls, the rattling of furniture and the falling of plaster from the ceilings.

Paul seized the 20,000 inhabitants who live in daily fear of a seismic disaster.

Half naked men, women and children in terror. Recently there was assigned about a prediction that the approach of the world's coming would be the end of the world. The authorities kept their heads but they could not stay the mad rush for the squares and open districts outside the city.

The wildest confusion prevailed and the frightened ones could not be reasoned with. In the squares hundreds threw themselves upon their faces and implored the mercy of the Almighty. Some people went to the shrine of St. Andrew, the protector of the town. Others climbed to the sanctuary on Monte Vergine. The authorities finally succeeded in re-establishing a semblance of calm and relief squads were organized.

It was then found that no one had been killed, though one aged man had died during the excitement. Many houses were damaged as were the cellars of the churches. The inhabitants refused to re-enter their homes, fearing that another quake would occur.

Throughout the day the police were busy bringing to order the scattered members of families and reassuring the frightened ones. Word that the

FOUR PERSONS INJURED

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 7.—The curiosity of a boy helper in a High street plumbing shop to see what would happen when he applied a lighted match to a plug hole in a copper gasoline tank resulted in four persons being injured and every window in the shop being broken by the tank's explosion today. No one was fatally hurt.

THE RAILROAD BILL

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The railroad bill was taken up by the house soon after that body convened today. Chairman Mann of the committee on interstate commerce moved to non-concur in the senate amendments and to ask for a conference, the motion requiring unanimous consent. Representative Lenroot of Wisconsin, one of the republican insurgents, objected.

WANTS NEW RAILROAD

BOSTON, June 7.—Vice President Fitzhugh of the Grand Trunk railroad told the railroad commissioners today that the purpose of building the proposed railroad from Palmer to Providence was to link the manufacturing interests of New England with the west, the northwest and the Orient.

The railroad commissioners were asked to approve the petition for the railroad from Palmer to the Rhode Island line. Besides Vice President Fitzhugh there appeared in favor of the road, President George W. Wells of the American Optical Co., E. S. Stevens, C. L. Wade and M. F. Moore, representing various small towns along the line of the road in southern Massachusetts.

BOSTON HOLDING CO. BILL

BOSTON, June 7.—The bill permitting the Boston Holding Co. to issue preferred stock was given a third reading in the senate today without debate. The bill has one more reading in the senate before it reaches the house where it is expected to meet opposition as Rep. Washburn of Worcester, chairman of the committee on railroads which reported it, dissents from the report.

CONGREGATION OF RITES

ROME, June 7.—The congregation of rites met under the presidency of the pope today and discussed the matter of the beautification and canonization of Margherite Bourgeois of Marquette, Mich., the founder of the congregation of the Sisters of Our Lord.

King and queen were enroute here on a special train encouraged the people and had a good effect in restoring order.

THREE DISTINCT SHOCKS. SAN JOSE, Cal., June 7.—Three distinct earthquake shocks at a considerable distance west of California were recorded at the meteorological observatory of Santa Clara college yesterday about 6 p. m. The movement was vertical and rapid.

CONLEY-MORAN BOUT. LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Although Frank Conley, claimant of the bantam-weight championship, is looked upon as going out of his class in taking on Owen Moran, the difference in pounds between the two will not be very great when the two meet at Naud Junction tonight. They will weigh in at 121 pounds at 5 p. m. The fight will be for ten rounds to a newspaper decision.

LAWRENCE CLUB HAS SOLD CATCHER AINSMITH TO WASHINGTON

LAWRENCE, June 7.—A deal was consummated today whereby Catcher Edward Ainsmith of the Lawrence club of the New England league becomes the property of the Washington Americans. The purchase price was not stated. Ainsmith will not report to Washington until the close of the New England league season. As part of the deal, Pitcher Hovak of Washington will report to Lawrence tomorrow.

INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW. LONDON, June 7.—The second day of the international horse show drew a good attendance. The first American winner in the day's judging was Miss Lulu Long of Kansas City whose horse, The King, won second honors in class J for novice single light harness horses.

GENERAL BUTLER DEAD. LONDON, June 7.—General Sir William Francis Butler died today. He was born in 1828 and had a distinguished career, serving in Egypt and South Africa and on special missions to Canada. Sir William maintained his home at Bancha castle, Bancha, Tipperary, the place of his birth.

PRES. FELLOWS RESIGNS. BANGOR, Me., June 7.—President George Emory Fellows today presented his resignation to the trustees of the University of Maine. At their urgent request he will preside at the commencement exercises this week and will perform the usual duties of his office until the resignation has been acted upon.

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY. NORWICH, Conn., June 7.—The democrats won a complete victory here yesterday when they elected the entire ticket, headed by Charles F. Thayer for mayor. The majority for the mayor was 154, while the normal majority was 141. The retiring administration was republican.

JACK JOHNSON

Says He Does Not Need a Manager

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—Though Jack Johnson's managerial situation is in a chaotic state the negro champion seems to be trying diligently to reassure his followers that all is well. If Billy Nolan was really hired as Jack's manager to succeed George Little, as announced Sunday night then Nolan's tenure of office has established perhaps a record for brevity. Johnson stated emphatically last night that Nolan would not be his pilot. Here is Johnson's latest word on the matter.

"I am through with George Little and I don't need anyone else. At that I am friendly with Billy Nolan, but I don't see where he could help me at this stage of the game. My training is going on nicely and all my contracts in regard to the fight and the moving pictures have been signed. Billy Delaney will be with me in a few days and he will only have to do with my training."

But it is easy to see that the negro has been worrying and he said yesterday that since his trouble with Little he has lost more weight than he could have taken off by doubling his work. Johnson says that a few days ago he weighed 165 pounds and yesterday he tipped the beam at 210.

"I did not intend to be that low until much nearer the fight and I will have to scheme to take on a few more pounds."

WANT TO SEE CORBETT. BEN LOMOND, Cal., June 7.—Numerous visitors came to camp here yesterday, drawn by the announcement that James J. Corbett probably would put on fight suits for his first training tilt with Jim Jeffries.

Corbett removed his luggage from Santa Cruz to Ben Lomond last evening and he is expected to put in most of his time here from now on until the breaking of camp. With Jeffries and his party fishing on Monterey bay yesterday Corbett had the local stage all to himself and everybody left in camp gathered at the handball court to see the former champion work out.

PROF. SMITH VERY ILL. TORONTO, Ont., June 7.—The condition of Prof. Smith, who for many weeks has been encumbered by an illness resulting from a fall, is described by his physician as critical. Last night he experienced a serious relapse.

TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYERS. NEWPORT, R. I., June 7.—Torpedo boat destroyers Reid and Preston sailed today for the Norfolk navy yard where slight alterations will be made on board the craft. A little later the destroyers Smith, Lamson and Flusser in Narragansett bay for torpedo exercises.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY. PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 7.—Agostino Grovato, the Italian who was arrested last night charged with fatally stabbing a fellow countryman, Giuseppe Maria, was bound over to the grand jury when he appeared before Judge Simms in the police court today.

AT WHITE HOUSE

Railroad Men Assembled to Confer With the President

WASHINGTON, June 7.—Railroad men of prominence again were in evidence at the White House today where the final details of the arrangements between the government and the trunk lines regarding the freight rate problem were being negotiated. S. M. Pelton, president of the Chicago Great Western railroad, and P. A. Delane, president of the Wabash, who participated in the conference yesterday at which the agreement to withdraw the increased rates effective June 1 until after the new railroad bill becomes a law, was reached, spent half an hour with President Taft prior to the cabinet meeting this morning.

W. C. Brown, president of the New York Central railroad and James McCrea, president of the Pennsylvania, were present at a conference with President Taft and Attorney General Wickersham late this afternoon, at which it is understood they will ratify on behalf of the eastern and central trunk lines the agreement reached yesterday with the Western Trunk line association. President Taft and Delane left Washington early this afternoon for Chicago where they will report tomorrow to the Western Trunk line committee the results of their negotiations with President Taft. They said they thought there would be little difficulty about that in carrying out the details of the withdrawal of the new rates.

"There is nothing new or significant in the fact that the three roads mentioned filed simultaneous notices of increased freight rates. This has been their practice for years."

"The New York and Boston rates to Chicago are the same on all lines and the three New England roads were only following the precedent of many years standing in recently filing similar schedules with the interstate commerce commission."

GREATEST PARADE IN NORTH KOREA

EVER GIVEN BY A CIRCUS IN THIS CITY

On Friday, June 10 the Barnum and Bailey Great Show on Earth will present in this city something entirely different from what people are in the habit of seeing on circus day. They have devised something new in the way of pageantry. It was built last winter in the workshops of the show in England. It is three times as long as any seen in the past. It represents an expenditure of ten times as much money.

For the last two years the foreign agents of the show have been gathering novelties for this parade. They overlooked nothing that they could buy, unless it was too big to ship by boat. They invaded savage islands, their expeditions extended into jungles where white men had never trod before. They stripped art galleries and ancient palaces. They stopped at nothing. They spared no expense. The fruit of their labors cannot be pressed in words. It is a sight for the eyes.

Naturally enough this parade bears not the slightest resemblance to those of the past. It exceeds anything before attempted in beauty. It is world-wide in its variety. In novelty it is right up to the last tick of the clock. Every strange type of the human animal is found in it. Every animal recently discovered by science is displayed in the open cage. It is a world's fair on wheels with a thousand wonders in every mile of it. Constantly passing before the eyes are the crude vehicles of savagery, the howdahs, rickshaws, palanquins and chariots of Orientals, the fantastic floats of bronze and burnished gold, eagles of war, grotesque images of the pagan, Italian statuary, mythological spectacles, horse fairs, fairyland carnivals, brass bands, barbarian orchestras, tom-tom bands, weird pipers, silver chimas, cathedral organs, organ pipes, chimes, derisive, grotesque ballets, kermis scenes, fete-day tableaux and mardi-gras pageantry.

TO INVESTIGATE MAN'S DEATH. ST. JOHN, N. B., June 7.—Because of mysterious circumstances attending the death last night at the general hospital here of Mrs. Emma Hooper of Watertown, Mass., Coroner D. E. Berryman is conducting an investigation. Mrs. Hooper had been in the hospital since June 2. Previous to that time she had been visiting her mother in Prince Edward islands and was on her way to Watertown when taken ill on the train when nearing St. John on the evening of June 1. The woman went to a local hotel where, it is said, she registered under an assumed name. The next morning she was found in her room apparently in a stupor. She was removed to the hospital.

A most mortifying examination of the woman's body was made today but the result was not disclosed.

Mrs. Hooper's husband arrived here last night.

ALLEGED BRIBERY CASE. CHICAGO, June 7.—Rep. Lee O'Neill, Brown, democratic leader, charged with bribing fellow legislators in the election of United States Senator Lorimer, republican, was today refused freedom on a state writ of habeas corpus. Judge Kilkham Scanlan denied a plea that only a federal tribunal has power to try such a case.

Mrs. Hooper's husband arrived here last night.

GOING TO CHICAGO. WASHINGTON, June 7.—Secretary of the Treasury MacVeagh expects to visit Washington tomorrow for a short time to Chicago on private business.

MILK CONTRACTORS WILL ACCEDE TO DEMANDS OF PRODUCERS. BOSTON, June 7.—The milk war which has been waged against Boston milk contractors by New England producers for the past several weeks has been settled satisfactorily, according to statements given out today by the representatives of the Producers association who have had charge of the situation recently. Following the signing of the agreement by one of the largest contractors in the city yesterday several other big contracting concerns were visited today by the committee. As a result it is expected that these firms will fall into line and accede to the demands of the producers that they receive winter prices from July 1 until May 1. Secretary W. A. Hunt of the Producers Association today stated that the strike is practically over and that the producers had won a victory although the final agreement was in the nature of a compromise.

ANTI-OPTION BILL. WASHINGTON, June 7.—A resolution offered by Rep. Underwood, Ala., providing that the house should take up the Scott anti-option bill on June 10, was rejected today by the rules committee of the house. The vote was strictly on party lines, the republicans voting against the resolution.

FUNERALS. JANACIEWSKA.—The funeral of Mary Janaciewska took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Saraf Janaciewski, and was very largely attended by relatives and friends. The funeral cortege proceeded to the Catholic cemetery, where the burial took place in the family vault. The funeral arrangements and burial were under the direction of Undertaker John A. Finnegan.

CARD OF THANKS. We, the undersigned, take this means of expressing our sincere thanks to our relatives, friends and neighbors for the many acts of kindness and beautiful floral offerings on the death of our beloved daughter and sister, Miss Margaret Bradley. Their kindness will always be remembered with gratitude.

Underwood, Ala., providing that the house should take up the Scott anti-option bill on June 10, was rejected today by the rules committee of the house. The vote was strictly on party lines, the republicans voting against the resolution.

6 O'CLOCK SALEM ALDERMEN

Allege Mayor Howard Violated Dignity of Office

SALEM, June 7.—For "violating the dignity of his office," Mayor Arthur D. Howard of Salem was censured last night in a resolution passed by the board of aldermen. Inspector Patrick J. Lehen of the Salem police, over whom the trouble arose, was also censured by the board.

Mayor Howard, in a communication to the aldermen last night, recommended that Inspector Lehen be discharged for "insubordination." At a hearing, May 31, Inspector Lehen publicly demanded that the mayor apologize for having, as he alleged, applied to him an uncomplimentary epithet at a previous hearing. The mayor's recommendation for the inspector's dismissal is believed to have grown out of this incident. Lehen was a witness against the mayor at one of the latter's hearings on charges of criminal libel. The mayor, who is now under indictment in these cases, will probably be tried early next week.

Mayor Howard was elected last year after he had been a resident of the city but a short time. Ever since he took office he has been in financial difficulties, his entire salary for seven months he has served having been either attached or assigned, so that he has really received so far not a cent in salary. Although sometimes referred to as the "Boy Mayor," he is 41 years old.

The mayor last night denied that he had used the epithet charged by Lehen. He added: "No gentleman ever uses such a word, and I am always a gentleman."

THE LOWELL SUN

JOHN H. HARRINGTON, Proprietor

SUN BUILDING, MERRIMACK SQUARE, LOWELL, MASS.

Member of the Associated Press

THREE DOLLARS PER YEAR. TWENTY-FIVE CENTS PER MONTH

The sworn daily average circulation of The Lowell Sun for the year 1909 was

Sworn to by John H. Harrington, proprietor, Martin H. Reidy, business manager, and Alfred Pilotte, pressman, of The Sun, before me, January 1, 1910. J. JOSEPH HENNESSY, Notary Public.

This is by far the largest average circulation of any newspaper in Lowell.

For the working men with large families the high prices present problems most difficult of solution. Wages have not kept pace with the rapid advance in prices and employment has been none too steady. It is not strange, therefore, to find a great many people on the point of destitution although dragging along as best they can by relying wholly upon their own efforts.

VACATIONAL AUTO TRIPS

With the multiplication of automobiles a great many people who formerly closed up their homes and went to the beach or the mountains for a vacation will now be satisfied with occasional trips from their homes to points ten to fifty miles distant, making their longest stay from Saturday afternoon till Monday morning. The long line of automobiles seen at every respectable summer resort for the week end is proof of this. The summer hotel this year will appear to be the centre of a great auto show. We presume there will be little change in this respect until the auto is supplanted by the aeroplane.

TRANSMUTATION OF METALS

So many and such wonderful inventions and discoveries have been announced of late, that not even the skilled scientist can venture to question the announcement of anything new or strange, such for example as the proposition of Dr. F. W. Lange of Scranton, Pa., by which he says he can expand eight ounces of silver into sixteen ounces of a metal that cannot be distinguished from silver. Of course anybody who could do such a thing could easily make an independent fortune. Let us hope his scheme will not prove to be a complete fake as was that of a certain Mr. Jernegan some time ago when he convinced some people that he could extract gold from sea water. Nature has secrets which will continue to be unfolded to a wondering world, and it would not be more strange to transform or transmute a metal than to do many other things which the alchemists have been doing for a long time.

WE CONGRATULATE LAWRENCE

Whatever may be said of the city of Lawrence from a political standpoint we are forced to admit that it is far ahead of Lowell in its efforts to check the white plague. Lawrence has a splendid hospital for consumptives almost ready for occupancy. It will be formally opened about the first of July. It is a magnificent structure specially designed to allow all possible benefit from air and sunshine. The general outline is in the form of the gothic letter E. It has a southern aspect, is of the latest style of sanitary construction and in every respect adapted to the work. We congratulate the city of Lawrence. Here in Lowell we have had a lot of talk about a contagious hospital, but nothing more than talk. We have also had much talk about a public hall, but the project has not yet passed beyond the hot air stage. Our city at present has no contagious hospital, no hospital for consumptives, no public hall, but we are living in hope.

OPPORTUNITIES IN FARMING

In spite of all the inquiries and investigations into the high cost of living the cost seems to continue to go upward. The people are wondering where, when or how this upward tendency will come to an end. It is good for the men who control great factories for turning out food products for the market or even clothing, for not only food but clothing also is higher priced perhaps than ever before. The people must take the matter into their own hands in a practical way. They can settle this question and settle it right by getting back to the land as the great source of wealth.

It is a fact that more men this year than ever before have endeavored to secure pieces of land in this part of the state for cultivation.

The matter is practical, easy and simple if undertaken with the right spirit. The farmers have an opportunity to make money such as they never had before in spite of the fact that what they have to buy costs higher than ever before. If they put more ground under cultivation, raise more potatoes, more grain, more vegetables for the market, more poultry, more cattle, more swine, there is no reason why they should not make good profits. The farmers know how to do all these things but the factory hand attempting to enter farming is handicapped by lack of knowledge. The man who was a successful farmer in England, France, Germany or Russia may not be successful here, because the differences in soil and climate render entirely different methods necessary to secure success. The men who have been in the business are the leaders. They can succeed and make good profits on their products if they show skill and enterprise.

With beef soaring at such enormous prices, there is no reason why the New England farmers should not raise a large number of cattle for slaughter. The same may be said of hogs, and the hog products seem to cost even more in proportion to their comparative value than does beef.

Massachusetts is the state of small farms and the community will be benefited by increasing the number. There should not be a vacant farm in the state. The insistent demand for more producers of food has brought women into the arena with the prospect that they will become successful farmers. Farming as it is conducted today does not require the persistent toil of years ago. The improved machinery has rendered that unnecessary. As farming is conducted today a woman well versed in the art may make it a success as well as a man, provided she has the necessary capital to enable her to wait for results. The women will greatly aid in the back-to-the-land movement if they engage in it with resolution. Women are better adapted to run poultry farms and conduct dairies where cleanliness is a consideration than are men.

It is an omen of success in a movement that means much for the people to see the women taking a keen interest in the movement to combat the high cost of living and make the people more self-reliant and more self-supporting.

PEOPLE OF NOTE

Mrs. Margaret Stinson has just completed her 46th year of service at the Institute of Technology, Boston. She was appointed in 1865, by President Rogers to take charge of the chemical apparatus used by students. She is still in active service and is said to remember the names and personality of more men who have attended classes in the Institute of Technology than any other person connected with the institution.

Prof. Henry R. Lang of Yale has been made a corresponding member of the Royal Spanish academy of Galicia, a member of the Royal Geographical society of Lisbon, and has received from the Spanish government a silver medal commemorating the siege of Zaragoza. He is preparing a critical edition, with English version and literary comment, of the so-called Primer libro de Alexandre de Santillana (1440), the first history of the artistic poetry of Italy, France and Spain down to his time. Prof. Lang will soon publish also a study of the lyric poetry of Spain in the middle ages.

Emperor William is experiencing some inconvenience because of an eruption on the right hand caused by the bite of a mosquito. The court physicians state that there is no danger of serious consequences from the irritation which they expect will disappear within a few days. They have, however, opened and treated the affected part against the possible development of blood poisoning. For the time being his majesty has delegated the signing of state documents to Crown Prince Frederick William, and all urgent decrees will appear with the double signatures of the crown prince and the imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, preceded by the notation: "By order of the emperor." This is the first occasion during the reign of the emperor upon which the documents of state have received other than his majesty's autograph.

Canadian universities have sent many graduate students to the United States and also supplied many brilliant professors, but a unique instance of academic interchange has just occurred in the case of Mr. W. F. Thompson, graduating this year from the University of Toronto. This young man has been awarded for proficiency in science, the London exhibition scholarship of $1500—a considerable honor in British territories, and intended to make possible two years' study in any university in England or abroad. The winner elected instead to continue work in his chosen field of botany, under Professor E. C. Jeffrey of Harvard, and inquires had to be made by cable to learn if he could carry out his plan and still hold the scholarship. Possibly because Professor Jeffrey is so well and favorably known in England, permission was granted; and in this way the famous scholarship founded in connection with the great London exposition of 1861 comes for the first time to the United States and fittingly to America's oldest university.

DETROIT, Mich., June 7.—A private telegram received from Ann Arbor yesterday says that G. P. It is known that the university regents have been split for months over the question of a president.

SERIOUS CHARGE

IS MADE AGAINST SARDINE FACTORY EMPLOYEES

EASTPORT, Me., June 7.—U. S. Marshals Fred E. Stevens of Portland and William M. O'Leary of Washington have served summonses on a number of sardine factory employees as well as Canadian boatmen and weir owners to appear as witnesses. A number of weir owners from Perry were also included and there promises to be quite a delegation of sardine men at Bangor Wednesday when it is said the hearing will be held.

The cause is the alleged agreement between weir owners of the eastern Maine coast as well as at Deer Island and Charlotte county, N. B., with a Lubec company, for at present the set price of a hoghead of herring for use in the sardine industry is $12, while in August this price will drop to $6 for the balance of the canning season running to Dec. 1. It will come under the Sherman anti-trust act, it is said. The independent cannery claim that the agreement is a restraint of trade in the sardine business and a conspiracy against them.

The claim is made that some kind of an agreement has been reached between the cannery companies and the principal weir owners on both sides of the boundary, and by the agreement no herring can be secured by the independent cannery unless the fish should come in the two big companies cannot handle all that are caught. This is called a conspiracy by some of the cannery, and while the fish are unusually scarce there are not many hogheads coming to the independent packers. It is claimed, and these cannery are trying to have the alleged agreement broken so that everyone can get a share of the fish at the price asked, $12 a hoghead. "His agreed price was set by the weirman early in the spring, and was satisfactory to all the packers, for there was little chance to protect in the early spring when only a limited number of schools of fish get down this way."

It is stated that the weirman later called on the two big companies and offered to give them preference on all the herring caught up to August, at $12 per hoghead provided these companies would not buy them when the price dropped to $6 a hoghead.

OLIVER D. WILDER

Ex-Aldermen Died Suddenly Last Evening

Ex-Alderman Oliver Darwin Wilder died suddenly last evening at 7 o'clock at his late home, 6 Coral street.

He was 31 only about 12 hours, and when last seen by his physicians he seemed better. Ten minutes before he died he conversed with his wife, and while she was absent getting some nourishment for him he breathed his last. He had appeared to be in his usual health, had attended to various social gatherings of the Grand Army, and his lodge and had marched in the parade on Memorial day. He attended church service both morning and evening the day previous, but complained of being chilly on Sunday evening after coming home from church.

Mr. Wilder was born in New Ipswich, N. H., Aug. 25, 1830. He was one of 8 children. In early life he moved to Ashburnham, Mass., and was married there to Miss Caroline E. Maynard. This union, which terminated last evening, had lasted 37 years. They had three children, two sons, Maynard Oliver and Wesley Morrill, of Lowell, and one daughter, Mrs. Charles Slater of Philadelphia. These with their mother, four grandchildren and one brother, Charles Wilder of Pittsfield, are left to sorrow for his departure.

Mr. Wilder came to Lowell 33 years ago and soon after entered the grain business in Western avenue. His son, Wesley M., continues in that business, which he carried on for 25 years. Mr. Wilder was twice elected to the city council and once an alderman. He was a member of the G. A. R., Red Men, the Odd Fellows and Knights of Pythias. He had been for many years a member of the Highland M. E. church. He was at the time of his death the president of the board of trustees and had been for ten years treasurer of the church. He was prominent in his attendance upon all of the services of the church.

He was a member of the common council in 1897 and 1898, and of the board of aldermen in 1899.

Burial will be in the family lot at Ashburnham.

THE GOVERNMENT

$20,000,000

DENVER, Colo., June 7.—Through a decision handed down yesterday in the Yampa anthracite coal lands cases by Judge Lewis it is thought that the government may recover lands worth $20,000,000. The judge held that although the lands, which the government is now seeking to recover through equity suits, were once involved in criminal cases, in which the defendants were discharged, the results of these trials do not enter into the present proceedings.

It is said that the government will file additional suits against a large number of Colorado corporations for the recovery of large tracts of coal lands.

BITTEN BY DOG

CHILD'S CRIES ATTRACTED ATTENTION OF PEOPLE

MANCHESTER, N. H., June 7.—Edward H. Aborn, the 6-year-old son of Hon. Michael E. Aborn, state senator of the 15th district, was severely bitten by a vicious dog on the doorstep of his parents' home at 213 Silver street yesterday.

He was playing on the steps, it is claimed, when the dog came along and attacked him because the child waved a hand in greeting. The savage animal tore the clothing of the child and lacerated the flesh. The child's cries attracted the attention of persons near by, who went to the boy's rescue and drove the dog away.

EXPULSION OF JEWS

KIEV, Russia, June 7.—Authentic figures have been obtained on the expulsion of Jews from Kiev. These show that 1421 individuals have been expelled up to June 5 and including that date. Of these 517 came under the ruling allowing them a short time in which to prepare for their departure without restriction, while 904 remained in their specified destination. Two hundred and eighty-eight persons who were originally ordered expelled, succeeded in proving their right to residence.

FRAUD IS CHARGED

Illinois Central Brings Suit Against Former Officials

CHICAGO, June 7.—Charging that it has been defrauded of about $2,000,000 on repair work in a period of four years the Illinois Central railroad company filed suit yesterday in the circuit court for an accounting against four of its former officers.

The railroad company's bill, which alleges conspiracy to defraud, names the following men: Orlando S. Keith, formerly superintendent of transportation; Joseph E. Baker, formerly assistant superintendent of machinery; William Renshaw, also formerly assistant superintendent of the machinery department; and John M. Taylor, formerly general storekeeper.

In connection with the charges the Illinois Central road declares in its bill that these concerns profited in illeged overcharges on car repair work in the following amounts: The Blue Island Equipment company, $400,000; American Car & Equipment company, $100,000; Aosterman Manufacturing company, $750,000; Memphis Car company, $300,000, and the International Car company.

In addition to the suit filed against the four former officers the railroad also filed suits for an accounting against the West Fullmar Car company and against the American Car Equipment company.

The filing of the suits follows an investigation by the railroad company and numerous rumors of an alleged graft "ring" in the Illinois Central railroad. High officers of the road have stoutly denied that any trouble of this character existed.

THE MILK WAR

Believed to be Practically Ended

BOSTON, June 7.—The "milk war" is practically at an end.

One of the largest milk contracting concerns in the city yesterday signed an agreement with representatives of the producers, and it is expected by the officers of the Milk Producing Farmers association that another large company will agree to the demands of the producers today.

The contracting firm that yielded yesterday was H. P. Hood & Sons. The Hood company agreed to pay the winter prices to the producers from July 1 to May 1. Because several days of the present month have already gone by, it was agreed the new scale of prices would not become operative until the first day of July, but instead the price paid by the contracting concern will be the same as last year.

Last night the Hood company gave out the following statement:

"At a conference today between H. P. Hood & Sons and Dr. Davis of Canaan, N. H., Mr. Locke of Bar Mills, Me., Mr. Dean of Gratton, N. H., and Mr. McNally of Lancaster, N. H., representing the producers who furnish milk to the Hood company on contract, a mutually satisfactory agreement was made. Last winter's price is to be paid for the ten months commencing July 1. The price for this month will be the same as paid for June last year. Cans will be sent out as soon as possible, and all producers are requested to resume shipments as soon as they can conveniently do so."

Secretary Hunter of the producers was jubilant over the prospects of a sudden ending of the controversy last night. He admitted that representatives of this association were in consultation with representatives of the suitation with representatives of D. Whiting & Sons, the other big milk contracting concern in Boston, operating the C. Brigham company and the Elm Farm, and D. Whiting & Sons companies. According to Mr. Hunter, the difference between the producers and the Whiting company will probably be amicably settled today or tomorrow, after the contractors have had time to consider the propositions advanced.

ELOPING COUPLE

Were Wed Legally at Bayonne, N. J.

BOSTON, June 7.—The sensational Tarbox-Devine elopement has adjusted itself for the former married man and his wife. On June 3 of last year the conal dealer deserted his wife of seven months for a 19-year-old Dorchester girl, who had been in his employ, and whether it was a coincidence, or the intention of the parties, Gertrude M. Devine and Bernard L. Tarbox, just one year to the day from their elopement, were legally married in Bayonne, N. J.

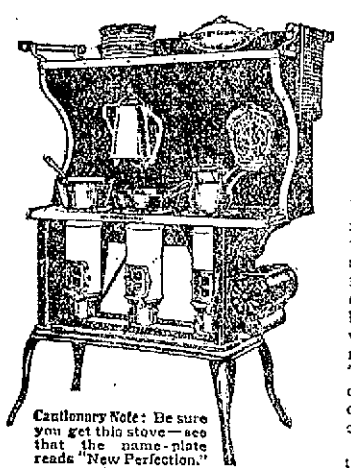

It is the second time that Miss Devine and Tarbox have been married, for on June 3, the day they left Boston, the pair had a ceremony performed by Rev. Hugh P. Hughes of the Globe Congregational church, in Woonsocket, R. I. That marriage, however, was a bigamous one on the part of Tarbox.

At first credence could hardly be given to the dispatches from the Rhode Island city, for it was less than seven months before that Tarbox had married Miss Blanche P. Matthews at Bath, Me., and he and his bride went to live in the Bradford court apartment at Newton Centre.

Think of Last Summer--

You can remember days when the heat inside your kitchen was so great you could hardly bear it. With the right stove you would have made a better hostess. Save your health. Don't put up with the drudgery of a coal range. You can have a clean, cool, pleasant kitchen. The does away with all drudgery of cooking. Why should you be a slave to a coal range when you can have an Oil Cook-Stove that is cheaper than coal, cleaner than coal, doesn't "smell," doesn't smoke, lights instantly, can be put out instantly, leaves no ashes, and doesn't heat the kitchen. With one of these stoves you can boil, bake or roast the most elaborate dinner. You can change from a slow to a quick fire, or the other way about, by simply turning a wick. Apply a match, and instantly the heat from an intense blue flame shoots upward through the turquoise-blue enamel chimneys to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven—but nowhere else. The stove has every convenience that can be thought of: Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping food and dishes hot, drop shelves to hold coffee or teapots, towel rack; in fact every convenience possible.

The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive.

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

New Healing Agent Causes Them to Disappear

The dispensers of posium, the new skin discovery, ask that notice be given that no one is urged to purchase it without first obtaining the sample package, which will be sent free to anyone who writes to the Emergency Laboratories, 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York. This is usually enough to clear the complexion and to rid the face of pimples. Everyone who has tried posium knows that the 50c box, on sale at Wall's and Burkinshaw's, Carter & Sherburne's, and the Ricker-Jaynes Drug Co.'s, as well as all other drug stores, contains sufficient for the worst cases of eczema, where the surface affected is not too large. The itching ceases on first application. It will also cure acne, netter, blotches, scalp, scalp, hives, barbed, and every other form of itch, including itching feet. Being flesh-colored and containing no grease, the presence of posium on exposed surfaces, such as the face and hands, is not perceptible. Water and soap cannot be used in connection with it, as they irritate and prolong skin troubles, sometimes even causing them.

MAN DISAPPEARED

BOSTON, June 7.—Frederick J. Foster, 30 years old, a salesman representing a jewelry manufacturing company of Detroit in the eastern territory, disappeared on May 12 from the Parker house, where he had been a guest for three days.

It was stated unofficially yesterday that the matter was brought to the attention of the police by the hotel management at the request of the mother of the missing salesman, Mrs. A. B. Foster of Summerville, N. J. She has not heard from her son for more than a month and fears that he has met with foul play.

May 12 Foster left the Parker house. No alarm was felt when he did not return in the evening, but when a week elapsed it was decided to inspect his room.

A clerk found Foster's sample cases containing jewelry valued, it is said, at at least $10,000 in the room. The property was shipped to Detroit. According to later information the inventory revealed that there was no shortage and that the accounts of the missing man were correct.

Yesterday the police were told that Foster is 5 feet, 10 inches in height, weighs 165 pounds, is of dark complexion and has a dark mustache. The police lean to the theory of foul play. Foster, it is said, may have been waylaid by somebody who believed he carried large sums of money and precious stones with him.

WOMAN SUES FOR ALLEGED BREACH OF PROMISE

WORCESTER, June 7.—There will be no wedding bells today for Miss Mary Desrosiers of Fitchburg, and as a result she brought suit to recover $5000 for alleged breach of promise from Arsene Giguere of Gardner. The action was brought in the superior court yesterday after an attachment had been made on the property of the defendant.

WAS FINED $5000

Woman Was Convicted of Smuggling

TRENTON, N. J., June 7.—A fine of $5000 was imposed yesterday by Judge Bellamy in the United States court on Mrs. Matilda M. Chesbrough, wife of a wealthy Boston ship owner, who was recently convicted of trying to smuggle personal property into this country. Counsel for Mrs. Chesbrough announced that an appeal would be taken to the United States circuit court of appeals.

MATRIMONIAL

Mr. Frederic Desrosiers, president of Carillon council, Union St. Jean Baptiste d'Amerique, and Miss Georganna Harrison were married yesterday morning at St. Joseph's church, where a nuptial mass was celebrated at 7 o'clock by Rev. Fr. Baron, O. M. I. The bride wore white silk, with pearl trimmings, and a tulle veil, and carried white carnations. She was attended by a cousin, Mr. Frank Gagnon. The bridegroom's witness was his uncle, Narcisse Asselin.

During the mass the choir of Notre-Dame de Lourdes sang, of which the bride was a member, sang appropriate hymns. Joseph A. Bernard played the organ.

After the mass a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Joseph Desrosiers, 308 Aiken street. At 11 o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Desrosiers left on a trip to Springfield, Chicopee Falls, Holyoke and Salem. Upon their return Saturday night, a reception will be given at the home of the bridegroom's mother, 308 Aiken street. Mr. and Mrs. Desrosiers will live at 171 Hall street.

BULFINCH-PARKER

Mr. Henry M. Bulfinch and Miss Ethel E. Parker, both of this city, were married last evening by Rev. R. Harris of the Paige Street Free Baptist church, at his home. Mr. and Mrs. Bulfinch will make their home in Lowell.

BRIDGE CONTRACT

Was Awarded to Springfield Firm

NASHUA, N. H., June 7.—The contract for the building of the reinforced concrete bridge over the Merrimack river between Nashua and Hudson was awarded to the Fred T. Ley company of Springfield, Mass., last night. It was immediately signed by M. W. Deuman, a representative of the company, and members of the bridge committee representing Nashua and Hudson.

The work of building the bridge will begin June 10, and is expected to cover 120 working days. The cost of the structure will be $74,480. The bids were as follows: The Ferro concrete company of Harrisburg, Pa., $81,000; the bridge to be completed Nov. 15; the Oswego company of Oswego, N. Y., $75,200; the bridge to be finished in five months, and Connors Bros. of Lowell, $102,100, the bridge to be finished in nine months. There were other stipulations in the Connors Bros. bid outside of the specification, which if adopted would reduce their bid $11,500.

Plans for inspection and testing were made by the joint committee.

THE RAILROAD

Have Agreed to Withdraw Tariffs

WASHINGTON, June 7.—After a conference lasting four hours President Taft and the representatives of twenty-four enjoined western railroads reached an agreement late yesterday afternoon whereby the government is to withdraw its rate increase injunction suits against these roads, and the roads, pending the passage of the new railroad law, agree to withdraw the tariffs recently filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The conference really resulted in a trade between the president and the attorney general. On the one hand, the western railroads on the other, the assumption being that the new rate bill will become law and that under it the Interstate Commerce Commission will have power to determine the reasonableness of the increases the roads have endeavored to put into effect.

SERIOUS INJURY

RUSSELL SHAW VICTIM OF A PECULIAR ACCIDENT

BOSTON, June 7.—Russell Shaw of Jamaica Plain, employed as a driver by the S. S. Pierce company in Brookline, was the victim of a peculiar accident, while driving his wagon on Kennard road, Brookline, early yesterday morning. He is at the Massachusetts General hospital in a critical condition.

The covered top of Shaw's wagon caught in a branch of a large tree opposite the home of H. W. O'Conor. The strain on the wagon snapped the key bolt on the front axle and the front wheels parted from the wagon. Shaw was dragged forward and fell under one of the wheels.

Three of his ribs were fractured and he also suffered other serious internal injuries. His head and hands were badly cut. The injured man was found unconscious in the road. Dr. H. Lincoln Chase was called and ordered Shaw taken to the hospital.

The horse kept going and was found later hitched to the shafts and front wheels.

The injured man is married and formerly lived in Brookline.

First "Fourth of July" Victim

NEW YORK, June 6.—The victim of the first "Fourth of July" accident in Greater New York and of the form of celebration which Mayor Gaynor wants to do away with, is Frank Knapp, 18 years old, of Brooklyn.

About 10 days ago young Knapp came home in the afternoon and found the children of several neighbors with firecrackers. He was so excited that they were "celebrating the Fourth." He let the youngsters hear more noise. Frank went into the house, got a pistol and loaded it with blank cartridges. He fired until he thought all the chambers were empty. He pulled the trigger to show a boy how it worked.

Instead of a click there was an explosion, and Knapp was burned on the right thigh. The burn stung, but he paid little attention to it. Several days afterward, however, it began to pain him and he applied a home remedy. Yesterday the wound became so painful that his parents said he must get hospital treatment.

He started to say something and found he could not move his jaws. They were locked. Dr. Tabst took him to the Brooklyn hospital, where it was found he had tetanus. It was said he would die.

LIVINGSTON PARK

Appropriations Committee Would Buy It

Committee Refused Special Appropriation For Bill Oved For Feeble Minded—New Pump Matter Goes Back to Water Board

The committee on appropriations met at city hall last night and voted to recommend the purchase of the Livingston land in the Highlands for park purposes, the purchase price being $12,000.

The committee refused to recommend a special appropriation for the payment of the bill owed for some years past to the Massachusetts School for Feeble Minded Children. The amount of the bill is $4286.92.

The question of a new pump for the Centralville pumping station as requested by the water board was taken up. The committee had asked an opinion from the city solicitor relative to this matter and the opinion was read. On motion of Alderman Dexter it was voted to refer the opinion to the water board with the recommendation that the board get plans, specifications and bids on the new pump.

The committee will forward a communication to the city council in which it will be stated that when appropriations were fixed early in the year the committee on appropriations had in mind the bill for $4286.92 in favor of the Massachusetts School for the Feeble Minded, and that the amount recommended for the charity department, $75,000, was intended to include the bill in question.

The committee, with the exception of Councilman Flanagan, voted the following recommendation to the city council:

Your committee would respectfully report that in its opinion the appropriation given early in the year is ample to pay all proper expenses for this year, as well as the bill in favor of the Massachusetts School for the Feeble Minded.

The Park Land

The proposed purchase of the Livingston land in upper Middlesex street for park purposes was next in order. Chairman Gray reported that the purchase price, $12,000, is about the same as it was last year. All of the members, with the exception of Councilman Flanagan, favored the purchase, and on a vote Councilman Flanagan was the only dissenter. The latter allowed that it was too much to pay for the land, and argued that it might be bought at a lower price.

After considering the fact that it would require a two-thirds vote of the city government to pass a special loan order for the amount named, the committee recommended that it be taken from the general treasury fund, which needs only a majority vote. Councilman Flanagan voted against the proposition. Adjourned at 8.45.

ANNUAL MEETING

OF THE BOOK-A-MONTH CLUB HELD LAST NIGHT

The annual meeting of the Book-a-Month club was held last night at the home of Mrs. J. Clark Glidden, 1229 Middlesex street. Mrs. Wm. H. Keizer presided, and during the early part of the meeting considerable routine business was transacted.

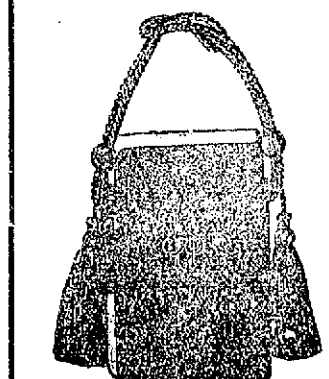

The principal business of the meeting was the election of officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. J. Clark Glidden; vice president, Mrs. Wm. H. Keizer; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. John J. Hibbs. The new president appointed the following committees: Program, Mrs. Wesley M. Wilder, Mrs. Rodrigue Mignault, Miss Ella Carlton; entertainment, Mrs. Charles Abare, Mrs. Wm. E. Keizer, Miss Sadie Jiridine; current events, Mrs. Alerton K. Glidden; flowers, Mrs. Wm. A. Moore. A feature of the evening was the presentation to the retiring president, Mrs. Keizer, of a book of poems from the women present.

The evening was then spent pleasantly with an indoor picnic and games. After a vote of thanks to the hostess, the club adjourned until fall when the subject to be studied will be Mexico and lower California. The subject of lace and precious gems will also be on the list.

To the Women of Lowell and Surrounding Towns

We wish to announce that we have been working for some time past with our designers and manufacturers to bring out the very newest and prettiest designs in women's wear for the summer months and now feel confident that we will be able to MAKE MANY HAPPY HEARTS.

We have been trying for years to make dresses of distinction at $4.50, $5.00, $6.00 and $7.00, but until this season could not get just the right lines and shapes combined with style, but now we know that you will agree with us that this has been accomplished. This also has been done in the better grade of dresses from $10.00 to $25.00.

The tailor-made suit, the tailor-made coat, the tailor-made skirt and the shirt waist have become established; the tailor-made dress has now been perfected, which completes the wardrobe.

We were among the first to introduce the women's ready-made garment in New England, of which we are proud. WE CORDIALLY INVITE THE LADIES OF LOWELL AND SURROUNDING TOWNS TO COME AND INSPECT THIS SUPERB SHOWING OF DRESSES. COME TOMORROW.

We have many imitators, but, as we originate many Color Combinations with style, you will find that ours have that difference you want in snap and finish.

We have designed dresses for Juniors—not misses' dresses reduced to Junior sizes, but dresses that will fit the growing girls perfectly without alteration.

Yours Respectfully,

New York Cloak and Suit Co.

livered at the University of Berlin in conferring the doctor of philosophy degree upon Theodore Roosevelt on May 12. It is both interesting and amusing, as follows:

"Be this a fortunate and propitious thing, under the very pleasing and wholesome patronage of the most serene and powerful sovereign, William II, Emperor of the Germans and King of Prussia, Erich Schmidt, being the unanimous decree from the most honorable faculty of philosophy, on his own motion, Gustavus Roelke, its lawful dean, has, on May 12, 1910, with a view to bestowing an honor upon him, conferred the dignity and distinction of doctor of philosophy and master of the liberal arts on Theodore Roosevelt, who, descending from an ancestor that dwelt near the mouth of the Rhine, educated in American and German schools, and having been the pride of Harvard university, has described in a scientific and graceful manner, not merely the countries and the animals of his fatherland, as a strenuous herdsman and daring hunter, but also as a blameless judge and excellent citizen, has brought to light, in a beautiful language and for the greatest truthfulness of history and usefulness of human life—its institutions, customs and famous men; who, as a rough rider, assailed courageously the enemy, and even more courageously the bad citizen; who, as the upright man, firm in his purpose, lover of truth and thirst for knowledge, was the promoter of a learned intercourse across the ocean; who, as former president of the United States of America was an exceedingly praised man abroad as well as at home."

EMPIRE THEATRE

At the Empire Theatre the show yesterday turned out to be all that was expected of it. It will continue so today and tomorrow. Melodious Hates takes the houses. He has an interest as well as a refined musical act. He plays on various instruments, some of which have no name. Amy Stanley and her chocolate creams is the second number of vaudeville. The moving picture program is made up of dramatic and comedy pictures so that everyone who sees it is well pleased. There will be an entire change of program Thursday.

THEATRE VOYONS

The success of Daniel Sully in plays like "The Parish Priest," was country-wide and today the Theatre Voyons shows a picture "The Peacemaker," that follows the same general lines as did these dramatic successes. The character of the genial fatherly priest is played with just the right touch and one cannot but feel better as well as amused after seeing this picture. "Her Life for her Love" is a story of a slave's sacrifice that is most interesting from the very start. Other dramatic subjects and several laughable comedies complete a pleasing picture program. Miss Ida Wilson, one of Lowell's foremost singers, is a big success and the opportunity of hearing such a singer in public is an unusual one.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Loring and Parquette are making a big hit with the patrons of the Academy of Music with their novelty playlet, "The Awakening of Cleo." Bruce Morgan is a clever dancer and is the only dancer ever seen in Lowell, who dances sitting down. There is a great list of comedy pictures and the biograph, "In the Season of Buds," is a picture that will please both lovers of comedy and drama. Miss Claudia Bessette is singing "Curly Head" in a pleasing manner, and views of the different countries are shown. Admission 5 and 10 cents.

REV. FR. SAUNDERS

WAS PRESENTED A CHALICE BY THE CHILDREN

Rev. Fr. Edward F. Saunders, formerly of St. Ann's church, Somerville, who was presented with an automobile by his parishioners a few days ago, yesterday received a tribute from the Sunday school children.

The latter felt that they would like to make a gift of their own and raised $110. They purchased a gold chalice which they sent to the priest at Popponell.

TOMATOES RUINED

By the Heavy Frost That Prevailed Early Sunday Morning

Farmers of Chelmsford, Westford, Littleton and Neighboring Towns Are Mourning the Loss of Their Vegetable Plants

The farmers of Chelmsford, Littleton, Tyngsboro, Carlisle and other nearby towns are mourning the loss of valuable vegetable beds as the result of a heavy white frost that covered the land Saturday night.

A heavy frost on June 4 seems decidedly improbable, but the chilled tomato plants tell the story, and all but the most hardy vegetables will have to be planted again. In the Littleton townlands the damage was quite severe. In Westford potatoes, beans and corn suffered while the orchards and the vegetables on Westford hill escaped. In Hudson, N. H., the farmers covered their tomato vines with paper but even then the frost got to them. The cucumber vines of Graniteville were killed by the frost and the crop destroyed.

Chelmsford suffered heavily from the frost. Tomatoes, beans, corn and squashes suffered heavily. Mitchell Lebeouf, who resides on the Boston road, lost all but 15 out of 800 tomato plants besides a quantity of squashes and beans. In order to get the early market he had started them in hothouses in January. He estimates his loss at $300.

Supt. Hannaford of the Chelmsford town farm loses 100 tomato plants while his crop of beans was ruined. Mrs. Hannaford loses a fine bed of dahlias.

Elmer E. Hildreth reports the destruction of a quarter acre potato patch. A white frost was reported on ploughed fields in Chelmsford at 4 o'clock Sunday morning.

AMERICAN GIRLS

TO BECOME THE BRIDES OF ENGLISHMEN

LONDON, June 7.—This month will witness three Anglo-American alliances that are so remarkable even London, accustomed as it is to weddings of Americans and English, are taking notice of these events. These marriages will unite some of the most prominent American and English families and promise to be the most brilliant of the London season.

The wedding of Miss Margaretta Drexel, daughter of Anthony Drexel, the many-time millionaire of Philadelphia, to Viscount Maidstone, which will take place Wednesday, will have all American and London society interested. The Drexels' family position at home is well known, and Miss Drexel being related by marriage to the Goulds as well as being the niece of Mrs. James Henry Smith, who inherited $30,000,000 from her husband after a marriage of but a few months' duration, and also a niece of Mrs. Van Rensselaer, has enhanced her position in the social as well as financial world.

Another wedding of the week is that of Miss Mildred Ridgely Carter to Viscount Acheson, Thursday. Miss Carter is the daughter of the veteran diplomat, Ridgely Carter, United States minister to Bucharest. Viscount Acheson is the son and heir of the Earl of Gosford.

The remarkable trio of alliances will end on June 22, when Miss Helen Agnes Post, daughter of Lady Barrymore, will become the bride of Hon. Charles Montague Elliot, nephew of the Earl of St. Germans; of the Countess of Bessborough, Lady Legard and Lord Wimborne, and also prospective groom-waiting to King George. Miss Post is the granddaughter of ex-Congressman James W. Wadsworth, of beef fame, and who has established much that is English in his politics in his home county, Livingston, of New York.

ART EXHIBITION

Held at the Whistler House

If you would know something of the art work that is being done in the public schools in Lowell, drop in at the Whistler house where an exhibition is being held under the auspices of the Lowell Art Association. The exhibition opened yesterday and the attendance was large. Parents and children alike are interested in the work on exhibition there, and the work was a revelation to a great many for those of us who left school years ago do not appreciate how the art work in the schools has been developed.

The work of the kindergartens and the work of the high school are side by side and while the high school work shows the process of development, the finer touch, etc., the little ones from the kindergartens may feel justly proud of their work exhibited there. The work of the kindergartens illustrates the various months. There are autumn leaves in color for October, Christmas flowers and greenery for December, and so on and so forth. The high school shows stencilled designs, clever drawings for wall paper, and autumn leaves in brilliant colors. The work of the grammar schools is shown in the main room and there are numerous drawings. The character of the work is excellent. The training school has a sample of leather work and an illuminated poem on Thanksgiving.

The primary school exhibit is very interesting. The child's real fancy is found here and the exhibit abounds in animals cut from cardboard and other things too numerous to mention. In order to thoroughly enjoy the exhibition you must see for yourself. The hours are ten to five, and the admission, ten cents for adults and five for children.

CHIEF CROKER

Scores New York Fire Department

NEW YORK, June 7.—The New York fire department, widely lauded as the most workmanlike and best organized in the world, is only 40 per cent efficient, in the opinion of its chief. Two firemen were smothered early yesterday morning in a downtown warehouse blaze, and Chief Croker's sorrow at the loss of life was blended with anger over the manner in which it came to pass.

"There was a panic in that fire," he said, "and I want it known. A majority of the men fighting that fire were young civil service firemen. When they got into the thick of the smoke their lungs could not stand the strain. They got frightened, dropped the hose and ran. I want some men with brains, yes; but I want all of them with lungs. The cigarette smoking, weak lunged, undersized, civil service firemen have been demoralizing the department for the last 26 years—ever since the civil service commission began to pass on applicants."

"How does it happen?" Chief Croker was asked, "that the apparent efficiency of the department is so high?" "The oldtimers leave the lot," replied the chief. "The 49 per cent of efficiency puts shame into the 50 per cent of inefficiency, but there are less oldtimers every year."

MARRATIO DEAD

He Was Stabbed During Street Fight

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., June 7.—A feud which started years ago between two Italians employed on the same job was renewed in a quarrel on Market street here last night, resulting in the fatal stabbing of Gumpo Marratio, aged 40; Agostino Grovato, aged 35, being arrested for the deed and charged with murder.

The men met in a saloon and carried a quarrel started there into the street. Grovato, it is claimed, drew out an ordinary jackknife and stabbed Marratio in the abdomen, the latter dying within a few minutes.

Marratio leaves a wife. Grovato is single.

DOCTOR FASTING

HAS GONE WITHOUT FOOD FOR THREE WEEKS

NEW YORK, June 7.—Dr. Gustav A. Gayer finished yesterday the third week of the fast he has undertaken to prove that the mind rules the body. He weighs 133 pounds, 27 pounds less than when he began.

"If it were not for the fact that I wish to preserve my strength for my work," said Dr. Gayer yesterday, "I should continue my fast for 60 or 70 days. As it is, I shall probably begin eating gradually again at the end of another week."

The doctor's physicians say he is in perfect condition mentally and physically, but his face is lined and unwell, and he complains of slight weariness in the afternoons. He has also curtailed his work on the advice of physicians who feared too severe strain might cause a sudden collapse.
